VOL. 23, NO. 39.

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1907

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

TEN O'CLOCK CLOSING

George W. Foreman Charged

With Violating Village

Ordinance.

George W. Foreman, charged with allowing his saloon to remain open after ten o'clock, Saturday evening, November 9, 1907, in violation of a village ordinance, was tried before Police Magistrate Ernest C. Lines, Tuesday. It took all the afternoon to select five jurors, who by agreement were accepted to decide the case.

The suit was brought by H. G. Aurd, and a representative of the Law and Order League and was represented by Attorney M. W. Mattison; Attorney Claire Edwards of Waukegan represented the defendant.

The jury selected were: George Knapp, Robert Bennett, Samuel Landwer, Will Rieke and J. Hettiger. In the witness call by the prosecution were: H. G. Aurd, George Stiefenhofer, H. J. Lagenschulte, J. M. Topping and F. J. Alverson. They testified that they had been in Chicago on the evening in question and returned home on the train arriving here about 11:30 p. m. Aurd said that he looked through the window and saw upon on and that there were four or five persons in the room including a minor.

G. Stiefenhofer testified that his attention was attracted to the place on account of its being lighted. When asked by Attorney Mattison what he then did, he said, "I made a bee-line for Foreman's," much to the amusement of a large audience which had gathered to hear the testimony. His evidence and that of H. J. Lagenschulte was practically the same as Mr. Aurd's.

F. J. Alverson said he was walking by the place about 11:35 p. m. and saw people going in and out.

Night Watchman Topping said that he noticed Foreman's saloon, apparently open after ten o'clock and that he stepped into the place and was advised that permission had been given by the mayor and license committee to remain open until twelve o'clock that evening. He said he did not say anything more attention to it, thinking he had that right.

Attorney Edwards moved to take the case from the jury, claiming that they had not made a case. Attorney Mattison objected and Magistrate Lines would not rule upon the objection, saying that justices are not supposed to know anything.

The attorneys then proceeded with their arguments and the case was given to the jury. The jury would not return a verdict until their foreman was paid and a collection was taken among members of the Law and Order League to produce the necessary two dollars and fifty cents, which was successful.

The jury found the defendant guilty and fixed the fine at ten dollars and costs. It is said an appeal will be taken.

Two Couples Married.

Miss Martha Wendt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wendt, and Charles Jahnke, jr., were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, three miles south of this village, last evening at eight o'clock. Rev. G. H. Stanger of St. Paul's church performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate friends and relatives. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served.

The marriage is announced this week of Miss Elizabeth Geddis, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Geddis, who live northwest of town, to Richard Wierzbicki who lived northeast of town. The wedding took place early in the summer. The couple have gone to Chicago to live.

FORMER RESIDENT DEAD.

William Dunham Church Died

Tuesday at His Home in Hebron, Nebraska.

Mrs. Catherine K. Church, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Benton, on Grove avenue, received word of the sudden death from stomach trouble of her son, William Dunham Church, of Hebron, Nebraska, formerly of this place, who died Tuesday, December tenth; although Mr. Church went west nearly thirty years ago, he is well-known by the older residents of Barrington. On December 24th, he would have been six or three years old. William Church was born on the old Church farm near Barrington Center, December 24th, 1844, the son of Miles and Catharine Church. His boyhood was passed in the country and in attendance at the school at the Center. When a young man he married Miss Sarah Kingsley, a daughter of the late Shubel Kingsley and sister of Mrs. H. Powers and Mrs. Addie Lines. After a short residence in this village they moved to Chester, Nebraska, where Mr. Church became a very prominent man in business, social and political affairs.

In Chester, he engaged in a lumber and coal business and twenty-seven years ago, erected the first frame building in town. Later, when they moved to Hebron, Thayer county, Mr. Church held minor city offices and was mayor for two terms, one term being in late years. During his first term, he was active in the erecting of the fine court house now standing in Hebron. He was a Mason of high degree and a member of the G. A. R. In the Civil War he was in Company E, 113th Illinois.

Mrs. Church and sons, Frank and Henry survive and Mrs. Sarah Benton of Barrington, Mrs. George Benton of Belvidere, Neb., and Mrs. Jennie Davis of Hebron, sisters and Delos Church of Barrington, Charles of Rogers, Kansas, and George of South City, Kansas, brothers.

The funeral was held to day in Hebron with burial in Chester.

Annual Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

You are cordially invited to attend the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday, December 16th. The afternoon meeting will be held at the M. E. church at two thirty and the evening meeting at the Salem Evangelical church at seven thirty. Prominent speakers and singers will conduct the meeting in the afternoon and in the evening the meeting will be addressed by Mr. L. A. Bowman, a man of eighteen years experience in Y. M. C. A. work in Illinois and a practical man who will interest you. Rev. B. B. Schutte, presiding elder of the Zion Evangelical association will speak.

Boys' Corn Growing Contest.

This contest is open to any boy in Cook county who has raised corn, from seed furnished by the Farmers' Institute, through its president, Peter Beyer, or from seed selected from corn furnished by the Institute at previous seasons. An exhibition shall consist of ten ears, and must be sent to Prouty & Jencks, Barrington, express prepaid, not later than December 16th. Corn receiving prizes will become the property of the Institute and sold to the highest bidder. Each contestant must send to Pres. Peter Beyer, Arlington Heights, not later than December 16th an essay telling how the corn was raised. The first prize is a trip to the Short-Corn Course, at Urbana, to be held in January. Other prizes of cash or equivalent value ranging from five to one dollar will be given. County Superintendent A. F. Nightengale requests that country teachers interest themselves in this matter.

This notice is issued by the authority of the officers of the Cook County Farmers' Institute.

Bridge Completed.

The commissioners of highways of Barrington to Hebron have just completed a piece of work of which they may well feel proud. They have caused to be built a permanent concrete bridge, one mile west of this village, on the county line road at a cost of $775, one half of which expense will be borne by the county commissioners of Cook county. The Joliet Bridge and Iron Company did the work.
