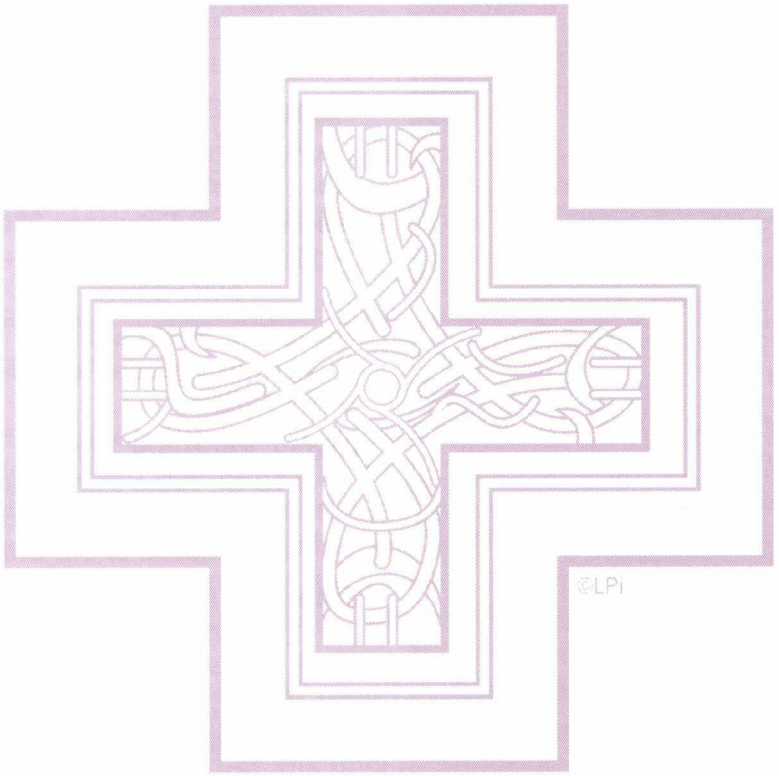
LENT 2008



TRANSFIGURATION SUNDAY

MAKING A CHOICE FOR FAITH

† Life is often difficult—one thing after another. The challenges we face can, at times, seem never-ending. The first disciples of Jesus cannot understand his insistence on suffering, death, and—resurrection. Then Jesus takes them to the "mountain." They experience an "illumination." They want to hold on to the experience. "Let us build 3 tents here…"

† We have special moments when God seems near and faith is renewed. But...holding on to the moment will not do. What we have experienced should recommit us to the good—to the works of faith—to the journey. We cannot stay on the mountain that has enriched one vision. We have "miles to go before we sleep." We must listen to Jesus!

Parish Theft…Security Alert

Sadly, we report that our parish experienced a major theft this past week. Thieves made off with several items of furniture from the Gathering Space including a leather sofa, two arm chairs, a coffee table and an oriental rug. The theft appears to have occurred either late Monday evening or very early Tuesday morning. Barrington police are investigating but as of now we have no leads. We are insured for theft so we will hopefully be able to replace the stolen items with similar ones.

We have received some belated reports of a stranger lurking in the building prior to the time the theft likely occurred. Unfortunately, the parish office and security people did not learn of this until after the theft was discovered. In order to take precautions against future such incidents, we are asking for the cooperation of our parishioners as follows:

- Whenever you are in any of the parish facilities and notice an individual who appears suspicious or out of place, please report that encounter to the parish office immediately. We will notify the Barrington Police.
- If you notice such a person in the evening or on the weekend when the office is closed, and our security person is not present, please call the Barrington Police and ask them to send an officer to investigate as quickly as possible.

The Barrington Police Department is very cooperative in the handling of these matters. In fact, they have encouraged us to report all such incidents as soon as they are observed. They know from experience that such individuals often may go from church to church as well as to other areas in the village. Such intervention may prevent a theft or act of vandalism. We appreciate your cooperation in helping us to prevent these types of problems in the future.

Next Weekend—Collection to Aid the Church in Central and Eastern Europe

Francis Cardinal George asks for our support with this collection next weekend to "illuminate a part of the world that for decades has been dominated by communism. Through our compassionate and generous contributions to this endeavor, we can help to bring the light of Christ's love to distant places in need of fully trained catechists, youth ministers and reconstructed worship centers."

Hope Chest Pantry

The Cupboard is Getting Bare

Now that the Christmas overflow has been distributed, our food supply is down. If you are willing and able, and not overloaded with our many other requests, we could use any of the following pantry items:

- Canned meats and fish (ham, chicken, turkey, salmon, tuna, etc.)
- Peanut butter
- Any cereal
- Boxed prepared foods
- General foods, juices, etc. (at this time, we have soup and vegetables.)

We also need to be conscious of the expiration dates. The Lake County health department requires us to dispose outdated food donations.

Financial Matters

By Joe Kelsch, Director of Business and Development

Year-to-Date Collection Deficit...A combination of factors, including the extreme cold weather, snow and ice, together with an extended weekend school vacation, have contributed to a substantial fall-off in weekend Mass attendance, and unfortunately, a critical decline in collection revenue over the past six weeks. So much so that as of week 33 of our fiscal year (through February 10th), we have experienced a total revenue budget shortfall of over $70,000.00. Since the first week in January, the year-to-date revenue shortfall has increased by nearly $40,000.00. This dramatic post- Christmas decline comes at a time of the year that we traditionally see an increase in the weekly collections as we move into the pre-Easter Lenten season. This year we have not seen such an increase and, consequently, we have serious concerns about meeting our parish operating revenue needs over the remaining 19 weeks of the fiscal year. This situation is especially disconcerting because our past experience has shown that weekend Mass attendance and collection revenue drop off with the post-Easter coming of warmer weather.

In order to minimize the revenue shortfall over the coming weeks, we ask that you make an extra effort to turn in your collection envelopes for any weeks that you are not able to attend Mass at St. Anne. And, if you are able to do so, please consider writing a check to cover what you usually give for any weeks you may have missed during the inclement weather of the past several weeks. Better yet, please consider a modest increase in your regular contribution amount.

"Complete the Journey" Campaign Progress... We continue to make progress toward the goal of having the parish debt-free by January 1st, 2010. As of now, 369 parishioners have made pledges or gifts to the campaign that total $2,527,274.00. This amount, together with other outstanding pledges, means that we need $1,118,182.00 to reach our goal. Certainly that amount is attainable if we are successful in convincing another 10 percent of our parishioner membership to step forward with a pledge or gift to the campaign.

To that end, this week a letter from Fr. Jack, along with an enclosed pledge card, is being sent to all parishioners who have not yet responded to the initial appeal. Please give prayerful consideration to this request for you to make a pledge. In doing so, you will join with the majority of our parishioners whose generosity over the past ten years enabled the parish to build our beautiful church and school facilities, and the many who have again stepped forward with a generous pledge or gift that has brought us so close to "Completing the Journey."

Annual Catholic Appeal... Please remember to turn in your completed Appeal envelope to an usher or leave it at the parish office during the week. If you prefer, you may mail it directly to the Appeal office, and they will record your contribution and notify us of your contribution. Remember, the Annual Appeal is the major revenue source that supports the work of Catholic Charities in the inner city and beyond. Please be generous to this most worthwhile appeal.

LENTEN PRACTICE 2: PRAYER

All of the synoptic gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke) tell us that Jesus was led by the Holy Spirit into the desert where he fasted and prayed for 40 days. As disciples, we seek to follow St. Paul's call to "pray always." Lent is a time when we concentrate our prayer on the double meaning of the season: conversion from our sinful ways and renewal of our baptismal promises.

The season of Lent is traditionally a time to strengthen ourselves as a people through prayer, fasting and almsgiving, so that we are better able to give ourselves—heart, mind and soul—to our God and to the work God sets before us in the world. Incorporating special Lenten prayers into our time together as a family helps us stay mindful of our dependence on God and one another, and of our need for continued faith growth as a family.

Family Prayer Ritual

Gather:

Invite family members to gather around the table before the evening meal begins.
Place your home cross or Lenten centerpiece in the center of the table.

Reflect:

Ask family members to think back on their day and to recall a time when they felt God's love or were challenged to grow in how they understood or lived out their faith.
Allow time for silence or for a sharing of reflections on the day.

A Lenten Prayer:

After brief sharing (or a moment of silence), the leader offers a prayer for the day.
Use one prayer for each week of Lent or use one per day. All respond:

Lord, hear us and keep us in your love.

A Meal Prayer:

The Lenten prayer closes with a simple blessing for the family meal:

Bless us, Lord, and the food we are about to eat.
May our love for one another, and the food we share, strengthen us to share your love with others.

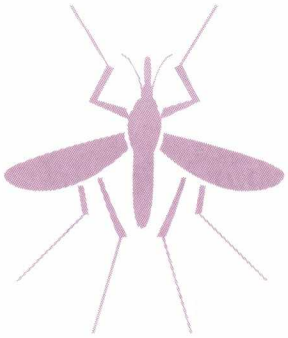
The Human Person...The Heart of Peace



NO MORE MALARIA!!

The second year of our Human Person...Heart of Peace Project in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, targets the disease of malaria by providing long-lasting insecticide-treated bed nets to families. These bed nets create a protective barrier against mosquitoes at night and in the early morning when the vast majority of transmissions occur. These bed nets accommodate and protect more that one person, a mother and an infant or a few siblings. The protection lasts up to five years.

For every $10.00

of almsgiving you offer, a bed net will be purchased through the UN Foundation and transported to the Rugari Parish. In addition to the net and distribution, your gift also provides education on the proper use of the net, measles inoculations for children under age five, as well as monitoring and evaluation. Jackie Griffin will be working with the UN team in the Goma area, making sure that the people in Rugari parish are "covered." Pick up your tag in the Gathering Space today. Donations can be returned throughout Lent to the box on the hearth.

It's 8:00 p.m., Monday evening, February 11th, in the United Airlines terminal. Jackie Griffin has just checked her precious cargo through to Kigali, Rwanda. Her final destination will be the Rugari Parish across the border in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. Her 700 lbs. of luggage included 500 lbs. of medical supplies, 82 lbs. of communications equipment, an 18 lb. solar powered generator (to keep everything running), and 100 lbs. of clothes, books and personal items for her yearlong mission. Awaiting shipping are another 25 boxes of donated medical supplies. All of these goods were provided by the University of Chicago hospitals and will be used by the hospital clinic run by the Archdiocese of Goma.

Jackie lands in Kigali late Wednesday morning, where she will be met at the airport by Abbe (Fr.) Louis Nzabanita, pastor of the Rugari Parish and Abbe Oswald Mouni, Asst. Directo of Caritas in Goma. The two priests will assist Jackie in crossing the border into DRC with her humanitarian goods and make sure that everything gets to its final destination. She will then be taken to the Diocesan headquarters, where she will spend the first few nights getting acclimated. Her first mission is to fine tune her Swahili.

She will then travel with the Abbe Louis to Rugari. Last week the UN gave the all-clear sign to the Diocese allowing them to return to the parish. There will be much work getting everything back in shape after the occupation of the parish buildings by the rebel troops in September and October. After that visit, Jackie will soon be visiting the villagers from Nkokwe and assessing the medical aspects of her mission. She will be providing us with first hand information about where and how the people are doing and seeing classes in the refugee camp which St. Anne has made possible.

Bring your Grandmother, Mother, Daughter, Sister, Godmother, Goddaughter, Aunt, Niece
Bring your Best Friend...and most especially bring your inner girl.

Reflections

By Sister Lauretta Leipzig, Pastoral Associate and Director of Adult Education

Listen to Him

In the gospel passage today, we hear the story of the Transfiguration of Jesus. We see the Lord sharing a glorious and dazzling moment with his closest followers.

It was on that ancient and high mountain that the Lord revealed to them what Fr. Jeffrey Mickler calls "the great chain of love of which Jesus was the central link." He spoke with Elijah the great prophet and Moses the great lawgiver and liberator. Mickler goes on to say, "They had lived their lives in the service of God. The chain of love and service has bound godly people together throughout the age and around the world. This chain of love has bound us together and made it possible for us to carry the heavy load of suffering that is an essential part of being human. The Creator has always been present in the midst of this suffering world, and this presence has best been felt in lives of the prophets, lawgivers, and saints. His only begotten Son accepted suffering but in the process made the lives of all who feel pain and rejection bearable."

On the Mount of the Transfiguration, Peter, James, and John heard the voice of voices proclaim, "This is my Son, my beloved. Listen to him."

If we listen to Christ and act on his word, we are linked to Jesus just as the apostles were. The apostles received a command to proclaim the word from the Father, and they fulfilled it. Jesus gave us just two commandments to fulfill: love God with our whole hearts, minds, and souls and our neighbors as ourselves. How well will we fulfill that command this Lent?

"Nickel and Dimed" by Barbara Ehrenreich

Ehrenreich turns her gimlet eye on the view from the workforce's bottom rung. Determined to find out how anyone could make ends meet on $7.00 an hour, she left behind her middle class life as a journalist except for $1,000.00 in start-up funds, a car and her laptop computer to try to sustain herself as a low-skilled worker for a month at a time. Delivering a fast read that is both sobering and sassy, she gives readers pause about those caught in the economy's undertow, even in good times.

Films of Faith

"Jesus, Word Became Flesh"
Tuesday, February 19th
9:00 a.m., Hospitality Room

As we continue our Lenten journey, please join us to view this fast-paced, entertaining biography and travel documentary.

How could a laborer who chiseled rocks and cut wood forgive sins, heal the sick, and raise the dead? Who was this first century carpenter who changed the whole course of history...of eternity? As he trudged the dusty path of Israel, he was worshipped as God; as he performed signs that revealed his divinity, he was executed as a traitor. Join Stephen Ray, best selling author and popular bible teacher, as he catches fish on the sea of Galilee, camps along the Jordan River, and explores the places were Jesus lived and taught. Experience the breathtaking journey through the streets of Jerusalem to Calvary and the tomb; encounter the Resurrection and Pentecost. Gain a deeper appreciation for our Savior and the price he paid for our salvation. Admission is free; coffee and sweets will be served. Viewing time: approx. 94 minutes.

Night Ministry Needs Help

Brides-and-grooms-to-be and their significant others are especially invited to St. Anne's Wedding Liturgy and Music Fair, to be held in the chapel on Monday, February 25th, from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. Our prospective wedding couples will receive the book Celebrating Marriage and a music planning sheet, and Rory Cooney will give a brief 'user's guide' to the book. Over an hour of our time together will be sampling parts of forty or so pieces of music as options for the wedding. Providing music will be Rory as well as some of our cantors, a string quartet, trumpet, and flute. It is an enjoyable and indispensable opportunity to prepare for the wedding ceremony.

Prospective brides and/or grooms should reserve a spot by calling 847.620.3064 or by email to rcooney@stannebarrington.org so that we can prepare enough handouts. There is no charge for this evening. All are welcome, even if you're not getting married!

2nd Sunday of Lent, 2008 (25A)

First Reading: Genesis 12:1-4a (USCCB)

[1] The LORD said to Abram:
"Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you.
[2] "I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you;
I will make your name great, so that you will be a blessing.
[3] I will bless those who bless you and curse those who curse you.
All the communities of the earth shall find blessing in you."
[4] Abram went as the LORD directed him.

Psalm 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22. LORD, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 1:8b-10 (CCCB)

Brothers and sisters:
[8] Join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God,
[9] who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace.
This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, [10] but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

Gospel: Matthew 17:1-9 (CCCB)

[1] Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves.
[2] And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white.
[3] Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him.
[4] Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here;
if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."
[5] While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said,
"This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!"
[6] When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear.
[7] But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up and do not be afraid."
[8] And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.
[9] As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them,
"Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

v.1 It is very important to keep in mind that Matthew is writing to his community who are Jews who had not experienced Jesus, yet had come to believe that Jesus was the Messiah. He writes to bolster their spirits in a time of great chaos in first century Palestine[1], and to assure them that Jesus was indeed the Son of God, the Anointed, the Messiah; Matthew's purpose is theological rather than temporal or geographical. The Jewish ear immediately hears Exodus 24:12, where God reveals God's self to Moses atop Mt. Sinai. Mountains were the usual sites for theophanies[2] and therefore significant to Matthew's Jewish readers. Peter, James, John: the inner circle; among the first to be called (4:18); will be at Gethsemane (26:37).

v.2 transfigured: the Gr. word means metamorphosis (= change of form) but here it has not that classical pagan meaning. For face, see Exod. 34:29 & Dan. 10:6; like the sun, see 13:43; clothes see Dan. 7:9, Rev. 4:4, 7:9. The central point is that Jesus' nature becomes luminous, transparent to the disciples as they look upon him[3], and therefore it is a preview of the glory that will belong to Jesus in the eschaton (second coming) and at the fullness of God's kingdom[4].

v.3 Moses and Elijah represent the Law and the Prophets and are most powerful images for the Jew. Here Matthew casts them as witnesses to the fulfillment of the Law[5] and the Prophets[6] that is taking place in the person of Jesus.

v.4 tents: probably a reference to what the Israelites dwelled in during the liturgical feast of Tabernacles (Lev. 23:39-43) which commemorated their having lived in tents with the God who led them through Egypt to the promised land. It is again an image that evokes Jewish tradition.

v.5 cloud: a vehicle, a sign for God's presence (Ex. 16:10)[7]; overshadowed: even the disciples enter into the mystery of Jesus glorification. This is...the voice repeats the baptismal proclamation at 3:17 (read!) but adds, listen to him, (see Deut. 18:15 where the Israelites are commanded to listen to the prophet like Moses whom God will raise up for them. The command to listen to Jesus is general but here applies specifically to the preceding prediction of his passion and resurrection (16:21) and to his coming (16:27-28)[8].

v.6 In Matthew, this fear is a reaction to the divine command rather than to the vision itself (as it is in Mark, q.v. 9:6)[9]

v.8 The two withdraw; Jesus remains, signifying the fuller revelation of God[10].

v.9 Matthew is the only evangelist who labels the event a vision and thereby gives a clue to the nature of this event. Some scholars have regarded it as a vision given to Peter through which he receives insight into the role of Jesus. The story is nevertheless seen as the externalization of an inner spiritual event[11].

The following is condensed from The Cultural World of Jesus, Cycle A by John J. Pilch, p. 53. Note, brackets indicate text is mine.

Modern psychological anthropology points out that even today alternative state of consciousness such as visions and dreams are normal human experiences to the majority of the world's cultures. The ones that need explanation are the cultures in which these are not so common, like contemporary U. S.

Peter, James, and John are participants in this experience of a vision during which they gain a clearer understanding of Jesus as one who lived on the brink of shame* all the time but still maintained a position of favor with the Father. In all cultures, altered states of consciousness are normal means of learning new information.

In Matthew's lifetime, many actual and potential Mediterranean believers in Jesus were troubled by his shameful death. If this man's life and ministry were pleasing to God, why did it seem that God abandoned him? [A question obviously not limited to Matthew's time!]

Matthew's portrayal of Jesus as another Moses shows that God no more abandoned Jesus than he abandoned Moses. Matthew exhorts his community to stand under the Lordship of the risen Lord[12] who is the second Moses and lawgiver to his Church. Jesus will come at the end of time to judge that Church according to the new righteousness that he taught on a mountain just as Moses did (see Sermon on the Mount, especially 5:1-20).

What does this story have to say to present day Western believers? Matthew, writing to his Jewish audience, naturally follows the primary cultural values of honor/shame. Matthew predictably shows Jesus maintaining steadfast trust in God no matter how shameful his life experiences appeared. But his faith and trust paid off: God restored honor to him in a way that no human ever could have; God publicly honors him at 3:17 – This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased. Eventually, despite his dishonorable and shameful death, God raises Jesus in the Resurrection.

In our very different culture, where self-reliance is highly valued, it is equally challenging to trust in God; after all, we have been socialized to believe that we are fully in control of our destiny and our lives.

[How then are we to view the emphatic insistence in all three scriptures today? God calls Abram to leave the comfort of his ancestral surroundings and go to a foreign place where, God promises, Abram will, at his advanced age, literally father a nation of numerous people; all the communities of earth will give him honor. Paul calls the community gathered around Timothy to fidelity and reliance on The Christ who, although no longer physically present, has been raised to ultimate honor by conquering sin through being raised up from the dead by God. Matthew shows God bestowing the highest honor on Jesus by publicly saying of him: This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.]

So what? Can we recall when we prayed like the psalmist?
Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place out trust in you?

[12] Remember that this gospel was written down a generation and a half after the resurrection!

Sacramental Celebrations

We believe that the Celebration of the Sacraments ranks among the most important gifts that we have. We look forward to sharing these celebrations with men and women who, in some way, are part of our community. Therefore, please note the following:

Baptism: Registration in the parish is a prerequisite. For those parents who are baptizing their first child, please allow 2 to 3 months in order to attend 2 required Baptism sessions before setting the Baptism date. For a subsequent child's baptism, an interview session must be scheduled prior to setting the date. All schedules are done in the parish office. Please call 847.382.5300.

Marriage: A son or daughter of a registered parishioner or a registered and active parishioner will need to schedule an interview with a parish staff person to set a date and start the marriage process. Please call 847.382.5300.

First Eucharist and First Reconciliation: These sacraments are celebrated in the second grade. Candidates must complete the preparation program which is coordinated through the REP program. Please call the REP office at 847.620.3068.

Confirmation: This sacrament is celebrated in high school. Candidates must be registered parishioners and complete a 2 year preparation program including large and small group involvement. Please call 847.620.3072.

Reconciliation: Saturdays 9:15 - 10:00 a.m. and by appointment.

Registration: Please do not assume you are registered if you have been attending Mass here or have children in St. Anne School or our REP program. Registration includes meeting with one of our welcoming team members and filling out an official form for our parish records. To register, please call 847.382.5300.
