

KIT LASCH WINS SCHOLARSHIP IN STATE LATIN CONTEST

Kit Lasch placed fifth in the State Latin Contest at Rockford last Saturday. He is thereby eligible for a scholarship at one of eight colleges in Illinois, including Chicago, Northwestern, Illinois, and Knox. Since the four who placed above him have no designs on any of the scholarships, he is entitled to first choice. He plans to accept a scholarship to the University of Chicago.

Two students from LaGrange, Roy Ringlund and Joan Hanauer, placed first and second in the comprehensive fourth year division. South (Cont. on page 8, col. 1)

IT'S ALMOST HERE!

It's musical; it's exciting; it's the latest spring fashion. If you're still in the dark, there's another clue: What's the most colorful, romantic, swaggiest, springiest, Maytime frolic your bewildered brain can think of? Soft lights and the sweet music of Fletcher Butler will put you and your date into a magic mood. Now you remember! Naturally it's the junior-senior prom.

However, there has been one all-important change in the evening's schedule. The cocktail party at 8:30 will take place in the front hall instead of the social room. This is thought to be a better arrangement, since the couples can line up more easily for the grand march.

You'll be pleasantly surprised when you and your girl float into the gym on Saturday, May 20; the decorations will be very convincingly fairy-landish.

While you are sipping refreshing sherbet punch, remember the long hours in which the juniors slaved to make the prom a success, and please don't spoil the desired effect by snatching souvenirs of the decorations.

Instead, dust off your prom etiquette, and prepare yourself for one enchanted evening.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS NOMINATED

Classes met Tuesday to nominate representatives who will serve on the Student Council next year. The following candidates were nominated for the offices of president and vice-president of the council: Dan Osinski, Dave Heckmiller, John Birmingham, Freddie Herri-man, Deane Paulson, and Peter Sturtevant.

Two members at large will be elected from the following group nominated Tuesday: Steve Roake, John Popp, Jane Brintlinger, Gwenn Bardwell, Mike Disney, Duncan Aspinwall, Bruce Anderberg and Freddie Cochran.

The voting will take place at a later date.

EVERY CLASSROOM TO BE PRESENTED WITH AMERICAN FLAG

Three women's patriotic organizations in Barrington--the General Thomas W. Sweeney Women's Relief Corporation #85, American Legion Auxiliary, and Auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 7706--have purchased flags for each classroom in B. C. H. S. These beautiful symbolic additions are made of Dura-Lite Nylon and are 24 inches by 36 inches in area. They will be presented to the high school in a patriotic assembly on Thursday, May 25, at 1:00 P. M.

The high school orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Fred, will open the program with "America." Then Superintendent Thomas will introduce the various organizations. The flags will be presented by officers of the above groups to students representing each room and department of the school. Guy Armanetti, president of the Student (Cont. on page 7, col. 1)

ROAKE QUALIFIES FOR STATE MEET

Barrington's high jump star, Steve Roake, jumped 5' 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ " at the district track meet at Evanston. He finished in a five-way tie for first place.

Last year the state meet was won by a jump of 5' 11".

BARRINGTON ATTENDS DRAMATIC FESTIVAL

Four dramatic clubs from Barrington, Palatine, Ela, and Wauconda joined in a dramatic festival at Palatine Tuesday, May 16. As guests of the Palatine club twenty Barrington Masque and Wig members feasted on a cafeteria dinner before the evening's program.

As a part of the program Barrington presented the play on Lincoln's assassination, "The Last Curtain." It was very well done. Ela and Wauconda gave plays also. Wauconda presented "Leave It to Joe." Neither of these plays was well written. The acting showed promise, but more time and effort should have been given it. Palatine gave a very amusing skit on "How to Propose." Illustrations were given on the act of proposing in the Middle Ages, the nineteenth century, modern times, in Brooklyn, in the wealthy
(Cont. in col. 2)

THE B.H.S. BRONCHO

Vol. 19

No. 27

Member of International
Quill and Scroll

STAFF

EDITOR

CHRISTOPHER LASCH

Ass't Editor:

Joanne Barnes

Art Staff:

Amelia Vanderveen, Bill Anderson

Boys' Sports:

David Deyoe, John Sproul, Peter Sturtevant, David Parmalee, Edith Desort

Features:

Donna Duerwachter, Joyce Anderson, Lois Heicke, Carl McCoy

Reporters:

James Frey, Joy Paulson, Jane Meller, Ellen Klein-smith, Pat Wayne, Joan Gruenewald, Dick Aspirwall, Emily Kampert, Gwenn Bardwell, Peggy Reeve, Martha Van Steenderen, Phyllis Leonard, Saralu Thomas, Betty Johansen

Mechanical:

Helen Piffner, Betty Eppers, Mary Titterton, Pat Webb, Frances Bentley, Marilyn Dashiell, Jane Porter

Advisers:

A. Leonhard, W. McBride

EPLEY TALKS ON JAPAN

On Senior Government Day Jim Epley spoke to the Modern Problems class on the conditions he found in Japan during his twenty-nine month stay there. He related both the good and the poor conditions that prevailed.

Jim began by telling of his voyage across the Pacific. Things were a little rough, and some of his fellow travelers had a few difficulties. When they arrived in Japan at the end of March, they beheld a magnificent sight. They were able to see all of Mt. Fujiama, which is seldom seen in its entirety.

The class learned of the reactions of the people of Japan to our occupation troops. Jim stated that most of the people were very friendly. He was quite fortunate in that he spent much of his free time with a Japanese family.

Jim pointed out how very unfortunate it is that a small minority of the men overseas create hard feelings by their careless and thoughtless actions. If these actions are the kind the Japanese associate with Americans, we can never hope to gain their respect.

Because the Islands of Japan are comparatively small for their large population, they use all of the land available for cultivation. By a first glance at the countryside, you can see they are very neat and methodical farmers.

Western customs have obviously affected the dress of the people, although it is hard to say how much they have affected the ideals and creeds of the Japanese. Some of the deference formerly shown to Hirohito has been transferred to MacArthur, who is known to everyone in Japan.

The class sincerely enjoyed the talk, as it gave them an inside view on Japan today.

BARRINGTON ATTENDS DRAMATIC FESTIVAL

(Cont. from col. 1)

class, and on Sadie Hawkins Day. It was very enjoyable.

The evening of fellowship with other drama members was a pleasant one for everyone.

The Corrals are scheduled to arrive next Tuesday. Have your receipts ready when you appear for your book.

PEKIN LOSES TO BARRINGTON, 6-5

The Broncho baseball team played its scheduled game with Pekin last Saturday. The game, slated for seven innings, went through the eleventh, resulting in a three and one-half hour battle.

Beckhart started the first inning in great form, throwing only four balls to retire three men. Errors, predominant throughout the game, loaded the bases for Barrington in the bottom of the first; but, with two outs, Armanetti struck out to end the inning. Again in the second inning when Andrae led off with a fluke double that dropped between two fielders, excitement ran high, but the boys couldn't bring him around.

In the third Barrington broke into the scoring column on doubles by Trankle and Osinski. Osinski was left stranded on base at the end of the inning, though.

In the fourth inning Barrington went in front 4 to 0 after Pekin committed four errors. Armanetti and Andrae were safe on errors, and after Dave Hansen was safe by the same good fortune, Armanetti scored. Shuett walked, and then Andrae and D. Hansen scored after an error on Trankle's hit, giving Barrington three runs on no hits.

Pekin, held scoreless for four innings, broke the ice in the fifth on an error by Shuett and a balk by Beckhart. The Bronchos scored their fifth run in the last of the fifth after a balk on the Pekin pitcher.

Pekin started a rally in the sixth, loading the bases with only one down, but Beckhart relieved the tension by forcing a pop out for the second out. A Pekin single drove in two runs, and Armanetti's fumble gave them their fifth tally. A beautiful peg to the plate from Osinski in left field saved more runs from scoring.

Beckhart was relieved in the seventh by Osinski. Other changes in the Barrington line-up were Berghorn at first, Anderson in right, and Whitmer at third.

The game would have been over in the seventh had George Hansen, after dropping a Texas leaguer over second, not left the third base bag when the return throw from Beckhart's liner down third came in. As

BRONCHOS DEFEAT BISON TRACK TEAM

On May 10 the Barrington track men engaged in a return meet with Bensenville. Barrington won 185½ to 37½. Barrington, as has been the case in other meets, scored many of its points in running events, but gave its opponents many points in field events.

Chiles, Staehle, and Tuohy swept through the 880 for first, second, and third, while Brandt, Heckmiller, and Frey did the same in the 440. Roake took first in the high hurdles and the low hurdles; Shuett finished second in the low hurdles; and the mile medley was won by Barrington's team of Chiles, Buckley, Heckmiller, and Doss. Popp finished first and Shuett second in the 220, Frey first and Popp second in the 100 yard dash, and the frosh relay team won first place.

Roake and Popp finished first and second in the 880 relay. Pederson ran the mile in just over 5 minutes, Cochran finishing second.

Barrington did not place in the shot or discus and took only two points in the pole vault, with Roake vaulting. Roake and Shuett placed in two-way ties for first and third. Frey, Shuett, and Popp finished the meet in good style, capturing all places in the broad jump.

it was, Hansen was out. Two walks loaded the bases, but Anderson struck out to send the game into extra innings.

Osinski controlled Pekin beautifully through the eleventh. In the last half of the eleventh Trankle walked and advanced to third during two outs. Then, ironically, Beckhart, the starting pitcher, drove Trankle across the plate with a clean hit to win the game for Oskinki. As is often the case, Trankle's walk proved fatal. Nevertheless the Pekin pitcher, who went the entire way, pitched good ball.

OTHER SPORTS ARTICLES

Other sports articles of the week include the Pony baseball games and golf on page 4, and tennis and varsity baseball on page 5.

PONIES DROP TWO; SUBS ALSO LOSE

LOSE TO ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, 13-8

Saturday the Ponies lost their second game to Arlington Heights in a slugging duel. Arlington knocked 3 Barrington pitchers for 11 hits, including 2 home runs, and received 7 free passes. The Ponies committed 8 errors, twice as many as their opponents made.

After both teams had scored a run in the first inning, the Ponies assumed a 4-1 lead in the last of the second, scoring 3 runs on 3 hits and 2 bases on balls.

However, this lead was short-lived, as starting pitcher Gerlach was knocked out of the box by a 6-run Arlington barrage in the top half of the third inning. Arlington made only 2 hits in the inning, but received 4 walks and were aided by 2 errors.

The Ponies came fighting back to an 8 to 7 lead when they scored an unearned run in their half of the third and picked up 3 more in the fourth on 4 hits, including a double by Hamilton and a triple by Prochaska.

Unfortunately, however, Arlington was not to be suppressed. They tied the score in the top of the fifth and put it on ice in the sixth by scoring 5 runs to end the game's scoring.

BOW TO WAUCONDA, 9-8

Monday Wauconda capitalized on 9 Barrington errors to come from behind to beat the Ponies 9-8. Bob Iverson hurled all the way for the Ponies and allowed only 7 hits.

Both teams started out in high gear. Wauconda scored 2 runs in its half of the first inning, and the Ponies countered with 3 of their own in their half of the inning, and added 2 more in the second.

After Wauconda had tallied one run in the third, the Ponies assumed an apparently safe 7-3 lead as Prochaska came through with a single to score Fredin and Hamilton in the fourth.

However, Wauconda combined 3 hits and a base on balls with 3 Barrington errors to score 5 runs in the top of the fifth, and added what proved to be the winning

GOLF TEAM LOSES THREE

The Broncho golf team played three matches during the week and lost all three of them. On Thursday, May 11, the duffers journeyed over to the Old Orchard Country Club in Arlington. They lost this match in their usual style, scoring no points whatsoever.

Friday, May 12, the story was the same, except that in this case the Palatine Pirates spoiled what would have been a pleasant afternoon on the links.

Northbrook did the same thing to the locals a few days later, leaving their total point output for three days an uninspiring zero.

The Biltmore Country Club has given their permission for the Broncho golf team to practice on its course. This extra practice may prove to inspire a slight improvement in the scores racked up by the Barrington team.

run in the sixth on a free pass followed by a triple.

Anderberg walked, stole second, went to third on an overthrow by the catcher, and scored as the center fielder threw wildly past third base in an attempt to get him for the only run the Ponies could muster in the last inning. Wauconda pitchers were rough on the Ponies, hitting five batters with pitched balls. Prochaska led Barrington in hitting with 3 hits.

PONY SUBS LOSE TO ABBOTT

Thursday the regular inhabitants of the Ponies' bench were given a chance to get some exercise against Abbott Junior High School.

Bobby Meyer, a converted utility infielder, pitched for the Barrington reserves until his wildness, errors by the players behind him, and Abbott's annoying habit of getting base hits combined to drive him from the mound. McGowan took over for him, but couldn't seem to locate the plate, so regular frosh-soph pitcher, Bob Iverson, seized the opportunity to warm up his arm on the mound.

Anderberg scored the only Barrington (Cont. on page 5, col. 2)

ROAKE, LASCH WIN IN TENNIS

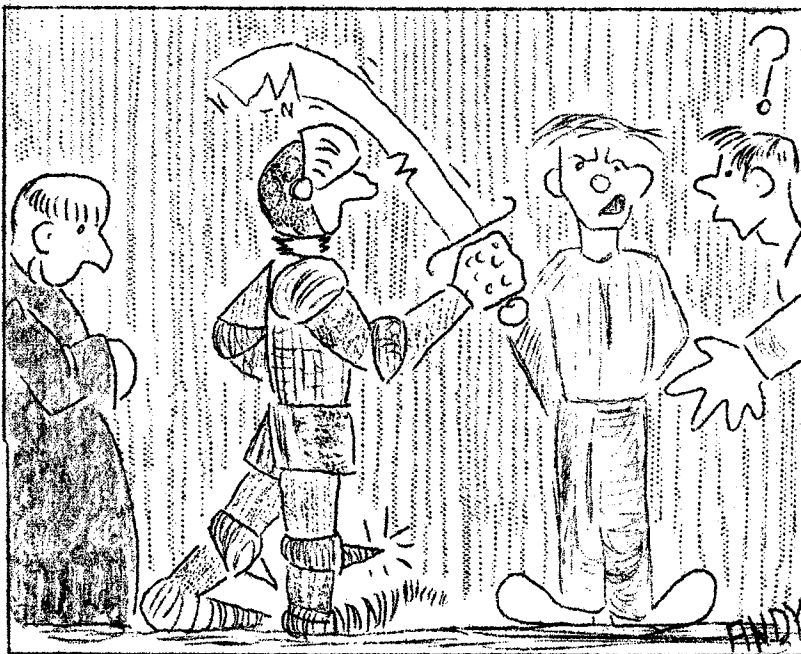

The intramural tennis tournament which has been arranged by Mr. Jenks finally got under way Friday. Steve Roake met Paul Biek and Kit Lasch played Peter Sturtevant on the Jewel courts. Roake and Lasch survived.

It took Roake several sets to solve Biek's twisting service, but when he did, after the score was tied at 3-all, he had little trouble in taking the first set, 6-4 and the second, 6-1. Roake is the heavy favorite to take the tournament if it ever reaches its final stages.

Lasch managed to keep ahead of Sturtevant all the way, although several games were deuced and could have gone either way. His victory was largely due to his fast service, which enabled him to take both sets at 6-1. Both matches were two-sets-out-of-three affairs.

It is hoped that other opponents will take the time to play off their matches. Evidently some are willing to quit while ahead. Other first round matches pit Deyoe against Jack Schwemm, Bill Thomas against Jim Frey, and Armanetti against Shuett. Frey found it impossible to play because of lack of time, and forfeited his match to Thomas.

*** *** *** *** *** ***

THEY'RE TAKING THEIR "IVANHOE" TOO SERIOUSLY.

BRONCHOS DROP TWO BASEBALL GAMES

Eddie Prouty, failing to win his last start against Barrington, redeemed himself Thursday by hurling a 4-2 victory over the Bronchos. Ken Shuett went the route for Barrington and gave up seven hits.

Barrington scored once in the second when Shuett took a free ticket to first and stole second. He reached home on an error by the first sacker. The Bronchos scored again in the third when Bill Trankle slammed a homer.

Ela's runs came in the fourth and the last innings when Prouty led off with a hit, but was forced, when Shuett threw him out at second, on Wendt's ground ball. The next batter, Turner, reached first on an error, Martorano taking first. Both runners came in when Radke hit a double. The final score was 4-2.

All hopes of going down state in the tournament were banished Monday when Barrington bowed to Zion-Benton, 7-6. This game was the first game scheduled for Barrington in the District Tournament. It appears that "Destination Champaign" is a slogan of the past.

The game started quite favorably for Barrington when they made two runs easily. But depression soon covered the countenance of the Barrington coach when the Bronchos were defeated by the pitching of Ridenour and Thomson.

Scoring opportunities were numerous, but the Bronchos couldn't come through with timely hits. Zion won, 7-6.

Monday and Tuesday there are games scheduled with Oak Park and Bensenville slated to begin at four o'clock.

PONY SUBS LOSE TO ABBOTT

(Cont. from page 4, col. 2)

run in the fourth inning from third base on LeBarre's infield out.

The reserves were able to gain only four hits, two by McGowan and one each by Sturtevant and Schauble.

The Natural History Club will have its last meeting Friday.

BARRINGTON STUDENT COUNCIL CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

We, the student council members of Barrington Consolidated High School, have written this constitution in order to establish high standards of conduct in school, to promote the best interest of the school, and to bring about a union with the faculty and the students.

ARTICLE I: Name

The name of this organization shall be the Barrington Consolidated High School Student Council.

ARTICLE II: Purpose

The purposes of this student council shall be:

1. to promote respect for public and private property.
2. to promote high standards of conduct.
3. to promote the best interests of the school.
4. to promote the extracurricular activities of the school.
5. to aid in the administration of the school.
6. to unify the student organizations in one body.
7. to serve as a medium between the faculty and the student body.

ARTICLE III: Membership

The Student Council shall be composed of twelve members:

- I. Members elected by the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen during the first week of May in the preceding year.
 1. President of the council.
 2. Vice-president of the council.
 3. Two members-at-large.
- II. Members elected in the fall.
 1. The vice-president of each class.
 2. An elected representative of each class.
 3. Secretary to the council chosen by the council from the council members.

ARTICLE IV: Meetings

The Student Council shall meet on the basis of a schedule decided on by the council at the first meeting of the year.

Sponsor shall call the first meeting.

ARTICLE V: Duties

Section I--Officers

- A. President
 1. shall preside at all council meetings.
 2. shall call extra meetings when needed.
 3. shall appoint committee chairmen.
 4. shall vote only in case of tie.
- B. Vice-president
 1. shall preside in the absence of the president.
 2. shall be a member of all committees.
 3. shall take minutes in absence of secretary.
- C. Secretary
 1. shall keep a record of all meetings and take attendance.
 2. shall conduct all council correspondence.
 3. shall serve as treasurer of council.

Section II--Members

- A. shall show initiative in keeping the council work moving.
- B. shall establish a good relationship between students and the council and between the students and the faculty.
- C. shall enlist the cooperation of the student body in obeying the school laws.

Section III--Sponsor

Sponsor or his representative must be present at every meeting of the council.

ARTICLE VI: Sponsor

A member of the faculty shall sponsor the Student Council and shall be appointed by the principal or elected by the faculty.

ARTICLE VII: Powers of Council

The Student Council shall have the power:

1. to suggest and help enforce rules necessary for the betterment of the school, its life, and interests.
2. to grant charters to clubs and organizations upon application accompanied by proposed constitution.

(Cont. on page 8, col. 2)

A POEM

--BY JIM TUOHY

When the mercury is on the rise
 And the leaves we begin to see,
 We look from our classroom window
 Wondering--is this the place to be?

Oh, yes, our education is foremost,
 For tomorrow's leaders are we young of today.
 But how much knowledge is acquired
 When we're in a ball park, miles away?

In our minds we're fishing in a creek
 Or swimming in a pond,
 But our bodies are here in the classroom
 Reading, reciting, working on.

THE SUBSTITUTE

--BY PETER STURTEVANT

As the substitute sat on the bench
 Watching his team play ball,
 He dreamed of all the hits he'd get
 If given any chance at all.

If ever he would get to play,
 He'd show the coach, and his teammates too,
 That gathering splinters on the bench
 Was not all that he could do.

It was at the end of the season
 In the very last game
 That it looked as if his chance had come
 To gain much-wanted fame.

The bases were loaded in the last of the ninth,
 And the team, behind were they,
 So the coach's eyes swept o'er the bench
 For a pinch hitter to save the day.

"Get up to bat and get a hit,"
 The coach to him did say,
 But, alas, our hero was so surprised
 That he fainted dead away.

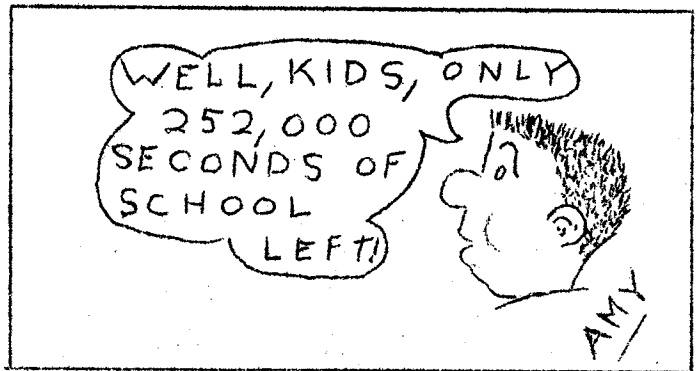

EVERY CLASSROOM TO RECEIVE FLAG

(Cont. from page 1, col. 3)

Council, will accept the flags on behalf of the student body.

The public is urged to attend this most worth-while and truly meaningful program, and all students should recognize the importance and solemnity of the occasion.

We should show our utmost gratitude to those who have presented us with such lasting tokens of their interest and pride

NEW LIFE

--BY PHYLLIS LEONARD

I am the rustle of breezes that warm
 the trees to spring to flower.
 I am the melting of winter snow trickling
 down the hill
 Swirling
 Whirling
 Twirling down the hill.

I am the meditation of lovely thoughts
 one to another,
 The feeling of a loving word to tell
 expressions of another,
 Dovey
 Hovey
 Lovey expressions of another.

I am the pleasant weather fading
 into hot summer sun,
 The moaning of the people as they see me go Droning
 Moaning
 Toning as they go.

I am the waking of the animals
 after hibernation,
 The doings of the birds and bees
 working in the trees,
 Twirping
 Chirping
 Working in the trees.

I am the breathless music
 of the rains,
 The talking to you by mystic,
 unknown means,
 Talking
 Whispering
 Saying--I Am Spring.

in our new school.

SQUARE DANCERS ENJOY JAMBOREE

The Square Dance Jamboree last Friday night provided a lot of gay fun for everyone who went. Calls from Larry Golden kept the dancers stepping lively for several hours as they learned new square dances. He led them through a mixer and a fast and confusing grand march. There was a fairly large crowd and a good representation from other schools. Refreshments were served and a few waltzes were played for tired, but satisfied dancers.

On Sunday, May 28, a group will dance on television over WGN-TV. Our dancers are fast becoming television stars!

LATIN CLUB HEARS FRESHMAN REPORTS

The Latin Club held its regular meeting Friday with the freshmen in charge of the program. Betty Johansen showed the group a stereoscope, which contained pictures of modern Rome. Betty received the pictures from her aunt, who is working for the Danish Council at Rome.

The remainder of the meeting was devoted to reports by the freshman members. Dick Hamilton gave a report on "Pyramus and Thisbe." This was followed by Stoddard May's report on "Hercules," and part one of Jean Richardson's report, "Atlanta's Lovers." Marjorie Coupe gave a report on "The Creation of Man," and Pete Deveroux concluded the program with his report, "The Loves of Apollo."

KIT LASCH WINS IN STATE LATIN CONTEST

(Cont. from page 1, col. 1)

Shore's Shirley Torresburg and George Smith of Maine were third and fourth. Barrington, Lyons, and Maine had taken the first four places in the Maine sectional. At Rockford only one other school succeeded in breaking through this domination by suburban schools.

The third year Cicero exam was won in the Class A division by Hyde Park and Evanston, who tied for first, with Maine second; and in the Class B division by Hyde Park, with Bloomington second.

In Vergil South Shore and Nazareth Academy of LaGrange headed the Class A

BARRINGTON STUDENT COUNCIL CONSTITUTION (Cont. from page 6, col. 1)

3. to investigate conditions around the school and make reports and recommendations to the principal.
4. to help plan assemblies.
5. to sponsor social functions.
6. to delegate concessions.
7. to help elect cheerleaders.

Proposed actions involving the above powers are subject to the approval of the school administration.

ARTICLE VIII: Amendments

The constitution of the Barrington Consolidated High School Student Council may be amended by giving two weeks notice of the proposed change and by securing a 3/4 vote of the active membership of the council in favor of the change.

ARTICLE IX: Quorum

A quorum shall be two-thirds of the active membership.

ARTICLE X: Veto Power

The veto power shall rest with the school administration.

ARTICLE XI: Committees

The chairman of the committee shall appoint committee members from the student body.

schools, and Hinsdale and Galesburg finished in that order in Class B.

Lyons, Hyde Park, and Elmhurst were victors in the second year Class A division. Lyons won both a first place and a third place tie with Elmhurst. Mount Morris walked off with the smaller schools' competition.

In the first year division there were three ties among the Class A schools. Evanston won undisputed first place, but Waukegan and Decatur were deadlocked for second, Hyde Park and another Decatur representative were tied for third, and Waukegan's other contestant and Alton for fourth. The Class B schools division was won by Hudsonville, with two Batavia contestants tying for second.

In general the freshman and sophomore exams were evenly divided between Chicago and downstate schools, but in the third and fourth years this area completely outclassed the downstaters.

DIS 'N DATA

The seniors at Ela High are really a bunch of ambitious kids. Their newest money-raising venture will be a colossal variety show with every senior participating. George Schwartz will be Master of Ceremonies for the big event. The acts will include everything from serious drama and opera to a male chorus line. Sounds like a lot of fun as well as being an excellent money-raising project.

Palatine High will hold its Prom at the Tam O'Shanter Country Club, May 19. The guys and gals are eagerly looking forward to the big event of the year. From all indications the Prom should be a huge success.

More news from Palatine: The sports department of the "Spotlight" is conducting a poll to choose the best athlete of the year. Nominations are being received from the students, and reasons for their choices must be given. The nominees should be chosen on sportsmanship as well as athletic ability.

A group of boys in Miss Weis' American history class at Thornton High made a recording of the history of railroads. The script was written by one of the boys. At one point the Westinghouse air brake, which could stop on a dime, saved the life of Hopalong Cassidy, who was tied to the tracks.

However, the only actors were boys who read both male and female parts in deep voices. At times both the actors and the entire class howled uncontrollably, especially when a distinctly masculine voice queried, "Oh, do you really like my new hat?" Anyway this is certainly a modernized history course.

From the "Bear Facts" at Ela: Confucius Says: The better a woman looks, the longer a man does.

Those ambitious freshmen at Ela held a carnival at the high school with prizes galore and fun for all. Twelve stands--including fortune telling, food, dart-throwing and knocking over milk bottles--were set up. Sounds like fun!

Another welcome addition has been presented to McHenry by the P. T. A. in the form of a juke box. It was given in connection with the Senior Dance held on April 27. A member of the Student Council accepted, and thanked the organization for the gift, in behalf of the students and

WHOSE BLOG?

The first of the gals interviewed is a 5' 6" blonde with green eyes. She was presented to her parents in Barrington on Mother's Day, 1932 style of course (May 8). Nice present, don't you think?

Some day she would like to do secretarial work, preferably in the bank.

Listed as her likes are chocolate ice cream, red hair, acrobatics, and driving tractors, while her "dislikes" list covers spinach, dancing, foolish arguments, and nicknames. Her pet peeve is ribbing.

While doing some Christmas shopping in Dundee for her niece and nephew with one of her brothers, our heroine was asked by a clerk if "her husband" had received a calendar yet. She finally realized that the clerk had mistaken her brother for her husband! What would you have done in the same situation? (She got the calendar.)

"Remember, the more you learn, the more you forget" is her advice to underclassmen.

Her ideal man will have dark eyes, dark hair, will be 6' 1" tall, and will have an extraordinary sense of humor.

She is none other than Shirley Kampert.

The other gal is 5' 4½" tall, and has dark blonde hair and brown eyes. The stark brought her to her parents in Alden, Illinois, on December 14, 1932.

Under her category of likes we find dark hair, ice skating, classical music, and watching basketball. Her main dislike is spinach, while her pet peeve is people who call her by her first and second names, instead of just her first.

It seems many of the high-and-almighty seniors have an achievement in common: that is, getting on the honor roll.

Her favorite song is the one entitled "There's No Tomorrow."

When she meets her ideal man, he will be 5' 7" tall, will have dark hair and blue eyes, and a pleasant smile and nice personality.

She leaves this advice to all the underclassmen: "Work hard and save your money if you want to go on the Senior Class trip--and you'll want to!"

Of course, she is Mary Buschek.

began the dance. This seems to be worthwhile entertainment plus incentive for students learning to dance.

KAROUSING KID

From time is really here! The juniors are really busy, and products of their vivid imagination are beginning to be seen around school. If you should happen to stroll into Miss Wandke's room, don't be too surprised to see a few clouds floating around the classroom.

Speaking of the prom, I'll bet I know a couple juniors who will have wobbly knees when nine o'clock rolls around Saturday night. Mike Disney, president of the junior class, and Lois Burke will be leading the Grand March. Best of luck, kids, and to all the juniors, may your prom be a huge success.

In case some of you haven't heard yet, Barrington will soon be minus one of our mighty seniors. Pat Wayne's family has moved to Prospect Heights, but Pat is staying at Ellen Kleinsmith's house until graduation. What a time they're having! What was it Ellen was complaining about the other day? Oh, yes, Pat's work at Lipofsky's goes to her head. She keeps boxing size 32A's in her sleep all night.

Last week end Janet Parmalee had a potluck for all of the senior girls and some of the juniors. One of the highlights was a treasure hunt which succeeded in exhausting everyone. I guess the upper-class girls will get in condition some way. There must be an easier way, though.

On the injured list is Ronald Andrae, who broke his arm in the baseball game with Zion-Benton Monday. Get well, soon, Ronnie; we need you out there!

Why was it Phyllis Leonard felt so conspicuous in her levis? Barb, you shouldn't make her blush by following her around with a pair of field glasses (even if they are the Hopalong Cassidy kind).

These junior girls always seem to be scaring somebody out of a few years' growth. The Brandt Twins, Muriel Lindberg, Joy Mantor, and Gwenn Bardwell were playing hide and seek around the house where Nan Weber was baby sitting. We've also had reports of their sneaking rides in green cars.

The Question of the Week-----Who will be the next Student Council president? Be sure to vote!

K.K.

P. S. Do you realize that there will be only one more Broncho this year.

WHOSE BIOG?

The third person for this week is a fella who was born in Barrington on May 23, 1932, but who later moved to Chicago and then back to Barrington. He measures 6' 1" in height, has blond hair and blue eyes.

His ambition is to become both a salesman and a bum. How can you do both?

Among his likes are brunettes and chess games, while his dislike is people who ask too many questions. His pet peeve is a certain person in the eighth period class who keeps hitting him, but whom he can't hit back. Besides these few things, he's a very happy-go-lucky guy.

One of his this-year's accomplishments was getting his speech scrapbook handed in two weeks before it was due.

Let's see any of you boys top his unusual incident: he took three girls to the same dance--and is now living! For more details, see our Casanova.

A brunette by the name of Joyce from the town of Midlothian, Illinois, is his ideal woman. She is 5' 8" tall and has blue eyes.

Jack Brandt is his name.

The fourth and last person interviewed for this week measures an even 6' and has dark hair and brown eyes. He arrived in Barrington on May 31, 1932.

To become a coach and kick a certain coach's (Harman's) kids off the team is this fella's ambition.

People who like him, nature, and the last hour of a date are classified as his likes; his dislikes take in rumors, water guns, and exaggerations, but his pet peeve is people who draw false conclusions about his experiences.

He has gained recognition as No. 1 baritone in the boys' locker room; he can sing tenor, too. It's too bad he isn't an underclassman; Miss Baer could use him.

He says his favorite song is "I Only Have Eyes for You," while his favorite pastime is eating and sleeping, or dreaming about eating and sleeping.

His advice to underclassmen contains only two words: "Polish apples!" Hmnnnn??

This fella is apparently of few words, for his ideal woman, he said, is simply "pretty--and innocent." No more, no less

Who is he? Forrest Berghorn.

*** **