WAR ON CONSUMPTION

State Board of Health Issues a Valuable Circular on Disease.

Its Cause and Prevention—Over 7,000 Deaths from Consumption in this State in the Year 1903.

The secretary of the state board of health, Dr. J. A. Egan is now busily engaged in the preparation of the second edition of a circular on "The Cause and Prevention of Consumption" the first edition of which, amounting to 10,000 copies, was issued little over two weeks ago. This second edition, thoroughly edited and revised will be out in a few days, but in the meantime the most remarkable accumulation of applications for these publications is piling up in the office of the board. The circular was written for the layman, not for the medical man and was designed as a plain and practical talk to the consumer on how he may regain his health and prevent contracting the disease to others; to the healthful man or how he may avoid the disease himself and how he may appreciate the physical conditions which indicate the threatened invasion of the disease; to the members of families of consumptives, advising them as how they may properly care for consumptives with little danger to themselves and how they may safely live in houses in which consumptives have lived or died.

No better excuse for this circular need be given than the statement that in 1903 over 7,000 people died from this disease in Illinois, more than from typhoid fever, diphtheria, scarlet fever, all forms of bronchitis, influenza, whooping cough, measles and small-pox combined, and that of all these deaths consumption is the one great enemy of man in his prime of life, killing, without respect to manner of life or social conditions, as the age when man is of the most value to his family and to the state. Of the 7,000 dead from consumption in 1903 in Illinois, 4,500 died between the ages of 20 and 50.

A state hospital for consumptives is strongly urged by the state board of health and the circular states that powerful influence and support for a bill leading to the establishment of such an institution is already secured. The new edition of the circular will be ready in a few days and copies free to all who apply for them.

Did's Stay Long.

A traveling photographer advertising as "The Oaks Art Co." distributed circulars about the village last Thursday. The circulars were "good for $1 toward the payment on a dozen of cabinet photos worth $1.50" if presented Saturday and Sunday.

A number of our people who were of an economical turn of mind visited the studio of the philanthropist Saturday and Sunday. They paid 50c and deposited the coupon circular.

They were to call for their finished likenesses Monday. They did. The "studio" was empty.

FORGOT THE CHILD.

Barrington Man Leaves His 11-Year Old Daughter in Nanda Depot.

It is nothing unusual for travelers to forget their baggage and leave it at some station, afterward telegraphing for it to be forwarded. But the limit is reached when a man becomes so heedless as to forget his own daughter. This happened at the depot in Nanda the other day.

Fred Wiseman of this village visited there accompanied by his youngest daughter. He boarded the train for home, never remembering for an instant that his daughter, aged eleven years, was left behind. The station agent found the forsaken miss and after much questioning and some telegraph communication received instructions to forward the little lady to Barrington by next train.

Suicide Prevented.

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A new chemical system, dependency in variously prepared acids and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self destruction take Electric Bitters. It brings great relief and builds up the system. It's also a great Stomach, Liver and Kidney regulator. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by G. C. Roberts & Co. Druggists.

Union picnic Aug. 17th.

Dangerous Sidewalks.

Although notice after notice has been served by the village clerk, authorized by the board of trustees, on property owners whose sidewalks are in a dangerous condition, but little attention has been paid to said notices.

It seems that the property owners ought to realize that he is liable for damages by leaving walks in such a condition; and it also seems that the property owner should care to add to the appearance of his holdings by keeping the walks in a condition for travel.

It is not unlikely that the village board may do here as has been done in other villages, pass an iron clad sidewalk ordinance, cement or asphalt, requiring the property owner to pay two-thirds the cost, the village paying the other third. Such an ordinance will serve to give this village good walks.

Political Paragraphs.

The republicans and democrats have decided to establish branch headquarters in Chicago. The managers promise "a sane campaign."

The Wauegan Gazette is of the opinion that but small opposition will develop against the officers asking for re-nomination by the republicans of Lake county.

Hon Frank O. Lowden will tour the state in interest of Charles S. Deneen, republican nominee for governor. It seems to be the consensus of opinion that Mr. Deneen don't need any help in his campaign.

Wm. P. Scott, nominee for president of the United States on the National Liberty party ticket was jailed at St. Louis last week. Mr. Scott can not be expected to run very fast if they keep him locked up.

The campaign can be said to be underway. Reports are coming in fast. The metropolitan papers are printing dispatches relating how Josephus Juniper the great democratic leader of Quenten's Corners will not support Parker and how Waback Commission by the republicans, the republican wheel horse has bolted the nomination of Roosevelt.

Editor Hall of the Elgin Courier, talks like a man who had interviewed Judge Parker and found out just what that gentleman proposes to do in case he is elected. The Courier outlines the policy of the democratic nominee. No other person or journal seems to know anything about it. The Courier scores a scoop if it is correct.

LAWN FETE A SUCCESS

Ladies of St. Ann's Church Entertain Large Crowd at Social.

Affair Pronounced Most Enjoyable of the Season—Many Novel Attractions—Girls Band.

The weather was just the kind the committee of arrangements had ordered; the lawn was a scene of beauty—decorated as it was with many odd shaped Japanese lanterns, tricolor bunting and flags in profusion; tables with snowy coverings and huge bouquets of midsummer's floral offerings made an attractive picture. The occasion was the annual social given by the ladies of St. Ann's Catholic church.

At 7:30 there was an exodus of people wending their way to the Lamer homestead where a berry of handsome young ladies awaited ready to entertain in a royal manner. Not only was there refreshments usually found at socials but novel attractions which did not fail to interest both old and young.

The girls' band rendered choice selections and a Barker told how the seventh daughter of a seventh widow would tell your fortune for one dime. A postoffice where lovers could procure a love story to their liking for 10 cents was crowded by anxious ones during the evening.

Ice cream, cake, coffee and doughnuts to be secured in quantities to suit.

The Gypsy fortune teller, Madame Sara from Romania, received in a tent and her patronage was large. Young men and women entered the tent to learn of the outcome of their love affairs. Some of them emerged their faces wreathed in smiles. Others were pronounced in their opinion of fortune tellers. The married folks were told of many startling things.

There was fun at the postoffice. Old bachelors called for and received interest which caused their hearts to beat like a trip hammer. Old maids were as usual, left out of the distribution of mail.

The affair deserved the large patronage accorded and was enjoyable in every particular and successful in a financial way.

THE BACHELOR SET.

Barrington Eligibles Have Well-Defined Opinions of Matrimony.

I am convinced that time and tide wait for no man; woman, however, is hopeful to the last.—Alderman Donlin.

It may be true, as has been said, "all marriages are made in heaven," but if so a lot of them got badly twisted by force reaching earth. Matrimony requires careful consideration.—Glenn H. Hawley.

The man who invented the hammock adapted to "two souls with but a single thought; two hearts that beat as one" proved himself a bachelor's benefactor.—Morris Regan.

A good idea of a married woman is a female at the head of the stairs with a club in her hand at 2 o'clock in the morning.—John Donlin.

We often hear of mother tongue, but not a thing is heard about the father tongue because he can't get in a word.—Thomas Creek.

Leap year is half gone, and still there are lots of nice intelligent girls well-qualified to manage a cottage who seem mighty backward in saying anything about matrimony loud enough to be heard.—Chas. Jalnke.

Some of the married women in this village who claim to have found their affinity don't look as though they were very proud of the discovery.—Larry Donlin.

There is so much similarity about the fair sex that it's hard to choose. The worship of 'em requires a great many human sacrifices.—Carl Ernst.

From observation I believe it would evidently be a greater pleasure to die for some woman than to live with them.—Ed Wichner.

To marry or not to marry, that's the question. Whether 't's better to remain in single blessedness and suffer the uncertainty, or to take up domestic life is a question not easily determined, but 't's a consummation devoutly to be wished.—Will Cannon.

It's a good plan when you are undecided about an important question like jumping into matrimony to stop and consider. 'Twasstopping that convinced me that there might be lots of happiness in married life.—Geo. Otis.

Stop Kicking and Help Push.

There is a disposition on the part of a certain element in this community to oppose every more directed for the welfare of the village. The contingent delights in belittling the actions of each and every public official and criticizes the manner in which improvements are outlined or completed. If the street committee does not order certain streets graveled there is a wall from the dissatisfied ones; if the committee improves the street there is a howl about extravagance. Anything to find an excuse for kicking.

We once read a splendid thought evolved by some broad-gauge philosopher which might work advantageously to the kickers and village as well: "When you are sorely tempted to throw a stone in the direction of a new project tending to the development and upbuilding of the village, look around and see if it would be possible to secure a bouquet as a substitute. The change might not be so gratifying for the time being but it would in the end, be more beneficial to you."

McHenry County Fair.

The first annual exhibition of the McHenry Agricultural society will be held at Woodstock, August 22-26. An excellent program of amusements and attractions has been arranged which cannot fail to prove of interest to all who patronize the fair. A large list of new features will be competitive township exhibits of agricultural products. The premium list is a large one and liberal in all departments, which will no doubt attract a fine and varied display.

WAUCONDA MENTION.

Succinctly Told by Our Regular Correspondent.

H. T. Graham Sundayed at Barrington.

The latest reports have Mr. Oaks slightly improved.

Mr. Todd of Dundee, spent Sunday with Miss Lilah Golding.

The circus at Elgin last week attracted a number of Wauconda people.

Mr. Hanson of Chicago spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Elms Graham.

Our people are going around quite merrily this week at the public square.

The St. George Choir, of Chicago will come for ten days out at Camp Thomas this month.

Is there any significance attached to a visit to our village from A. C. Frost? If so, Hoory for us.

The Junior aggregation of Wauconda ball tossers proceeded to do things to that department of the Y. M. C. A. Camp Monday and were victorious by a score of 23 to 13.

Word comes from Barrington that L. A. Jones, who took Mr. Robert's place in our Drug store while the latter was on his trip, has purchased Gen. C. Roberts & Co. store at that place. Mr. Jones is a thorough business man and his many friends wish him success which they feel sure he will achieve.

Mr. and Mrs. Calahan and children, Mr. and Mrs. Theilan and children, Mrs. Walsh and little daughter, and Miss Moore are being entertained at Camp Thomas. The two gentlemen are in the employ of the Chicago Post-office. It is also interesting to note that the gentlemen were formerly Wauconda residents.

Fire was discovered in the beautiful residence of Miss Mary Glynn Monday afternoon. The alarm was rung and in a very few minutes our fire company had two lines of hose throwing water into the room. So quickly was it accomplished that the fire was put out before it was fairly started. Considerable damage was done, mostly by water, but was fully covered by insurance.

Our community was shocked Monday evening to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Wm. Brooks at the age of about 74 years, heart trouble being the cause of her death. The funeral was held Wednesday from the M. E. church, Rev. Pierce officiating, and interment was made in the Wauconda cemetery beside the remains of her husband who preceded her to the better land about a year ago. Mrs. Brooks was generally in good health and her death comes as a sad surprise to her relatives and friends, by whom she will be greatly missed.

Why not put some of these people that get too much fire water in them to work on the streets. It would be a good way for them to work off their enthusiasm and save the village a little in the bargain.

Miss Mae Sefton entertained the young ladies who camped at Lake Zurich a few weeks ago and young men who camped there at the same time, at her home north of this village last Sunday. The spacious lawn was the scene of much enjoyment, and the recounting of camp incidents and scenes were heartily enjoyed.

The finance committee was instructed to receive bids and dispose of bonds for payment of construction of such work. Ordinance No. 192, being the assessment levy ordinance, amounting to $3,300 was passed.

Not All Poor Children.

Complaint has been made that some of the children sent out from Chicago by the Fresh Air organization are not from homes where poverty and want is found. One little fellow told the lady who had "opened her heart and home to the poor, distressed, unfed little ones" that his papa and mamma had gone to visit his aunt and didn't want to be bothered with a kid.

Elgin papers state that many of the children sent into that vicinity are from the homes of well-to-do people. Many of the children refuse to eat some of the foods put before them, stating that it was too common. One boy asked why the family he was stopping with did not keep maids as his parents did at home.

Village Board Proceedings.

This board of trustees of the village of Barrington met in a regular session Monday evening, President Lally presiding.

Bills for the month of July, amounting to $1,238.45, were presented and ordered paid.

Board adjourned to meet Aug. 15, at 8 o'clock p. m.

Will Abate a Nuisance.

A section of drain leading from Chestnut street to Washington has been left in an exposed condition for years. Residents in that vicinity complained vigorously to the board of trustees and the matter is now being taken care of. There is about 205 feet of 12 inch glazed tile to be put in to complete the connection from the north side of Chestnut to the catch basin on Franklin street from whence a main sewer runs to the big outlet on Washington street.

The tile is now being placed on the ground and will be put in at once.

Salem Church Notes.

The general repairs made in decorating the walls and carpeting the floor of the Salem church do not reach the sum of $4,500 as reported last week. About $600 had been expended.

On Sunday the Salem church will be reopened, which will no doubt be a great pleasure to the membership.

The evening services on Sunday evening will be held in the English language. Special staging accompanied by a number of musical instruments will be part of the program.

It is the purpose of Rev. A. H. Hefele the pastor to have regular choir meeting hereafter. With the large number of voices and musical talent we should have the best choir in Barrington.
