CHARLES S. DEWEEN.

In no other state did a nomination for governor elicit so much favorable comment throughout the country as did that of Charles S. Deween...

enable, and that his administration of the affairs of his office has been characterized by that courtesy and fairness which elicits affection as well as commands respect.

Mr. Rose is a native of this state, of Cook extraction, born in Ipeo county in 1850. Beginning as a teacher, he so won his way into public confidence that at the early age of 25 years he was elected county superintendent of schools.

As trustee of the Pontiac reformatory and later as commissioner of the Chester penitentiary he devoted time and energy to the betterment of those important institutions.

LYN SMALL.

Lyn Small, the Republican nominee for state treasurer, is admirably fitted by character and training to perform the duties pertaining to that office.

Oliver Wendell Holmes sagely observed that a man's education should begin with his grandfather.

As a true citizen, Mr. Deween early began to take part in politics. Notwithstanding the Democratic landslide, in which other men on his ticket were overwhelmed, he was elected in 1892 to the lower house of the general assembly.

Mr. Deween is a graduate and a trustee. He was born May 4, 1865, at Edwardsville. Having obtained an education in the public schools and studied law. In 1885 he became a clerk in a Chicago law office, and to help support himself he taught for several years in the night schools of the city.

JAMES S. McCULLOUGH.

In his eight years of his service as auditor of public accounts, Hon. James S. McCullough has brought the workings of his office to a degree of excellence probably never before attained in any department of the state government.

Mr. McCullough has a war record that endears him to every patriot in the state of Illinois. In 1862, at the age of 19 years, he enlisted as a private in Company G, Seventy-sixth Illinois volunteer Infantry.

In the assault on Fort Blakely, near Mobile, April 9, 1865, one of the last desperate struggles of the war was one of the eighty-one wounded, which, with seventeen killed, comprised the casualties of the Seventy-sixth Illinois.

Scott's Emulsion is the means of life and of the enjoyment of life of thousands of men, women and children.

To the men Scott's Emulsion gives the flesh and strength so necessary for the cure of consumption and the repairing of body losses from any wasting disease.

For women Scott's Emulsion does this and more. It is a most sustaining food and tonic for the special trials that women have to bear.

To children Scott's Emulsion gives food and strength for growth of flesh and bone and blood. For pale girls, for thin and sickly boys Scott's Emulsion is a great help.
