OUR MISSION

We, a Catholic Christian people rooted by Baptism, take as our challenge the mission of Jesus: to build the Kingdom of God, standing in solidarity with the poor. We are committed to:

- Welcoming all people and providing a sense of belonging to people at every stage of life.
- Creating a place of enjoyment, excitement and fun for people of all ages.
- Healing, reconciling and reaching out in caring service to each other.
- Serving those in need, especially the broken, through generous gifts of time, talent and treasure.
- Gathering at Eucharist and celebrating the Sacraments of the Church and the sacramental moments of our lives.
- Telling and sharing the Living Story of Jesus.

So challenged, we pray that the Holy Spirit fills us and empowers us so that we may become the Living Presence of Jesus in our contemporary world.

Complete the Journey…(repeat article from last week)

Parish announces Capital Campaign to pay-off our building debt…pledge solicitation to begin in November

Over the past several years, the parish Finance Council has been considering the appropriate timing and approach for a capital campaign to raise the necessary funds to have the parish completely debt free by 2010, if not sooner. Approximately $4 million is required for this to occur—which, in addition to the building loan, includes the balance owed the Archdiocese on the Millennium Campaign Assessment for which we presently are paying interest on the outstanding balance at the rate of 7.45%.

In the summer of 2006, we commissioned Community Counseling Services (CCS—the firm that managed our highly successful Campus Development Campaign) to conduct a feasibility study to determine the receptivity of our parishioners to support a debt-elimination campaign. The responses to both the personal and telephone interviews indicated that a representative sample of our parishioner population was in favor of conducting a campaign in the near future. With such assurance, Fr. Jack and the Finance Council, together with CCS advisors, began to plan for implementing the campaign in 2007. Originally, it was hoped that the campaign start date would occur earlier in the year, however, due to the unexpected illness of Fr. Jack, and the extended convalescent period of Joe Kelsch from a serious back injury, it was decided that the campaign start would need to be delayed until this fall with a hoped for completion date of December 31st, 2007.

The significance of the intended completion date is related to the date by which the parish must negotiate a new loan repayment schedule and interest terms with the Archdiocese of Chicago which will likely be a higher rate than the 5.92% paid on the existing loan which comes due on January 1st, 2008. Hence, it is critically important for the parish to provide the Archdiocese with a firm estimate of its pledge commitments and up-front cash gifts in order to negotiate the most favorable terms for the replacement loan-one that we hope to be able to pay off within 24 months, or by January 1st, 2010.

In recent weeks, Fr. Jack has been meeting with certain parishioners who have the financial means to make a substantial gift/pledge to the campaign. It is expected that these meetings will continue for several weeks and likely be concluded by mid-November. To date, we are greatly encouraged by the generosity of those parishioners who have indicated that they will make substantial gifts to the campaign.

We are also planning to contact parishioners who are new to the parish (i.e., those who have registered since the "Saving Grace" campaign in 2001) with a special appeal for their generous support of the campaign. Assuming that we are successful with the preceding steps, then we expect that the general parish-wide phase of the campaign will consist of an announcement mailing to parishioners in November which will include a pledge card and a request for a specific, affordable, monthly commitment payable over a 24 month period. It will also request an up-front down payment. We do not anticipate making follow-up phone calls to parishioners; instead we will have "Amen" weekends where we will ask parishioners to turn in their pledge gifts to the campaign. Hopefully, this final phase of the campaign will be concluded by early December.

If you would like to help in some way with the "Complete the Journey" campaign, please speak to Fr. Jack directly, or call Joe Kelsch at the parish office, 847.382.5300, to discuss your participation interest. More importantly, we ask for your prayers that our parishioners will generously embrace the campaign, and we will succeed in achieving our goal of being free of debt by 2010. In achieving that goal, the parish will also free itself of the substantial annual interest burden which currently is costing more than $225,000.00 per year. Certainly those monies could be utilized for more worthy causes that would benefit parishioners and our less fortunate brothers and sisters who we seek to help.

October is "The Month of the Rosary"

The Family Rosary is held on Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. in the St. Anne Chapel. Join us and experience what a blessing the Family Rosary can be for you and your entire family! We hope to see you there!

Exerpts from Rosarium Virginis Mariae, Apostolic Letter on the Rosary

by Pope John Paul II

As a prayer for peace, the Rosary is and always has been, a prayer of and for the family. At one time this prayer was particularly dear to Christian families, and it certainly brought them closer together. It is important not to lose this precious inheritance. We need to return to the practice of family prayer and prayer for families, continuing to use the Rosary.

The family that prays together stays together. The Holy Rosary, by age-old tradition, has shown itself particularly effective as a prayer which brings the family together. Individual family members, in turning their eyes towards Jesus, also regain the ability to look one another in the eye, to communicate, to show solidarity, to forgive one another and to see their covenant of love renewed in the Spirit of God.

Many of the problems facing contemporary families…result from their increasing difficulty in communicating. Families seldom manage to come together, and the rare occasions when they do are often taken up with watching television. To return to the recitation of the family Rosary means filling daily life with very different images, images of the mystery of salvation: the image of the Redeemer, the image of his most Blessed Mother. The family that recites the Rosary together reproduces something of the atmosphere of the household of Nazareth: its members place Jesus at the center, they share his joys and sorrows, they place their needs and their plans in his hands, they draw from him the hope and the strength to go on.

It is also beautiful and fruitful to entrust to this prayer the growth and development of children. Does the Rosary not follow the life of Christ, from his conception to his death, and then to his Resurrection and his glory? Parents are finding it ever more difficult to follow the lives of their children as they grow to maturity. In a society of advanced technology, of mass communications and globalization, everything has become hurried, and the cultural distance between generations is growing ever greater. The most diverse messages and the most unpredictable experiences rapidly make their way into the lives of children and adolescents, and parents can become quite anxious about the dangers their children face.

To pray the Rosary for children, and even more, with children, training them from their earliest years to experience this daily "pause for prayer" with the family, is admittedly not the solution to every problem, but it is a spiritual aid which should not be underestimated.

Why not try it? I am sure that young people will once more surprise adults by the way they make this prayer their own and recite it with the enthusiasm typical of their age group. I look to all of you, brothers and sisters of every state of life, to you, Christian families, to you, the sick and elderly, and to you, young people: confidently take up the Rosary once again. Rediscover the Rosary in the light of Scripture, in harmony with the Liturgy, and in the context of your daily lives.

Reflections

Peace and Justice

In the summer of 2007 Laurie Hasbrook, the coordinator at Voices for Creative Non-violence wrote an article entitled "Women and Children in War." I was moved by it and felt urged to reproduce it for your reading. It was based on the writing of this poem by June Jordan.

The big deal is today and tomorrow morning. Just this minute and then the next determines whether you or I do what we can to stop the injustice and the tyrannies surrounding us, and inside our hearts. Right now is the only time we own!

"Right now." Some days my right now, my big deal is a sink full of dishes, the homework not done, my 9 and 11-year-old sons whining about what they really, really want (some latest electronic gizmo). On such days my goal of raising conscientious sons in this materialistic, militaristic, and patriarchal culture seems a distant possibility. I need to be reminded what a gift, what a responsibility it is to live this minute and then the next to stop injustice and tyranny.

But what of those who have borne decades of affliction coming from circumstances over which they have no control, who find themselves isolated and seeing no light at the end of the tunnel, who wryly comment that if there is a light at the end of the tunnel, it is likely a raging locomotive coming directly toward them? I think of mothers in Iraq. And when I reflect on their reality I remember that just this minute does matter, and that I have incredible control over this time I own – control that is denied them.

Here is a short excerpt from one of the most recent in a steady stream of stories that came our way at Voices for Creative Nonviolence. A mother writes from Baghdad.

'Dearest, I'm now exhausted because I can't stop my children thinking of our situation. Hamid went to a shop: they want to hire him as a seller, selling silly things, and I want to stop him because he will be in front of the shop putting out goods to sell on the street and this is the most dangerous thing. He wants to work because he said if we don't get to school then I must work to be useful for myself and for my family. Yesterday there were 200 persons killed in Al Karada neighborhood, most of them sellers in the street. I worry so much about Hamid and little Saif is so dirty playing in the street. No water for three days. I can't keep him in the house for a long time; he is a child, and wants to play. Sometimes he forgets if he got his meal or not. Huda wants to walk and see everything. I can't manage anything here. I'll be full crazy. No home, no water and it is so dirty. I can't buy bottles because it is expensive to buy. Everything here is bad but I can't be hard on people because I love them. My sisters are busy with their families searching for places to be safe . I'm losing my personality and my children, and even they don't listen to me anymore. We are all lost and don't know what the solution is...'

Haifa signs her letter "Love and Peace." The only time she owns, possibly the last time she will write to her friends in the States, Haifa writes of the tyranny and injustice that typify daily life in Iraq. Yet, in closing she blesses us with wishes of love and peace!

Just this minute and then the next, whenever we feel defeated or bored or tired of the struggle to work for justice and peace, let us remember Haifa. Remember her daily struggles, her fears for her children, her desperation. Remember that, in spite of it all, she sends wishes of love and peace. And remember that "Right now is the only time we own!" Just this minute and then the next determine whether you or I do what we can to stop the injustice surrounding us.

Let us work and pray for peace!!!

Ministry Focus: Children's Liturgy of the Word

On Sunday mornings, children from Kindergarten through the 4th grade are invited to gather to celebrate the Liturgy of the Word in their own "language." They hear the readings, sing songs, and participate in a homily at their own level in the chapel with a team of presiders and a musician. Here's what some of our presiders have said about their ministry:

What I came to learn in the years that I participated in the ministry was that young children love to talk about God and have a great ability to understand Scripture concepts when presented and discussed "in their own language." My experience in the ministry was extremely gratifying in that I was able to engage the children every time in meaningful dialogue about relevant issues in the readings for the particular week of my ministry. In preparing for my weekend, I was able to gain greater insight into what the Scriptural message meant for me in my life. (Bob Schauer)

I became involved in the ministry three years ago when my husband and I moved to Barrington. I believe I am unique that we do not have children (but do have one on the way!). I initially volunteered because I thought it would be a fun way to interact with children (which I don't get to do in my software sales job) and to help deepen my knowledge of the faith at the same time. Both goals have been achieved! The interaction with the children has been incredibly rewarding. They continuously amaze me with their insightful answers to the questions I pose each time. Finally, I always come home with a smile - I have been hugged, been called "a holy person," and even have been a celebrity at Jewel after Mass. Thank you for letting me spend some time with your children. (Susan Beem)

Children's Liturgy of the Word is one of the best experiences that we, at St. Anne's, provide for young children. Children, for the most part, have open and uncluttered minds; they are far more open to hearing God speak to them through Scripture than most adults. I hope that through my ministry in Children's Liturgy of the Word, I continue to be a medium for this; the flip side is that I also hear God speaking to me at that level! (Helen Brauch)

THANK YOU to all of the presider-catechists, who lead this prayer every week, and to Pat McCoy who leads the singing!

Join in the annual joyful celebration of the multicultural and multiracial Parish Sharing Program. This also marks the 30th anniversary of the official Parish Sharing Program in the Archdiocese of Chicago. All are invited to attend the Mass and the reception following the Mass.

At the first parish sharing Mass in 1977, Father Art Dillon, then pastor of St. Anne's, was the main celebrant. St. Anne's was one of the eight sponsoring parishes. Father Dillon was one of the concelebrants at the Mass for many years, and St. Anne's has always had a presence at the Mass since then.

This year parishioners Adrienne and Paul Kalmes will be carrying up the St. Anne's Parish Sharing Banner in the Cathedral procession.

Successful Tootsie Roll Benefit

Many thanks to our parishioners for the very generous donations and purchases at the Knights of Columbus Tootsie Roll Benefit for the mental learning disabled. We regret we did not have a sufficient supply of the boxes of 50 to satisfy the demand, which exceeded our expectations. The Knights of Columbus appreciate your support of their main principle, which is charity.

Personal Items for the Night Ministry

Youth Ministry will be traveling to the city about twice a month to serve soup and bread to our friends who are assisted by the Night Ministry. Last time we went, our guests were asking for specific items that they are unable to provide for themselves. If you or someone you know could help by donating any of the following items, it would be appreciated – toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorant. Donations can be dropped off at the Youth Ministry office. Thanks for your help!

Employment Ministry

The St. Anne Employment Ministry is currently developing a larger network of ministries to share with. If you are interested in becoming an active member, email maria@marialarsen.com. Your email address will be added to the Yahoo group which currently reaches out to over 250 members, and you will receive correspondence regarding job postings, meetings, workshops, etc.

The Employment Ministry also offers one-on-one in-depth personal meetings to assist in your job search unlike other ministries which offer group meetings. We differentiate ourselves by arranging a morning coffee meeting or a late afternoon latte to go over your job search thoroughly. If this is something you are interested in, send an email and we will accommodate.

Going Public with Faith

Roman Catholicism offers adults who wish to become Christian a rich mix of catechesis and ritual on their journey to Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. Each moment in the journey leads seekers deeper into Christ's Paschal Mystery, helping them make Christ's life, death, and resurrection the pattern of their lives along the way. In the beginning, much of this work is personal and can even be a private journey of faith. As the process unfolds through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), however, those seeking initiation profess their growing faith in progressively more public ways.

The Rite of Acceptance/Welcoming, the first public gathering of those seeking initiation, makes clear both to the candidates, catechumens and to the assembly, the public nature of faith in Christ and membership in the Church. The Church's minister announces the names of the candidates and catechumens, then asks them what they desire from the Church and why. The minister also asks whether they are ready to live as Christians, according to the Gospel. Then the sponsors and the assembly publicly affirm their commitment in their efforts.

Perhaps the most striking part of the celebration is the signing with the cross by the sponsor – on the forehead, ears, eyes, lips, heart, shoulder, hands and feet, and finally, the whole body. Each sign is accompanied by a prayer that reminds us of how the senses and our body might help these adults in their journey of faith.

This celebration makes it clear that no one walks the path of discipleship privately. Once they have expressed their desire to join the Christian community and having been marked with the cross, they take their place in the assembly. Although they cannot fully participate in the Eucharist, they take part in the Liturgy of the Word, growing progressively in the light of the Gospel. In this way, they are signs to us that our life is a public witness to Christ's Gospel.

30th Sunday of the Year, 2007 (150C)

Sirach 35:15b-17, 20-22 (CCCB)

15 The Lord is the judge, and with him there is no partiality.
16 He will not show partiality to the poor;
but he will listen to the prayer of one who is wronged.
17 He will not ignore the supplication of the orphan, or the widow when she pours out her complaint.
20 The one whose service is pleasing to the Lord will be accepted, and the prayer of such a person will reach to the clouds.

21 The prayer of the humble pierces the clouds, and it will not rest until it reaches its goal;
it will not desist until the Most High responds 22 and does justice for the righteous, and executes judgment.
Indeed, the Lord will not delay,

Psalm 34:2-3, 17-18, 19, 23. The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18 (USCCB)

Beloved:
6 I am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand.
7 I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith.

8 From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance.
16 At my first defense no one appeared on my behalf, but everyone deserted me.
May it not be held against them!

17 But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it.
And I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly kingdom.
To him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Luke 18:9-14 (USCCB)

9 Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else.

10 "Two people went up to the temple area to pray;
one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector.
11 The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself,
'O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity-- greedy, dishonest, adulterous--or even like this tax collector.
12 I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.'

13 "But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.'

14 "I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former;
for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled,
and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Living Story

This parable (only at vv. 10-14a), unique to Luke, accompanies us as we follow Jesus and the disciples toward Jerusalem where the paschal mystery[i] of Jesus will fully unfold.

It is one of Luke's hallmark emphases to always portray Jesus as promoting the idea of righteousness or right relationships among people, and with God. Note the irony however; at v. 9: Luke shows Jesus aiming this parable at those who were convinced of their own righteousness and [who] despised everyone else. He chooses a member of the religious establishment and contrasts him with one despised for his cooperation with the hated Romans. The one who knows the Law inside and out is self-righteous; it is the unclean and despised outsider, the tax collector, whom Jesus startles us with as the one who is righteous (justified).

It is difficult to gain a true picture of Pharisees from New Testament portrayals because the evangelists use them as foils and often even as opponents to Jesus and his message. Since Pharisees were considered to be those who surpassed others in the observance of the law and in the practice of piety, they were actually expected to do things as outlined in v. 11, 12 – to thank God, and to give God an accounting of their practice of religion. His fasting and tithing is exemplary. Almost the sole prescribed time of fasting is on Yom Kippur. Other specific occasions: as an expression of penance, to mourn at the time of someone's death. This Pharisee fasts twice a week! He does well with tithing too. The Torah prescribes collection of tithes annually at harvest time. The key, however, to this Pharisee's attitude is in such phrases as I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity – greedy, dishonest, adulterous . . . I fast . . . I pay tithes. He thanks God, yes, but he accuses all the rest of humanity as being unrighteous – a judgment that is reserved to God! He does not seem to give thanks for being gifted by God so he can live righteously; he is more about patting himself on the back for his accomplishments. He seems to be not right with God and not right with other folks since he distances himself from them and shows no compassion for them; he does not seem to be in the right relationship with either God or with humans.

The tax collector, on the other hand, is deemed by Luke's audience as sinful, greedy, dishonest, a hired minion of the Roman conqueror, and therefore, unclean. Yet, he is humble in his prayer. He simply asks for mercy; he acknowledges that he is not in a correct relationship (he is in sin). He throws himself on the mercy of God, thereby showing that all good comes from God.

Who then is justified? The parable tells it at v. 14a.

At v. 14b, Luke adds to the proverb with a saying that he has used before in the story of the guests at a banquet (14:11). This saying is cast in what is called the Divine passive tense; it is understood that it is God who will do the reversal, who will do the exalting and the humbling. This is told directly in today's pericope from Sirach at vv. 21 and 22: the Most High responds and does justice for the righteous, and executes judgment. This reversal is clear in Luke's Canticle of Mary (1:46).

The psalm declares it:

The LORD hears the cry of the poor.

So What? After gaining some insights from the cultural setting for this parable, what in our own experiences can we recall that perhaps caused us to waffle about this parable? Before the insights, with which one of these characters would we most likely have identified?

Sacramental Celebrations

We believe that the Celebration of the Sacraments ranks among the most important gifts that we have. We look forward to sharing these celebrations with men and women who, in some way, are part of our community. Therefore, please note the following:

Baptism: Registration in the parish is a prerequisite. For those parents who are baptizing their first child, please allow 2 to 3 months in order to attend 2 required Baptism sessions before setting the Baptism date. For a subsequent child's baptism, an interview session must be scheduled prior to setting the date. All schedules are done in the parish office. Please call 847.382.5300.

Marriage: A son or daughter of a registered parishioner or a registered and active parishioner will need to schedule an interview with a parish staff person to set a date and start the marriage process. Please call 847.382.5300.

First Eucharist and First Reconciliation: These sacraments are celebrated in the second grade. Candidates must complete the preparation program which is coordinated through the REP program. Please call the REP office at 847.620.3068.

Confirmation: This sacrament is celebrated in high school. Candidates must be registered parishioners and complete a 2 year preparation program including large and small group involvement. Please call 847.620.3072.

Reconciliation: Saturdays 9:15 - 10:00 a.m. and by appointment.

Registration: Please do not assume you are registered if you have been attending Mass here or have children in St. Anne School or our REP program. Registration includes meeting with one of our welcoming team members and filling out an official form for our parish records.
To register, please call 847.382.5300.
