Second Meeting 1973

Council Of Barrington Garden Clubs met March 20, 1973 at 10:00 A.M., Langendorf Field House. 8 members present, Mary Galvin, Kay Cutler, Sam Oliver, Bea Curtis, Ruth Ryan, Carol McClintock, Evelyn Ortman, May Sherman and Claudia Mandaback, Chairman for Garden Club of Illinois luncheon

President, Mrs. Galvin, conducted the meeting. Secretary, Mrs. Cutler read the minutes of the January 6 meeting.

Mrs. Oliver, in the absence of the treasurer gave the treasurers report. Check to Mrs. Kuffel for $7.00 for her attendance at the Fox River Symposium being the only debit. Quarterly interest check for $12.25 deposited. Balance on hand this date, $566.58. Member clubs have all paid council dues, ready for deposit by the new treasurer, with exception of Countryside Class.

Countryside Class will provide the Council with a treasurer by the May meeting.

Mrs. Ortman, chairman Arbor Day, reported plans for Arbor Day April 27. Trees have been ordered for all fourth graders of all eight schools. Mrs. Galvin will arrange for the Glover garage at route 63 just west of Sutton Rd. to be the site for packaging and distributing trees- on Tues. or Wed. April 24 or 25. Each Garden Club will package and pick up their trees at that time and at that site. Individual Clubs will also be resposible for contacting the principal of their school assignment, to arrange for a time to make the trees available to the fourth grade students in that school. They should also plan to make a 10-15 minute Arbor Day and planting talk at the time of their distribution.

Mrs. ~~Sherman~~ Curtis, representing Mrs. Kuffel, had no report on beautification.

Mrs. Ryan still needs volunteers to assist in the Morris Press booth at the Flower Show at McCormick Place March 24- April1. It was decided the Council will allocate any monies realized from the sale of books to the Village of Barrington for their beautification programs.

The Garden Club of Illinois summer meeting, July 9, 1973 to be held in Barrington at the Barn, will feature Dr. Stuart Struever, Northwestern Un. archeologist, as the luncheon speaker. Mrs. McGibbon made the arrangements necessary to obtain him. His fee will be $ 150.00

Mrs. Mandaback suggested $ 6.50 as a tenative price for the luncheon ticket based on sample menu prices. Mrs. Galvin suggested she inquire about arranging for a special menu for that day. All agreed.

Mrs. Oliver discussed table decorations which will be provided by the Country Home and Garden Club, Mrs. Noyes chairman. Necessary materials will amount to approximately $1.00 per table. A larger, more elaborate centerpiece will be provided for the speakers table and a smaller one for the reception-ticket table.

Name tags will be provided for all.

The business meeting will preceed the luncheon, in the Barn's new addition - which will be completed before July 9,1973.

Luncheon will be served in the upstairs dining rooms. A cash bar will be available.

The Village Garden Club, Countryside Class and Field and Flower Garden Clubs will provide hostesses for each table. They will also provide transportation from the train station to the Barn.

150 person attendance is minimum. Maximum is undetermined.

Mrs. Mandaback must have ticket price and all other pertinent information before May 15, 1973 - for publication in Garden Glories.

Mrs. Galvin reminded those present that each club is resposible for sending two representatives to each Council meeting. The Council should be twelve members present. Each Club should also provide the Council with two current Year Books. To date, Country Home and Garden Club and the Village Garden Club have complied.

Mrs. Galvin reminded members that each club has ten Maple Trees out at Crab Tree Farm which must be removed. She suggested that possibly the Council could pay to have them removed and replanted somewhere in the Village. Everyone agreed this was a good idea.
