Variety in Parties

Giving parties that are a little bit different seems to be quite the thing this year. There have been turnabout and fancy dress parties and now we have an Italian supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Seldon White Wednesday. Mrs. White's daughter, Mrs. Robert Clark, has been spending several weeks with her mother writing the life of her grandmother. Mrs. Clark lived in Barrington until a few months ago when she moved into a farm house just outside of Wilmette which was formerly owned by Mr. Clark's grandfather. Miss Billee White who went East to visit friends and attend a few football games came back unexpectedly in time for her mother's anniversary party Wednesday night.

Roll Bandages

Two or three years ago a small group of women started meeting Thursday mornings at different houses and having a cup of coffee. Their number increased and before long they were calling themselves the "Kaffee Katch." Gradually the morning meetings lengthened and turned into luncheons and bridge. Last year feeling that they should turn their fun into some definite purpose they gave a birthday party and with the money raised provided 20 families in Barrington with Christmas dinners and gifts. This year they will meet every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Robert Buckley to roll bandages for the visiting nurses of Chicago. At one o'clock they will go to the home of one of their members for luncheon.

The younger generation is not to be outdone by the older. Little Howard Hetzler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Egar Hetzler, had a lovely birthday party Thursday, Nov. 16 which was equally as nice as any party could be.

Friday night began a gay week-end. The Soup club met at the Ernest Hughes home and the Richmond Kenyons entertained several friends at a dinner party.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buckley entertained several friends from Highland Park at a pheasant dinner Saturday night. The Samuel Rosses also entertained at a dinner Saturday night.

The F. D. Hardys are closing their home in Evanston and are moving into their new house which is nearing completion on the farm on Meadow Hill road. They plan to live here all the year round. Their daughter Faith is attending a college in the East while their son Frank is commuting every day and going to Miss Harris's school. He is finishing his last year and preparing to enter Yale next fall.

A jolly party of those sponsoring and interested in the rural Haeger school held an old fashioned dance in the old cheese factory on the county line road on Tuesday, Nov. 14. The money raised will be used to help finance a library and school equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Smith left Thursday for the East. While there they expect to see Miss Charlotte Hughes who is visiting her grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Watkins are entertaining Mr. Watkins' mother from Fargo, N. D. Mr. Watkins is home now after a short period in the hospital.

New Forms Which Include Title Certificates Distributed

Registration forms for 1934 automobile licenses in Illinois were received this week from Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes for local distribution.

The new form, Mr. Hughes explained, also will serve as an application for the new certificate of title as provided by act of the last general assembly. These blanks call for submission of satisfactory proof of ownership so that the office of the secretary of state may be able to issue certificates of title to those proving legal ownership of their automobiles.

The new law, sometimes referred to as the anti-theft measure, is expected by its sponsors to reduce by at least $10,000,000 the thefts in Illinois motor cars, in addition to which it is expected to reduce by approximately $6,000,000 the gross insurance premiums necessary for the protection against theft of Illinois automobiles.

"In all of the 24 states where similar laws have been in effect," Mr. Hughes explained, "it has been found that car theft insurance rates have reduced substantially. In view of this fact, I plan personally to ask all insurance companies operating in Illinois to reduce their rates against car thefts since our new law has become effective."

Refreshments were served to the 38 mothers, grandmothers, and girl scouts present. The program was concluded by forming the friendship circle and singing taps and good night.
