A WEEKLY BULLETIN OF THE ST. ANNE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

This is a time of worry and frustration for Americans—and for many other members of the world community.
As people of faith, we might listen closely and carefully to the words of the Apostle Paul in today's selections from the Letter to the Philippians:

Brothers and Sisters:
Have no anxiety at all,
but in everything, by prayer and petition,
and with thanksgiving
make your requests known to God.
Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds
in Christ Jesus!
Finally, Brothers and Sisters,
whatever is true, whatever is honorable,
whatever is just, whatever is pure,
whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious,
if there is any excellence
and if there is anything worthy of praise, these are the things to think about.
Keep on doing what you have learned,
received, heard, and seen.
Then the God of peace will be with you!

OUR MISSION

We, a Catholic Christian people rooted by Baptism, take as our challenge the mission of Jesus: to build the Kingdom of God, standing in solidarity with the poor. We are committed to:

Welcoming
- Welcoming all people and providing a sense of belonging to people at every stage of life.

Creating
- Creating a place of enjoyment, excitement and fun for people of all ages.

Healing
- Healing, reconciling and reaching out in caring service to each other.

Reaching Out

Serving
- Serving those in need, especially the broken, through generous gifts of time, talent and treasure.

Gathering
- Gathering at Eucharist and celebrating the Sacraments of the Church and the sacramental moments of our lives.

Sharing
- Telling and sharing the Living Story of Jesus.

So challenged, we pray that the Holy Spirit fills us and empowers us so that we may become the Living Presence of Jesus in our contemporary world.

Resting in Peace

REFLECTIONS

Chill Chaser

Doc Arnett wrote a short vignette he entitled "Chill Chasers" that carries a strong message for us all.

> In December of '02, one of those powerful Alberta Clippers came knifing through the low swells of the American Prairie. A wee bit of its wake surged into the non-insulated space of the old garage that frames the area below the exposed water pipe portion of our apartment house. This provided us with the opportunity to revisit the capabilities of a propane torch and a butane space heater. The smaller and cheaper of these two quickly provided an unfrozen path so the water could again flow through and bring joy to both tenant and owners.
> That time, there was a gap between the foundation and siding. Randa's grandmother would say, "It was big enough that you could throw a cat through it." Closing that hole reduced the ease with which cold nor'westers could infiltrate the confines of the garage space. Insulation helped quite a bit, too.
>
> Now, unless the outside temperature slides into single digits or below, the inside temperature tends to stay at a point that keeps water from freezing and my temper from boiling. In more severe spells, we use a bit of supplemental heat. Even though the space exceeds six thousand cubic feet, our small kerosene heater is sufficient to keep the pipes from freezing.
> We do not have to play with the fire and force of a jet engine to make a difference in this world. Though our presence and passion may not be enough to stop a blizzard in its tracks, the warmth of a kind word and the glow of a simple smile may often be enough to chase away the chill of another's loneliness.

Quite a simple writing, but how necessary and important is its message! Where can we, this day or this week, "chase away the chill" of another's loneliness?

GENERATIONS OF FAITH - MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES-

At Generations of Faith, we come together to share a meal and then to share our traditions and our faith. We come away refreshed and enriched by the experience. This cannot happen without the help of many dedicated ministers giving their time, talents and efforts to their fellow parishioners. Our heartfelt thanks goes to all those who have committed themselves to this ministry for the coming year.

If you would like to join the Generations of Faith ministry team, we still have opportunities available in the following areas:

Catechists and Assistants to Catechists: Scripts are provided to teach or assist a catechist at the following levels: pre-school (ages 4 to kindergarten), grades 1-2, grades 3-5, high school, or adults.

Meal Service: Set up beverages, serve family-style meals, and clean up.

A/V and Session Operations: Assist with setting up the breakout rooms, deliver session materials to breakout rooms, or operate audio/visual equipment.

Art and Environment: Set up tables in the Parish Center prior to the start of a session, or bring home tablecloths to launder, fold and return within 48 hours.

Babysitting: Watch children (infants through 3 year olds) in the nursery.

Hospitality: Greet participants or usher them to their tables.

The time requirement for most teams is 1½ to 2 hours per each session plus 1½ to 2 hours practice the week prior to the beginning of each series.

High School Students: Helping with Generations of Faith is a great way to complete your school's service requirement.

YOUTH FORMATION NEEDS YOU!

Our Youth Formation programs are growing by leaps and bounds, and we desperately need adult help to keep things running smoothly.

PEER MINISTRY ADVISORS: We are in need of some reliable adults who would be interested in serving as advisors for our Peer Ministry team. The Peer Ministry team is a group of high school students who meet weekly on Monday nights to share in scripture discussions, and plan and implement events and activities for high school students in and around our parish. The commitment would include Monday meetings and attendance at Sunday 5:15 p.m. Mass whenever possible.

PEER MINISTRY HAS GROWN TO INCLUDE 40-60 KIDS EACH MONDAY NIGHT. WE REALLY NEED ADULT HELP TO FACILITATE DISCUSSION AND KEEP THINGS UNDER CONTROL.

For more information or to volunteer, please contact:

Ellen Nelson at enelson@stannebarrington.org, Anne Rometty at rometty@sbcglobal.net or call the Youth Ministry office at 847.620.3073.

WE ASK YOUR HELP!

We are very proud of our parish library that serves many children and adults and which generally runs quite smoothly. However, there are a significant number of books and A-V materials that have been signed out by individuals and have not been returned within the specified time frame and, therefore, are long overdue. In spite of several post cards and letters sent to remind borrowers of these overdue items, we have been, in very many instances, unsuccessful in getting them back.

If you have received some of these reminders - or if you know that you have books that are overdue - we ask you to help us keep our library well-stocked and current by doing the following:

1) Make a real effort to look for the materials you have taken out, especially those listed on the mailing you received.
2) Return the items promptly, or be kind enough to pay for their replacement if they are lost or damaged.
3) Contact us to discuss the problem. It may be a mistake on our part, and we need to know that.

Finally, if anyone or a group took out a large amount of materials in the categories of psychology, Scott Peck's books, inspiration, wellness, or marriage without signing them out, please be so kind as to let us know. We are especially concerned about these missing books and A-V items.

Thank you for understanding our concerns. We appreciate your help.

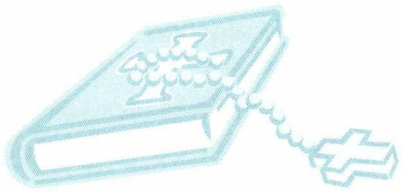
October is the Month of the Rosary

How many times does Our Lady need to ask us to pray the Rosary before we respond? When was the last time you prayed for the suffering souls in purgatory or for those in the most need of mercy? There is no better time than now to return to the family Rosary or to begin the parish Rosary program (see www.parishprojects.com for details). If we do not do as Our Lady requests, who will? Say "YES" to Mary. Begin again and teach others to pray the Rosary daily.



St. Anne Catholic Community

In searching for materials to help parishioners approach the election, Faithjustice came across this thoughtful piece written by Allen and Stephanie Tatara, a deacon couple from St. Hubert Parish, Hoffman Estates. Their parish, along with ours, is a member of a cluster of suburban northwest parishes whose faith perspective informs their social justice concerns. We recommended it to the parish staff who agreed. We will share it with you over the next several weeks.

FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP: POLITICAL RESPONSIBILITY AND OUR FAITH

It seems as if we are always being bombarded by political rhetoric; interviews, articles, negative ads, etc. Sometimes it is hard to cut through the clutter to know what the issues really are. Politics is more than what candidates say or what party they belong to; it is about people and principles. For us, as Catholics, politics should be about making moral choices and working to build a better world. Jesus teaches us to love one another. (John 13:34) It is our baptismal call and a requirement of our faith to "protect the lives and dignity of all, especially the weak, the vulnerable and the voiceless."

How can we take the teachings of Jesus and apply it to the political process? Why should we want to combine church and politics? What kind of nation do we want to be? What is our role in shaping a better world?

In the upcoming weeks, we will be addressing these and other questions. We will be addressing how Church teachings can help us address social and political questions that help us to make good choices. We will also explore the themes of Catholic Social Teaching and how these themes apply to issues in the election. We will also provide resources where you can find more in-depth information.

What we will not do is tell you whom you should vote for or how you should vote. As the bishops say in their Faithful Citizenship document:

"In this statement, we bishops do not intend to tell Catholics for whom or against whom to vote. Our purpose is to help Catholics form their consciences in accordance with God's truth. We recognize that the responsibility to make choices in political life rests with each individual in light of a properly formed conscience, and that participation goes well beyond casting a vote in a particular election."

The bishops also say: "The Church is involved in the political process but is not partisan. The Church cannot champion any candidate or party. Our cause is the defense of human life and dignity and the protection of the weak and vulnerable."

Our faith requires us to be active citizens. We shouldn't hide away from politics because there isn't a perfect candidate. Not voting is not an option! The Catechism of the Catholic Church states "as far as possible citizens should take an active part in public life." For Americans, this means exercising our right to vote. As Catholics, "our participation should help transform the party to which we belong; we should not let the party transform us in such a way that we neglect or deny fundamental moral truths. We are called to bring together our moral principles and our political choices, our values and our votes, to help build a better world."

Starlight Soup Suppers
Sponsored by St. Anne Youth Ministry

One form of outreach to the less fortunate offered by Youth Ministry is our trips to Chicago to serve soup to those who make Chicago's night time streets their home. We will be working with "The Night Ministry," a group organized to build relationships with these people and empower them to meet their own needs, twice monthly throughout the colder months in the North Town and Humboldt Park areas of Chicago. The Night Ministry's "Health Outreach Bus" travels the area every night offering assistance to the homeless of all ages. The bus offers everything from medical assistance and clothing to a warm place to sit and talk. The bus also offers a "Curbside Soup Kitchen" which serves a hot soup meal to the people who come for help. Each night they ask organizations from all over the Chicagoland area to help out by providing soup and volunteers to help serve. This is where St. Anne Youth Ministry comes in.

Here's how it works:

- Meet at St. Anne at 4:00 p.m. (limited to 6 teens and 2 chaperones each time)
- Travel to meet the Health Outreach Bus (on Ravenswood)
- After a brief orientation, caravan with the bus and serve soup to visitors until the food runs out.
- Depart for home between 8:00 and 8:30 p.m.
- Arrive back in Barrington, clean up and finish between 9:30 and 10:00 p.m.

Adults who wish to chaperone will be assigned first. When the chaperone positions are filled, we will then begin to sign up teen volunteers. Teens who accompany a chaperone will be assigned when the chaperone signs up.

SOUP SUPPER DATES FOR 2008-2009:

TUESDAYS IN HUMBOLDT PARK:

October 21st, November 18th, December 16th, January 27th, February 24th, March 31st, April 21st

WEDNESDAYS IN UPTOWN:

October 8th, November 5th, December 3rd, January 7th, February 11th, March 11th, April 8th

We also need 10 gallons of soup to take with us each month, and we need small groups or individuals who can give a little bit of their time and resources to make it! You may volunteer to make anywhere from 2½ gallons to all 10-let us know what works for you. The soup needs to be hot and at the Youth Ministry office by 3:45 p.m. on the day of the soup supper. We will provide insulated 5-gallon containers to put it in. Please talk to people and groups you know to see if you can help.

Other Ways You Can Help:

1. Add sandwiches to our soup suppers. Small groups or individuals are asked to make sandwiches (ham, turkey, chicken or peanut butter and jelly, etc.) to serve with our soup. We need 200 sandwiches individually wrapped (in sandwich baggies) at the Youth Ministry office by 3:45 p.m. on the day of the soup supper.
2. Add fruit or dessert to the dinner. Oranges, bananas, grapes or other soft-fleshed fruit is very welcome—please, no crunchy fruits as they are too hard for people with sensitive dental issues. Easily distributed desserts such as Rice Krispie treats or cookies are also a pleasant addition to our menu. Please package these in single serving bags (oranges, bananas and other such items do not need to be pre-packaged.) We serve about 200 dinners on each trip.

[1] Let me sing for my beloved my love-song concerning his vineyard:
"My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.
[2] He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines;
he built a watchtower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it;
he expected it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes.
[3] "And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard.
[4] What more was there to do for my vineyard that I have not done in it?
When I expected it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes?

[5] "And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard.
I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured;
I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.
[6] I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed,
and it shall be overgrown with briers and thorns;
I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.
[7] For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his pleasant planting;
he expected justice, but saw bloodshed;
righteousness, but heard a cry!"

Responsorial Psalm 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20 (Isaiah 5:7a) The vineyard of the LORD is the house of Israel.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:6-9 (NCCB)

Brothers and sisters:
[6] Have no anxiety at all,
but in everything,
by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving,
make your requests known to God.
[7] Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

[8] Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable,
whatever is just, whatever is pure,
whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious,
if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.
[9] Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me.
Then the God of peace will be with you.

Matthew 21:33-43 (CCCB)

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people:
[33] "Listen to another parable.
There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watchtower.
Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country.

[34] "When the harvest time had come,
he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce.
[35] But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another.
[36] Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way.

[37] "Finally he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'
[38] But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves,
'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance.'
[39] So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

[40] "Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?"
[41] They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time."

[42] Jesus said to them,
"Have you never read in the scriptures:
' The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;
this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes'?
[43] Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom."

Living Story

Our familiarity over the past few Sundays with the following literary form makes it easier to understand this parable:

- Story of the tenants is a window into the reality of the chief priests/elders
- Matthew solicits judgment on the tenants (vv. 40, 41)
- Mirror reveals that it is actually the chief priests/elders who are judged (vv. 42, 43).

We have also seen this cultural context before. It is a common economic arrangement. The owner is an absentee landlord; he lives in another country but rents his land to tenant farmers who pay a fee or a percentage of the crop to agents whom the landlord sends. Based on the economics of peasants who farmed their own land, it is estimated that tenants would eventually be able to keep less than 20% of their annual produce to support their family and its livestock. In this context, the parable is straightforward. The tenants are frustrated and desperation drives them to violence. They kill the first two sets of agents sent by the owner. When he sends his son, they presume the owner is dead and, hoping to take over the vineyard for themselves, they kill his heir. It turns out to be a short-sighted miscalculation. The owner is very much alive and will avenge himself and, of course, rent instead to more compliant tenants. In this literal meaning, it is a warning to landowners against maltreating their tenant farmers by exacting too great a payment – something to which the Matthew's peasant audience would certainly nod approvingly.

But note the Psalm Response between the Hebrew Scripture (Old Testament) and the Gospel: The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Verse 43 therefore, pushes all the foregoing into the area of allegory. Matthew's Jewish readers would instantly identify with their scripture, Isaiah 5:1 ff (see text above, but note differences between it and the gospel story). In an allegory, the elements of the story stand for something else and the meaning therefore enlarges:

the vineyard = Israel
the tenants = leaders
the owner = God
the son = Jesus
the first set of agents (slaves) = the prophets before the Exile
the second set of agents = the post-exilic prophets

In the version of this same story in Mark (12:1) and Luke (20:9), the owner sends servants to get some (his share) of the produce; in Matthew, the owner sends servants to collect his produce. The owner (God) is collecting what has been produced in his name, i.e., all things. In Matthew (as opposed to Isaiah), the problem is with the leaders and not with Israel itself (however, note in Isaiah 5:1 ff, that it is Israel itself who is destroyed). The tenants (leadership) must be replaced because they have not born fruit (e.g. see also 3:8, & 10). So, another group who will produce the fruits of the kingdom will replace this leadership. As mirror, it is a warning, therefore, to the chief priests/elders but more to the point being made to Mathew's readers: it is warning to the leadership in the Matthew community. But the focus is not only on relationship of owner to tenant but on the land itself as well. Ownership rests in God alone. To the rest of humanity, everything is gift and it is certainly temporary.

The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel.

[The foregoing commentary has been adapted largely from John J. Pilch, The Cultural World of Jesus, Cycle A.]

So What? Think how we usually have a psychological attachment to those things that we regard as "belonging to us." For example, how do we respond when we perceive someone attacking a loved one? What happens to us when someone breaks into our home and vandalizes its contents? How does today's gospel shape our response?

St. Anne Catholic Community

Saint Anne School

Mission Statement

Saint Anne School, in partnership with home, church, and community, is dedicated to the formation and education of each child in spirit, mind, and body. We strive to "teach as Jesus did" as we proclaim the gospel, build community, and serve others. Our school community is rich in Catholic values and academic excellence, empowering our students to discover their God-given gifts and to use them as leaders of the Church and society.

Philosophy

Saint Anne School, as an active ministry of Saint Anne Parish, the Archdiocese of Chicago, and the Catholic Church, exists to impart and promote our Catholic faith to future generations.

We believe that our parents, as primary educators, working in positive partnership with parish and school, create a faith community that inspires its members to live as Jesus lived.

We believe that our teachers nurture each child's unique gifts, strengthen the faith formation and academic growth of the whole person, and prepare students to become conscious of and responsive to the diversity of God's creation.

By integrating the knowledge, faith, and values they gain here, Saint Anne students will think critically, discover a love of learning, further social justice, and deepen their relationship with God.

Consider Saint Anne School for your family.

THE STONE REJECTED BY THE BUILDERS HAS NOW BECOME THE MOST IMPORTANT STONE OF ALL.

With Jesus as the cornerstone of our faith, fill in the other stones with pictures of the people in our world who are rejected and outcast.

When memories matter...
Over the years our mother taught all six of us kids the fine art of caring. When she was diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease, it became our responsibility, and privilege, to care for her.
With the help of the people at Prairieview, we are honoring her legacy.

Sacramental Celebrations

We believe that the Celebration of the Sacraments ranks among the most important gifts that we have. We look forward to sharing these celebrations with men and women who, in some way, are part of our community. Therefore, please note the following:

Baptism: Registration in the parish is a prerequisite. For those parents who are baptizing their first child, please allow 2 to 3 months in order to attend 2 required Baptism sessions before setting the Baptism date. For a subsequent child's baptism, an interview session must be scheduled prior to setting the date. All schedules are done in the parish office. Please call 847.382.5300.

Marriage: A son or daughter of a registered parishioner or a registered and active parishioner will need to schedule an interview with a parish staff person to set a date and start the marriage process. Please call 847.382.5300.

First Eucharist and First Reconciliation: These sacraments are celebrated in the second grade. Candidates must complete the preparation program which is coordinated through the REP program. Please call the REP office at 847.620.3068.

Confirmation: This sacrament is celebrated in high school. Candidates must be registered parishioners and complete a 2 year preparation program including large and small group involvement. Please call 847.620.3072.

Reconciliation: Saturdays 9:15 - 10:00 a.m. and by appointment.

Registration: Please do not assume you are registered if you have been attending Mass here or have children in St. Anne School or our REP program. Registration includes meeting with one of our welcoming team members and filling out an official form for our parish records. To register, please call 847.382.5300.
