Miss Marjorie Kuhlman a Bride

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kuhlman, 200 Liberty street, was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when Miss Marjorie Kuhlman became the bride of Elmer Klopfenstein. Members of the couple's immediate family were guests.

Strains from the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Mrs. M. E. Koenig, signaled the approach of the wedding party. The bride, beautiful in a gown of white lace over satin, descended the stairs on the arm of her father who gave her away. The impressive single ring service was read by Rev. Herman Koenig after the bridal party entered the sun parlor and took their places before an improvised altar of ferns and chrysanthemums.

Miss Melba Benker, of Chicago served the bride as maid of honor and Miss Della Klopfenstein, sister of the groom, attended as bridesmaid. The bride wore her mother's wedding gown and necklace. Her corsage was of tea rose.

Miss Benker, who was gowned in shell pink, wore a shoulder corsage of lavendar sweet peas. Miss Klopfenstein, in blue, wore a shoulder corsage of pink sweet peas. Ida Mae Klopfenstein served as flower girl and carried a basket of white and yellow chrysanthemums.

The groom had Marvin Kuhlman, a brother of the bride, as best man, and Loyal D. Klopfenstein, his brother, as attendant.

After the marriage service, a wedding dinner was served at a table attractively decorated in yellow and white. A large wedding cake formed the centerpiece.

The bride wore an all gray "going away" costume with accessories to match. After spending several days in Chicago, the young people are now at home to their friends on a farm near Woodstock.

The philanthropy committee with Mrs. Everett Sproul as chairman, has begun its work for the Little Wanderer's Christmas party. Each year the club undertakes to furnish Christmas toys for the tiny boys and girls who come to this day nursery while their mothers are employed. The committee finds out the number of children in attendance and the age and sex of each so that everyone may receive an appropriate gift. Sometime between now and the holidays, each club member will be called upon to furnish such a toy. It is hoped that every little girl may receive a doll. The toys should be quite inexpensive so that a small cash gift may be made also for the milk fund of the institution.

and inasmuch as veterans are to be given the preference of first employment, the local post of the American Legion is trying to include all the veterans of the community in this undertaking.

Details of this employment were learned Wednesday evening by Commander Diehl, C. E. Paxton, and George Kuebler while they were attending a meeting of the ninth district, American Legion, which was held at Des Plaines.

Under Bogardus Act

All Ela and Cuba township veterans who want work under the Bogardus act Wednesday will register Wednesday. Those in the vicinity of Lake Zurich will meet at the Ela township high school building at Lake Zurich at 2 p. m. next Wednesday, Nov. 29 and register with William H. Woodard, Lake county relief manager of administration of the Bogardus act.

A similar meeting will be held at the American Legion headquarters in Barrington at 8 p. m. Wednesday. Frank Dodd will assist Mr. Woodard in the Ela township enrollment and Paul Pohlman will assist in the Cuba township enrollment.

State Administration Relief

Chairman O'Keefe of the Lake county democratic central committee, was in Barrington Thursday to establish a local Cuba township employment agency which will be part of an organization administered by Governor Horner.

Eight agencies of this type are being established in Lake county and will operate for about ten days with several persons employed in each one. The agencies are at Barrington, Highland Park, Waukegan, North Chicago, Zion, Antioch, Libertyville and Waukegan.

Cornelius Snyder will be superintendent of the local agency which probably will be located in the empty building on Hough street next door north of Prellund Drug Co. He will appoint an assistant superintendent and either a clerk or an usher. About three employes to each of the smaller offices is the plan with more for the larger offices such as that in Waukegan. The superintendents are to be paid 90 cents an hour, the assistant superintendents 85 cents an hour, the clerks 70 cents an hour and the ushers 50 cents an hour. Their period of work will be about two days.

The purpose of these offices is to secure registration of all persons out of work who are not on the relief rolls. It will be a state-wide registration with each man or woman registering his trade, etc. It is expected that with a state wide registration bureau, jobs can be obtained for the unemployed more quickly.
