OUR MISSION

We, a Catholic Christian people rooted by Baptism, take as our challenge the mission of Jesus: to build the Kingdom of God, standing in solidarity with the poor. We are committed to:

Welcoming	• Welcoming all people and providing a sense of belonging to people at every stage of life
Creating	• Creating a place of enjoyment, excitement and fun for people of all ages
Healing	• Healing, reconciling and reaching out in caring service to others
Reaching Out	• Serving those in need, especially the broken, through generous gifts of time, talent and treasure
Serving	• Gathering at Eucharist and celebrating the Sacraments of the Church and the sacramental moments of our lives
Gathering	• Telling and sharing the Living Story of Jesus
Sharing

So challenged, we pray that the Holy Spirit fills us and empowers us so that we may become the Living Presence of Jesus in our contemporary world.

PERSPECTIVES FROM THE PCM...

Robert K. Greenleaf, in his 1970 essay, "The Servant as Leader," in which he coined the terms 'servant-leader' and 'servant leadership,' launched the modern servant leadership movement. Larry Spears, who served for 17 years as the head of the Greenleaf Center for Servant Leadership, identified ten characteristics of servant leaders in the writings of Greenleaf. The ten characteristics are listening, empathy, healing, awareness, persuasion, conceptualization, foresight, stewardship, commitment to the growth of others, and building community. The PCM fully embraces these characteristics. If the parishioners of St. Anne also commit and accept these principles, our community will expand more fully into the vision of Christ. In this day and age, when vocations are not as popular as they were in the past, it is critical to acknowledge what our responsibility as lay people is to our church. We must take ownership of our discipleship and be true stakeholders of our parish in order for it to flourish, otherwise we will languish. Embrace GIFT. Open your heart to Growing In Faith Together,* and the St. Anne community will develop a confidence and strength like never seen before.

GIFT Growing in Faith Together

A LIFETIME TO GROW IT

BY SISTER LAURETTA LEIPZIG, PASTORAL ASSOCIATE/DIRECTOR OF ADULT EDUCATION

Through the summer weeks, you have been informed about GIFT and its many interesting components for all ages. Some of you have already reviewed the offerings and registered. But, sometimes when articles appear frequently, we have a tendency to gloss over them, or we don't see them at all any more. Perhaps you might be someone who may still need to check out the programs.

To help you make some decisions, permit me to tell you a little about the importance of the ADULT FAITH FORMATION components of GIFT this year. In the coming months, in response to your various requests, it is our desire to offer a variety of adult faith formation programs or events, some of which are newly formed.

I want to begin by telling you about a weekly TV program on the Game Show Channel called A Minute to Win It. Contestants are required to complete different difficult tasks in only one minute using specified household items. There is nothing more that one needs to do but say "yes" to the challenge and then try to accomplish it. One wonders what motivates those who choose to participate in this intensely stressful game. Maybe it's the fact that the monetary rewards for completing these tasks are gigantic! I mention this program as an example of a one-time choice to do something one thinks will make a difference in his or her life. But it's only one minute – that's all a person has – and their chance at winning is over!

This contest prompted me to reflect upon the question: How is this game in direct contrast to our spiritual life?

Looking at our faith life, it is not a one-time conversion in which we say "yes" and become a disciple or even a good Christian instantaneously. We cannot assume that we are automatically and forever a new, transformed person and there is nothing more we need to do. Growing in our faith is a lifetime process. In the spiritual life, it is not A Minute to Win It but A Lifetime to Grow It. To be a true follower is a day-to-day, lifelong process of learning and experiencing our faith and then witnessing it and sharing it with others. Needless to say, there are gigantic rewards for living out our faith – but far different from the game show!

That is the goal of GIFT's adult faith formation opportunities: to continue to learn more about our faith, to witness and share it, and to grow into a more faithful person as a lifetime process. I ask that you seriously consider the programs offered on page 8 of this Clarion. Registrations are encouraged and will be accepted through GIFT now and at certain other times of the year for specific offerings. I invite you to be that person who takes seriously the motto, A Lifetime to Grow It, and join others in our adult faith formation opportunities at St. Anne.

THE WOMEN'S CLUB CORNER

You may win a great prize donated by a local wine merchant. We encourage you to tell your friends and bring them along.

Monica Keane will also make a short presentation on service. Ms. Keane is the Executive Director of the Barrington Career Center which provides valuable services to those in need of employment. GIFT Growing in Faith Together

GIFT COMMUNITY EVENT – IDENTITY OF CHRIST

September 13th-18th, 2010

We are looking forward to our first year of GIFT and our fourth year of community faith formation events. Our topic for 2010-2011 is Discipleship. Through discipleship, we claim ourselves as followers of Jesus and learn how to make our faith a way of life. The topic for our first event, which begins Monday, September 13th, is the Identity of Christ. We will learn to discern ways to deepen our relationship with God through an understanding of Jesus' identity as true God and true man.

We are excited to announce that the adult speaker for our first event is our own Rory Cooney. We are fortunate that Rory has been the Director of Liturgy and Music ministries here at St. Anne since 1994. He is a skilled liturgist and accomplished composer whose songwriting career began nearly 35 years ago and continues to the present, as he writes to the needs of the church and the communities in which he serves.

Rory's recording career began in 1984, and he collaborates, records, and travels with his wife, Theresa Donohoo and Gary Daigle, giving concerts, days of renewal, missions, and workshops for parishes, dioceses, and organizations. Rory also works with various institutes of the North American Forum on the Catechumenate and Institutes on the Christian Initiation of Children.

It takes many helping hands to make these events a reality. We encourage you to consider the various ways you can share your time and talents with your fellow parishioners by exploring the GIFT Ministry Opportunities on the back of the Program Registration sheet.

Through GIFT, we are excited to offer children in grades 1 through 5 the opportunity to receive faith formation in a variety of ways to meet your family needs.

- Families grow and share their faith together in six Community Events. Family participation reinforces the parents' role as the primary educators and role models for their children. Attend these sessions as a family on any day, Tuesday through Saturday.
- Children attend nine Grades 1-2 Sacrament Preparation or Grades 3-5 Catechesis sessions on either Tuesdays or Wednesdays between the Community Events.

You can choose to attend the Community Events as a family any day, Tuesday through Saturday; your child can attend Grades 1-5 Faith Formation on Tuesday or Wednesday. Your family may choose to attend only the Community Events, only the Grades 1-5 Faith Formation, or both.

To receive the greatest benefit for your family, attend both the Community Events and the Grades 1-5 sessions. This schedule will provide your child 15 faith formation sessions approximately every other week (excluding holidays and holy days). Regardless of how you choose to attend, your child will receive the same Sacrament Preparation and faith formation instruction.

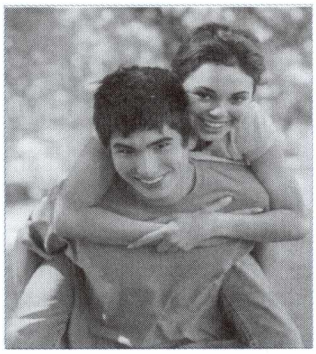
High School Retreats



Spiritus (for Freshmen and Sophomores)

We are all on a lifelong quest to find and honor the "real us." Spiritus reflects that same search and focuses greatly on the role of the Holy Spirit in our lives. This time away from our busy schedules is an excellent opportunity to reflect on how we welcome God into our lives. It focuses on helping participants ask and live the questions of our Roman Catholic faith. While the retreat is an integral part of the St. Anne Confirmation preparation process, any freshman or sophomore is welcome to attend.

Retreat Dates: January 7-8, 2011 OR February 25-26, 2011
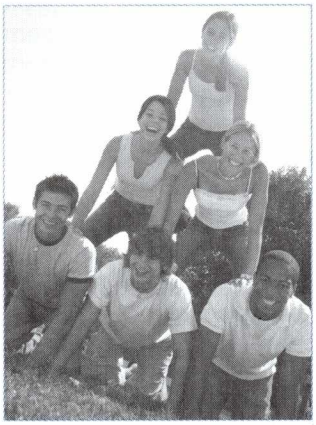
Retreat runs Friday from 6:00 p.m. to Saturday at 7:00 p.m.



Kairos (for Juniors and Seniors)

IS THIS AS GOOD AS IT GETS? Has this question crossed your mind in the past? Do you find yourself wondering about what life really means and if there is more to it than what you have experienced so far? If so, this retreat may be just what you are looking for. Kairos is our most powerful retreat experience. It is an experience of Christian community, with a series of talks given by both peers and adults. Prayer and the sacraments are an essential part of the program, as well as involvement in discussions and other exercises. The program lasts for 3 days with the challenge to continue living the "Kairos Spirit" for the rest of one's life.

Retreat Dates: November 19-21, 2010 OR March 11-13, 2011
Retreat runs Friday from 8:00 a.m. to Sunday at 7:00 p.m.
(Participants will miss school on Friday)

Sharing the Living Story

By Clem Aseron, Associate Director of Liturgy and Coordinator of Scriptural Ministries

24TH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR, 2010 (132C)

Luke 15:1-32

[1]Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus,
[2] but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying,
"This man welcomes sinners and eats with them."
[3] So to them he addressed this parable.
[4] "What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it?
[5] And when he does find it,
he sets it on his shoulders with great joy [6] and, upon his arrival home, he calls together his friends and neighbors and says to them,
'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.'
[7] I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance.
[8] "Or what woman having ten coins and losing one would not light a lamp and sweep the house, searching carefully until she finds it?
[9] And when she does find it,
she calls together her friends and neighbors and says to them,
'Rejoice with me because I have found the coin that I lost.'
[10] In just the same way, I tell you, there will be rejoicing among the angels of God over one sinner who repents."
[11] Then he said,
"A man had two sons, [12] and the younger son said to his father,
'Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.'
[13] So the father divided the property between them.
After a few days, the younger son collected all his belongings and set off to a distant country where he squandered his inheritance on a life of dissipation.
[14] When he had freely spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he found himself in dire need.
[15] So he hired himself out to one of the local citizens who sent him to his farm to tend the swine.
[16] And he longed to eat his fill of the pods on which the swine fed, but nobody gave him any.
[17] Coming to his senses he thought,
'How many of my father's hired workers have more than enough food to eat, but here am I, dying from hunger.
[18] I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him,
"Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.
[19] I no longer deserve to be called your son;
treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers.'"
[20] So he got up and went back to his father.
While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion.
He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him.
[21] His son said to him,
'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you;
I no longer deserve to be called your son.'
[22] But his father ordered his servants,
'Quickly bring the finest robe and put it on him;
put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.
[23] Take the fattened calf and slaughter it.
Then let us celebrate with a feast,
[24] because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again;
he was lost, and has been found.' Then the celebration began.
[25] Now the older son had been out in the field and, on his way back, as he neared the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing.
[26] He called one of the servants and asked what this might mean.
[27] The servant said to him,
'Your brother has returned and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.'
[28] He became angry, and when he refused to enter the house, his father came out and pleaded with him.

[29] He said to his father in reply,
'Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders;
yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends.
[30] But when your son returns,
who swallowed up your property with prostitutes,
for him you slaughter the fattened calf.'
[31] He said to him,
'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours.
[32] But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again;
he was lost and has been found.'"

The three parables in this gospel speak about the unremitting pursuit of the lost by the God who is so passionate in his love for his people that he is misunderstood - even complained against - by those who hold themselves outside (v.1-2) because this God is too intimate. Then, as now, the height of social intercourse is in the sharing of a meal, and this lover God welcomes sinners and eats with them. Who is listening to these stories besides the Pharisees and scribes? The tax collectors and sinners, those who were unclean, who were the most outcast of any, were coming near to listen.

Note the cultural backdrop in each of these parables; Luke shows that our God moves to be inclusive, moves toward wholeness: 99 sheep need 1 more to be the complete number 100; 9 coins lack 1 more to be the whole number 10; two are necessary for there to be brothers. It is about the God who spares no effort to bring about this completeness, and when he succeeds, he calls the whole community to join in the rejoicing. Look at these images!

The shepherd rejoices when he finds the lost one. And what does he do? He carries it home! Intimately joined to the smelly one but filled with jubilation, he calls friends and neighbors into the house to rejoice with him, for what was lost to them – to the community – has been found. (N.B. Women were also shepherds!)

Look at this woman! The lost coin, a denarius, one day's wage, precious – and a great loss to the family (and the community!) She uses equally precious oil to light the darkness so she can broom the dirt floor until she finds the lost. And what does she do? She calls in friends and neighbors – the community – to rejoice with her, for what was lost has been found.

And this father! He is apparently rich, and as an estate owner, certainly a dignified member of the community. He is full, not only with abundant material goods but with abundant love. The youngest son asks for his patrimony which normally is inherited only upon death! What a request, what an insult, but the father, incredibly, gives it. And then he keeps watch, faithfully. When the son returns, and is barely discernible, this dignified, older man, this community leader, filled with compassion, sheds his dignity and runs out to embrace him, cutting off the boy's self-accusation of being unworthy to be called a son, and with no questions, gives back to him full status as a son. Put on him the finest robe – on him who is unclean from taking care of pigs; on his finger put a ring (the sign of property ownership) – on him who squandered away family property to the gentiles; on his feet put on shoes – the sign of a free man – on him who threw away his very identity. He is not to be treated like a hired hand! And then, kill the fatted calf, and let us all celebrate, with music and dancing. Who are to rejoice and celebrate? All! A fatted calf will feed many. [H]e was lost and is found!

But the father is still not satisfied. The older son, who is self-alienated,[i] continues to hold himself outside the family. Angry and resentful, he judges his father and contrasts himself as obedient and good, as opposed to the wastrel (the story does not say that he made any attempt to do his duty as elder son to act as reconciler between his rash brother and his affronted father.) He refuses to enter the celebration, thereby also dishonoring his father and insulting his brother. The father, ever loving and ever compassionate, goes out to get him, to plead with him, to invite him in. Again brushing aside protestation, he says, son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours – you have the fullness of my abundance; everything I have is yours; you're not missing a thing![ii] But come in and celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life, he was lost and has been found. What do these lost four do in order to be found? Essentially, nothing; they just accept that which is given. The sheep just gets lost and stays there. The coin simply rolls somewhere. The younger son is motivated by the dire situation to seek relief, to become clean, and to be eat again; he returns but not as a son seeking to be reinstated. And the older son struggles to hold himself outside. Ah, but the relentless lover-God, ever faithful, seeks them out – the inanimate, the animal, and the humans, each one, and brings them home – and then, rejoices!

I will rise and go to my father. (Psalm response today)
"Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home."

To paraphrase our culture: It's the grace, stupid.

So what? How goes it with us today? Do we continue to insist that we are not worthy when the God of boundless mercy and compassion pursues us as beloved sons and daughters?

Are there any of our relationships that we might look at with fresh eyes – with the eyes of the God whom Luke describes here? [Don't forget to invite me to the party!]

[i] He is also alienated from the extended family and the village; after all, he was given his share of the inheritance as well!

[ii] Since he was apportioned his 1/3 share of the property, his father very literally means, you are always with me, all that is mine is yours.

Visitation of the Sick: If you or a family member are in a local hospital or are homebound, and would like a visit from a minister of care or a priest, please call Mary Hoffing at 847.382.2148.

We believe that the celebration of the sacraments ranks among the most important gifts that we have. We look forward to sharing these celebrations with those who, in some way, are part of our community. Therefore, please note the following:

Baptism: Our Baptismal ministry is pleased to help your family prepare for the special event of your child's entrance into our faith community. For those parents who are baptizing their first child, please allow 2 to 3 months in order to attend 2 required Baptism sessions before setting the Baptism date. For a subsequent child's baptism, an interview session must be scheduled prior to setting the date. All schedules are done in the parish office. Please call 847.382.5300.

Marriage: If you are planning to be married at St. Anne, your preparation process should begin seven months to one year prior to your wedding date. Please call the parish office to secure a date as soon as possible. Membership at St. Anne is not a requirement. We look forward to helping you during this time of engagement and preparation for the vocation of Christian marriage.
