A WEEKLY BULLETIN OF THE ST. ANNE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

On the evening of the day on which Jesus rose from the dead,
He appeared to his disciples
and said to them,
"PEACE BE WITH YOU."
Then, Jesus BREATHED ON THEM and said, "RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT."
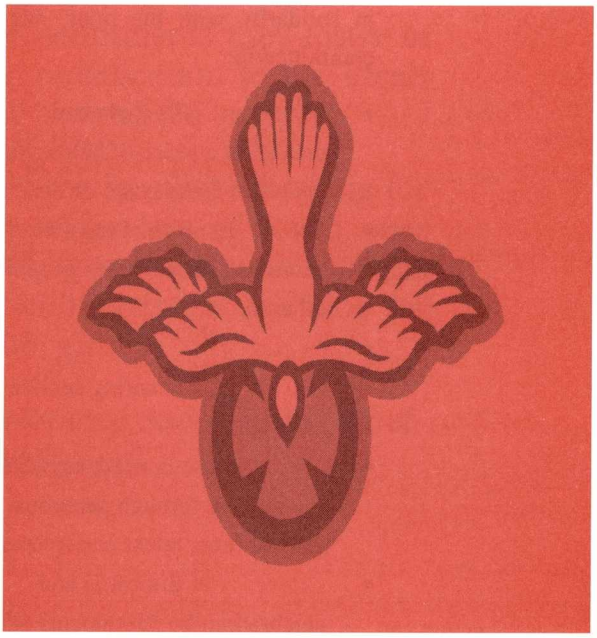
John, Chapter 20



On this Pentecost Day, the Birthday of the Church in Two Thousand and Seven, I, your pastor, thank God for all of you.

Your generous and heartfelt gifts make this parish community vibrant and strong. Your willingness to serve and support gives living witness to the power of Christ among us.

Your care for the needy, and for all those in pain, lifts heavy hearts and removes difficult burdens from those who struggle. Your willingness to face new challenges and embrace the future speaks hope far beyond the boundaries of our community.

Your warmth and welcome invites the newcomer and the reluctant into a communion of joy.

I rejoice that God's Spirit makes this so!

May the Spirit, the breath of the Lord Jesus, renew the St. Anne community as a sign of Christ's forgiving love that heals sin and separation and brings a new unity, not only among us, but to all the nations and peoples of the world.

As your pastor, I pray that the Spirit may abound in all of us.

Fr. Jack

Memorial Day 2007

We remember those whose supreme sacrifices have purchased and secured our freedoms and our security, both in the past and during the present Iraq conflict. They will always be a part of our hearts, and we pledge to honor them with our commitment to build a just and truthful society under God.

Memorials are only as powerful as the commitments they foster in every generation. May God inspire our rededication to the ideals and efforts for peace here in America and around the world.

We pray for our troops in harm's way, for the families who long for their safe return, and for those whose tragic loss of loved ones brings so much pain. We stand in solidarity with all who struggle for peace and justice, and pledge our willingness to sacrifice for peace and, thereby, honor these blessed life gifts.

We ask our God to strengthen our remembrance and inspire our efforts, that we may truly be one nation under God!

Fiscal Year Ends in Four Weeks
Year-to-Date Collection Deficit Nears $50,000.00
Please Help Now!

For the past few weeks, I have been calling attention to the year-to-date collection deficit. We had hoped that the Confirmation weekend Mass collections would help reduce the deficit—unfortunately, the collection total fell short of the weekly goal by $7,874.00 (only 468 envelopes were received). This shortfall caused the year-to-date deficit to rise to $48,433.00.

With only the four weekends in June remaining in the fiscal year, it is highly unlikely that the parish can make up the entire amount of the present deficit. If the trend that we have experienced over the past several months continues, the year-end collection deficit could increase as much as $5,000.00 per week. This is a very discouraging prospect—not only because of the negative impact it will have on the annual operating budget bottom line, but especially because it does not bode well for the coming summer and early-fall months when weekend Mass attendance and collections lag behind those for the colder weather months. This situation makes it very difficult to implement our scheduled summer major maintenance and improvement projects that come at a time when we experience reduced collection income with little or no cash reserves due to the present collection deficit. If this situation persists, the parish will possibly have to delay certain building loan principal and millennium assessment payments in order to insure the availability of sufficient operating funds to meet our payroll and other essential expenses. Of course, this option will incur additional interest costs to the parish that only exacerbates this dilemma.

Please consider helping your parish at this time of need. Every gift is important, and will be much appreciated. And, please remember to turn in your collection envelopes for weekends that you expect to be away.

(Note: Please watch for this Stewardship column in the next issue of the Clarion for information about the Katrina Cottage Barrington House Building Project. The Barrington Ministerial Association, together with an interfaith coalition of Barrington area contractors, architects and volunteers, has joined together to build a modular house this summer that will be transported to Pass Christian Parish and reassembled on site. It is likely that the Barrington project will become a national model for this type of community based relief effort. There are several other very exciting dimensions to this project which I will be sharing with you in the coming weeks. Importantly, there will be opportunities for parishioners to volunteer for the various building crews that will be recruited. I will be serving on the interfaith project steering group.)

Reflections

By Sister Lauretta Leipzig, Pastoral Associate and Director of Adult Education

The Home and Parish Church

Rev. Peter Schineller, SJ writes about one of his most beautiful memories of his childhood. It was, he says, the blessing his mother gave him every morning as he left for school. While she made sure that he was properly dressed with books in hand, she would add without fail, "God bless you." He took the blessing as normal, everyday words, a prayer for him. He goes on to say that, as he grew up in the Church, he began to wonder about that blessing. Did his mother really give him a blessing from God? These words of his mother were words used by the priests and bishops at Mass or over an object they would bless. But could only the priest give blessings?

As this blessing prompted Father Peter Schineller to reflect and question, so it might do for us. It might lead us to think of the many ways God's love and blessing enter our lives and cause us to realize that the blessing of a mother for her child is a very rich and special blessing. It may make us more aware of God's grace and love that accompany every family, husband, wife, and child in their everyday lives, thus acknowledging and confirming the holiness of family life.

Mother's blessing made it quite clear that God is not relegated to our local parish church. We can find God, pray to God, receive God's love and serve God within our own homes. In fact, the family and the home is where we primarily seek, find, and serve God. Thus the family can be viewed as a domestic church.

If this is true, then there must be some connections between the sacraments, the saving actions of the larger church, and the ongoing life in the home and family. Recall that most of the sacramental actions of Jesus – forgiving sins, healing, breaking bread –took place not in the temple or synagogue, but in homes. Only as the Church grew, developed and became established did the liturgical celebrations move from the house churches of the Acts of the Apostles and the letter of St. Paul to more formal gathering settings in church buildings. Perhaps we may be asked to look more closely at stressing a movement back and forth from the home to the parish church for there are graced sacramental moments that occur regularly in the church and regularly in the home.

Based on Rev. Peter Schineller's article entitled "Sacraments and Family Life" we will, in the coming weeks, examine briefly how each of the seven sacraments can be seen to intersect with the ongoing life of the family.

To my brothers and sisters of the St. Anne community,

On May 28th, 1982, I accepted Ordination to the Priesthood as a member of the Society of the Precious Blood.

This year, I will celebrate 25 years of commitment to the Priesthood. Since June 1st, 2003, you have graciously opened your hearts to me as an associate pastor. The past 4 years have been a time of grace, joy, and fulfillment in my service to all of you gathered at St. Anne. I would like you to join me in celebrating my 25th anniversary by coming to a reception after the 9:00 a.m. and the 11:00 a.m. Masses on Sunday, June 3rd.

"Full of Grace" by Dorothea Benton Frank

Charleston resident Marcia Graziella, or Grace, is anything but a Southern belle. Transplanted to the South from an Italian New Jersey neighborhood, Grace is full of spunk and irreverence, which tax her family. Full of traditional family dynamics, as well as a dose of miracles, Frank's novel is deeply spiritual. Bennett's adept handling of the aspects of faith and humor produces an entertaining and thought-provoking listening experience.

Dear Parishioners,
As we come into the final months of our fiscal year, I thank so many of you for your generous financial support for our community. We are, at present, a bit behind our budget goal. Let me just remind you that sometimes in late spring and early summer, we lose a little focus. I am asking you to continue to maintain your thoughtful, faithful gifts. This generosity is our strength for the present and future.

God bless you!

The Sacrament of Confirmation

The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him, a spirit of wisdom and understanding,
a spirit of counsel and of strength,
a spirit of knowledge and of fear of the Lord

Isaiah 11:2

Confirmation is celebrated once in our lives, but the gift of the Spirit is an abiding gift. We celebrate Confirmation once, but we are always being confirmed. The newly confirmed join us as adult members of our Community and share with us the special gifts and responsibilities that come to those who are church. I ask you to join with me in encouraging and welcoming our young people into new and meaningful roles in our parish. We all look forward to the blessing that their personal gifts will bring to us.

Happenings at St. Anne

Bread bakers needed. Become a part of the bread baking ministry. Volunteers will be trained to bake the Eucharistic bread for the Sunday evening Masses, and then assigned to bake about every sixth week. This is a great ministry for busy people who want to do something for the parish, but have limited time. Bread can be baked in your home (the whole process only takes about 60-90 minutes) and brought to the parish on the assigned weekend. For more information, call Ellen Nelson at 847.620.3073, or enelson@stannebarrington.org.

St. Anne Women's Softball

The St. Anne women's softball team is looking for women from St. Anne to join them their next season; no experience is necessary. Games take place on Tuesday evenings at the park district. The season begins June 11th and runs through July 31st. For more information, call Maria Larsen at maria@marialarsen.com.

Tuesday Night Family Rosary
7:30 p.m. in the Chapel

Pope Paul VI said, "To pray ardently to our most merciful mother Mary by saying the Rosary is most pleasing to the Mother of God, and most effective in gaining heaven's blessings." Blessings from heaven are what we all want for our families.

St. Anne Playgroup

The St. Anne Playgroup will hold its final play date in the Parish Center nursery on Thursday, May 31st, from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. After that, we will meet informally at Langendorf Park, depending on interest and weather. PENTECOST SUNDAY, 2007 (63C)

Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11 (CCCB)

1 When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.
2 And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.
3 Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them.
4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

5 Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem.
6 And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because all heard them speaking in their own languages.
7 Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?
8 And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own language?
9 Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia,
Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,
10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and converts, 11 Cretans and Arabs –
in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power."

Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34 Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 (CCCB)

Brothers and sisters:
3b No one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit.
4 There are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit;
5 and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord;
6 and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone.
7 To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

12 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body,
so it is with Christ.
13 For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body – Jews or Greeks, slaves or free – and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

John 20:19-23 (CCCB)

19 When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews,
Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you."
20 After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side.
Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

21 Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you.
As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

22 When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them,
"Receive the Holy Spirit.
23 If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them;
if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

One usual approach to the passages for Pentecost has been to focus on the coming of the Spirit who rendered intelligible the proclamation of God's deeds of power (Acts 2:11) that had been made in various languages. Another approach is to focus on the Spirit who gave the disciples the power to forgive sin and the debts attached to those sins (John 20:23). Our understanding of church community is challenged, however, when we take into account the social situation in which Jesus' disciples operated and when we examine, as well, the cultural and religious background for the Jewish feast of Pentecost.

Jewish Pentecost, (Shavuot) or Feast of Weeks has its origin in an agricultural observance, which required that the first fruits of the harvest be offered to God (Exodus 23:14 and Deuteronomy 16:9 with its reference to inclusiveness). Comparing the following two passages echoes what we remember about the God who disdains gestures that are symbolic.[1]

Shavuot

And from the day after the Sabbath, from the day on which you bring the sheaf of the elevation offering, you shall count off seven weeks;... until the day after the seventh Sabbath, fifty days; then you shall present an offering of new grain to the Lord (Lev. 23:15).

Jubilee

You shall count off seven weeks of years... and you shall hallow the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you (Lev. 25:8, 10-11, but see also through 55).

Isaiah (1:11-20) makes a summary in unmistakable language: What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the Lord; I have had enough of burnt offerings...cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow...

The reminder to Israel that this jubilee economics was to be applied to every harvest is also expressed forcefully in Christian scripture. Luke's story for today, in Acts chapter 2, about the coming of the Spirit, eventually culminates in the addition of many to those baptized and in the radical re-ordering of the life of the church (vv. 42-47; especially 44ff), All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among themselves all according to each one's need. (44, 45)

This was certainly counter-cultural for that day. John, however, in describing Jesus' post-resurrection appearances reassures his community. John is dramatic: choosing this very counter-cultural stance gives peace, the same peace that Jesus gave three times to the disciples (20: 19, 21, 26) who were hiding in fear of the larger society's displeasure at their stance about the Messiah. This is a peace not of the world (14:27) but a peace that empowers them to overcome the world (16:33).

There is more to reassure John's community. Throughout the gospel, John is clear that God sent Jesus with authority to give a message (see especially 17:8) and that same authority is given in turn to the disciples:

As you sent me into the world,
so I send them into the world (17:18).

This empowers them:

...the love with which you loved me
may be in them and I in them. (17:26)

This authority and power gives a Jubilee context to the last verses of the gospel for today:

...he breathed on them and said,
"Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain sins of any, they are retained."[2]

This last is about being liberated from sin and the consequences of sin; it is about being freed by God; it is Jubilee economics; it is about our being the ones who bind or release others with our mouths, our attitudes, our financial power, our status in all the different communities we move in. We are the ones who have the power to continue to hold others bound to their acts – we do so when we refuse to forgive them, when we hold it over the heads: "I forgive you, but I'll never forget what you did to me."

For Luke, the coming of the Spirit empowers the nascent church to rise above the cultural and religious barriers:

Gender - Peter quotes Joel; daughters as well as sons shall be prophets (Acts 2:17);

Age - both young and old shall dream and see visions (2:17);

Class - even slaves, female and male, will receive the spirit (2:18); the Galileans, who are unsophisticated country folk, preach in the native language of the cosmopolitans from around the Mediterranean and beyond (2:7);

Race - the disciples engage in a multilingual outreach to the Judeans who had been dispersed far and wide (2:9) and to the converts to Israel, and even to all who are far away (2:39);

inclusiveness - everyone shall be saved...(2:21).

[1] Ps.40:7; see especially Isaiah 1:11-16; Hebrews 10:5-10

[2] The development of the discipline of the sacrament of penance belongs to a later period; it was defined at Trent.

So What?

What are our expectations as we sing the Psalm refrain this weekend?

Lord, send out your spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

What do we Christians expect that the Spirit will do?

BY CLEM ASERON, ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF LITURGY AND COORDINATOR OF SCRIPTURAL MINISTRIES

Sacramental Celebrations

We believe that the Celebration of the Sacraments ranks among the most important gifts that we have. We look forward to sharing these celebrations with men and women who, in some way, are part of our community. Therefore, please note the following:

Baptism: Registration in the parish is a prerequisite. For those parents who are baptizing their first child, please allow 2 to 3 months in order to attend 2 required Baptism sessions before setting the Baptism date. For a subsequent child's baptism, an interview session must be scheduled prior to setting the date. All schedules are done in the parish office. Please call 847.382.5300.

Marriage: A son or daughter of a registered parishioner or a registered and active parishioner will need to schedule an interview with a parish staff person to set a date and start the marriage process. Please call 847.382.5300.

First Eucharist and First Reconciliation: These sacraments are celebrated in the second grade. Candidates must complete the preparation program which is coordinated through the REP program. Please call the REP office at 847.620.3068.

Confirmation: This sacrament is celebrated in high school. Candidates must be registered parishioners and complete a 2 year preparation program including large and small group involvement. Please call 847.620.3072.

Reconciliation: Saturdays 9:15 - 10:00 a.m. and by appointment.

Registration: Please do not assume you are registered if you have been attending Mass here or have children in St. Anne School or our REP program. Registration includes meeting with one of our welcoming team members and filling out an official form for our parish records.
To register, please call 847.382.5300.
