OUR MISSION

We, a Catholic Christian people rooted by Baptism, take as our challenge the mission of Jesus: to build the Kingdom of God, standing in solidarity with the poor. We are committed to:

Welcoming	• Welcoming all people and providing a sense of belonging to people at every stage of life
Creating	• Creating a place of enjoyment, excitement and fun for people of all ages
Healing	• Healing, reconciling and reaching out in caring service to others
Reaching Out	• Serving those in need, especially the broken, through generous gifts of time, talent and treasure
Serving	• Gathering at Eucharist and celebrating the Sacraments of the Church and the sacramental moments of our lives
Gathering	• Telling and sharing the Living Story of Jesus
Sharing

So challenged, we pray that the Holy Spirit fills us and empowers us so that we may become the Living Presence of Jesus in our contemporary world.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Office of the Archbishop

Post Office Box 1979
Chicago, Illinois 60690-1979

June 21, 2009

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

During his visit last year, Pope Benedict XVI called upon us to "be the first friend of all who suffer" by "casting the light of Christ upon the world." This year's Peter's Pence Collection theme certainly echoes the Holy Father's call to action for the Church in the United States.

As the Year of St. Paul comes to a conclusion, I am reminded of the Second Letter to the Corinthians (8:12-13). "The willingness to give should accord with one's means, not go beyond them. The relief of others ought not impoverish you; there should be a certain equality." Therefore, in a spirit of justice and generosity, I ask for your support to enable our Holy Father in providing emergency assistance to victims of war, disease and natural disaster.

Your past support of this collection has ensured that the successor of Peter is able to respond to those most in need throughout our world. May Our Lord continue to bless you and your loved ones as we become beacons of hope by casting the light of Christ in our parishes, the Archdiocese and the Universal Church.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
Archbishop of Chicago

What Can We Give? By Sister Lauretta Leipzig, Pastoral Associate/Director of Adult Education

Father Paul Boudreau wrote a little booklet with daily reflections, actions and prayers. As I was paging through this daily resource, I found a few interesting stories that centered around the concept of recognizing the poor in our midst and doing something about it. I would like to pass them on to you for your reflection.

He tells the story of a lady at his church who gives him money so that he can give it to the poor. She thinks that because of his work in the community, he is much more likely to encounter people who really need help. Also, she feels a little intimidated when it comes to dealing with needy people herself. After receiving money one day, the first request he got came from a fellow who confronted him in the parking lot of the supermarket. He asked the priest if he could help him out because he was trying to put together enough money for a tank of gas. He pointed to a dilapidated old pickup that looked like it needed a lot more than a tank of gas. Father noticed that there was a woman and child in the front and furniture piled in the back. Obviously, he thought they were either without a home or they were moving. Father gave him a dollar. Later it occurred to the priest that with the meager amount of charity he showed the man, it would take him more than two months to come up with enough for a tank of gas. He was embarrassed when he admitted that he had a pocketful of money which he had received from the lady at church that very morning!

A second story - A friend of someone living in a large city usually walked everywhere she went. It was her habit to carry a pocketful of quarters because there were so many panhandlers who lived and begged along the sidewalks where she traveled. She said, "A quarter isn't much, but they only ask for spare change."

These stories only reinforce an often quoted gospel passage: "The poor you will always have with you." Yes, that is true. And does that saying serve as a handy rationale for ignoring the poor at times or responding only in a very small way? Does it cause us to wonder what the point is in helping the poor if Jesus said we would always have them with us?

The poor will always be with us. But understood in the proper context, it simply means that there will be endless opportunities to help the poor. Maybe we can apply another saying of Jesus that 'many are called to help the poor but few do.' There will always be those who lack the personal resources to manage their lives, and there will always be those who are in need because others have failed to help. Are we asked to share our "dollar" or our "quarter" with them? Could we give our time and our service if and when it is needed?

Perhaps God will send the poor to you today so that you may have an opportunity to help them. They will come to you as family, friend, or stranger. Let us pray that God will give us the time, abilities and resources to share our gifts in the service of his poor.

Sharing the Living Story

12TH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR, 2009

First Reading: Job 38:1, 8-11

[1] The LORD addressed Job out of the storm and said:
[8] Who shut within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb;
[9] when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands?
[10] When I set limits for it and fastened the bar of its door,
[11] and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

Responsorial Psalm 107: 23-24, 25-26, 28-29, 30-31

Give thanks to the LORD, his love is everlasting.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

Brothers and sisters:
[14] For the love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all;
therefore, all have died.
[15] He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

[16] Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh;
even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer.
[17] So whoever is in Christ is a new creation:
the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

Gospel: Mark 4:35-41

[35] On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples, "Let us cross to the other side."
[36] Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was.
And other boats were with him.
[37] A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up.
[38] Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him,
"Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?"
[39] He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!"
The wind ceased and there was great calm.
[40] Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"
[41] They were filled with great awe and said to one another,
"Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

This gospel pericope must be set into the context of the geography that is highly symbolic in this portion of Mark's gospel from 4:35 to 8:13. His strategy is seen in two somewhat parallel patterns of narrative:

	Pattern A	Pattern B
Exorcism	1:21 ff	5:1 ff
Healings	5:22 ff	7:24
Feeding of Crowds	6:32 ff	8:1 ff
Non-understanding about the loaves	6:5 ff	8:14 ff

Each of these patterns takes place on different sides of the Sea of Galilee, and Mark shows Jesus and the disciples going back and forth by boat from one side to the other. The Sea of Galilee, together with the Jordan River flowing into it from the north and out of it on the south, forms the eastern border of the region called Galilee in north Palestine. This gospel pericope opens with Jesus and his disciples starting on the first of their journeys to the other side of the Sea, that is, toward everything east of the Jordan. For Mark, this gentile territory is symbolic of everything that is alien and threatening to this side of the Sea of Galilee, that is, to the Jewish communities which lie to the west of the axis of sea and river; western side = our side (Judean, or Jewish) whereas eastern side = the other side (gentile).

There are four "crossing" trips in chapters 4 to 8; three by boat to the east side and one by land to the north and west of Galilee to the coastal towns of Tyre and Sidon which are also thought of as alien to Israel. (CONTINUED ON THE NEXT PAGE)

First Crossing

Embark: 4:35	Near Capernaum, on northwest shore
Arrive: 5:10	Near the Decapolis,[i] on southeast shore
Return: 5:21	To our side of the lake – Judean (Jewish)

Second Crossing

Embark: 6:45	Wilderness on Jewish side, destination Bethsaida, northeast shore
Arrive: 6:53	Blown off course to Gennesaret, northwest shore

Third "Crossing" (by land)

Leave: 7:24	To Tyre and Sidon, "alien" or foreign territory
Return: 7:31	To Sea of Galilee via the Decapolis

Fourth Crossing

Embark: 8:10, 13	From Dalmanutha, west shore
Arrive: 8:22	Bethsaida, northeast shore

What is important to note here is that this crossing from one side to the other, from our side to their side is symbolic of us and them. Mark's audience would immediately be alert. Mark shows that Jesus is universal in concern and extends liberation to the other side, to those excluded by Mark's community on the basis of culture or politics as being "them," or "other."

On Jesus' invitation, the disciples embark to the other side. On the narrative level, it is a miracle story; on the level of symbol, it is very powerful. Recall what waters or sea mean to the Judean consciousness: the chaos of the primordial waters[ii] at the creation; Noah[iii] and the Ark and the Flood; crossing of the Red Sea[iv] escaping Pharaoh; the Psalm references[v] point to the terror of storms. Note the resonance with the story of Jonah[vi] who declines to act as prophet and call people back to God so they could be unbound from their oppression; he finds himself, like these disciples, in the midst of the chaos of a storm. Storm, wind and waves are all "things" which stand in the way of the "crossing of borders." Just so, is the perennial enmity between Judean (Jew) and Gentile. To the Judean ear, this was the boundary of boundaries, one that was so embedded in the fabric of their existence so as to seem natural. But Jesus calms the storm, even in the face of their limited understanding. Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?[vii]

There must have been only Jesus and the disciples in the boat because showing fear openly as the disciples do at v.38 would be a serious loss of honor for the Mediterranean male if it would become known by someone outside of their in-group. Verse 41 is not a question about identity; it concerns honor. They want to know his position in the hierarchy of beings! In their world view, causality was personal; it took a being, human or other, to cause significant change whether in the everyday world or in the cosmos. Things outside of human control like the weather, disease or fertility were controlled by nonhuman beings that operated within a cosmic social hierarchy. Each being controlled by the one below it:

- Our God
- Other Gods, or sons of God, or archangels
- Angels, spirits, or demons
- Humans
- Creatures lower than humans – animals, fish

Any being that acted outside of his/her inherited social level (Jesus frequently did!) was highly suspect and had to be evaluated. Hence: Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him? Do they begin to know? He slept during the storm, showing faith (solidarity) with God; he calms the wind and the sea, asking them, do you not yet have faith? (solidarity with God). Who then is this? ... they should know.

So What? What about the "other" side in our lives; who will reduce the tension, calm the storm, quiet the wind and the sea, between us and them? Do we have faith?

[i] Territory in eastern Palestine extending from Damascus in the north to Philadelphia in the south and in which were located ten Hellenistic (pagan or gentile) cities who owed allegiance to the Romans

[ii] Genesis 1:2ff

[iii] Genesis 6:7

[iv] Exodus14:28

[v] 65:8; 89:10; 93:3

[vi] See the book of Jonah; it's only 2 pages!

[vii] Despite more evidence of Jesus' faith (solidarity with God) by his doing miraculous cures, there is not much progress by 6:45; Mark says that Jesus had to force the disciples to start on the 2nd crossing

When memories matter...

The fine art of caring

Over the years our mother taught all six of us kids the fine art of caring. When she was diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease, it became our responsibility, and privilege, to care for her.

With the help of the people at Prairieview, we are honoring her legacy.

Sacramental Celebrations

We believe that the celebration of the sacraments ranks among the most important gifts that we have. We look forward to sharing these celebrations with those who, in some way, are part of our community. Therefore, please note the following:

Baptism: Registration in the parish is a prerequisite. For those parents who are baptizing their first child, please allow 2 to 3 months in order to attend 2 required Baptism sessions before setting the Baptism date. For a subsequent child's baptism, an interview session must be scheduled prior to setting the date. All schedules are done in the parish office. Please call 847.382.5300.

Marriage: A child of a registered parishioner or a registered and active parishioner must schedule an interview with a parish staff person to set a date and start the marriage process. Please call 847.382.5300.

First Eucharist and First Reconciliation: These sacraments are celebrated in the second grade. Candidates must complete the required preparation program. Please call the REP office at 847.620.3068.

Confirmation: This sacrament is celebrated in high school. Candidates must be registered parishioners and complete the required preparation program. Please call 847.620.3072.

Reconciliation: Saturdays 9:15 - 10:00 a.m. and by appointment.

Registration: Please do not assume you are registered if you have been attending Mass here or have children in St. Anne School or our REP program. Registration includes meeting with one of our welcoming team members and filling out an official form for our parish records. To register, please call 847.382.5300.
