Not Worth While.
When the night was a bright, it was not so bright as it was when it was a bright. When the night was a bright, it was not so bright as it was when it was a bright. When the night was a bright, it was not so bright as it was when it was a bright.

It has been most truly said by a noted writer and club woman that "there is but one aristocracy. It is that of intellect. There is probably not an organization in the country which more fully represents such an aristocracy than does the General Federation of Woman's Clubs."

John Hodek, a Bohemian, aged 68 years, died Sunday evening at the home of Chris Schumacher at Cuba milk station, of kidney trouble. He had been employed as a farm laborer in that vicinity for some time. His remains were removed to Barrington Monday and buried took place Wednesday in Evergreen cemetery.

A certain gentleman started out last Friday afternoon to use his expression "loss the Plague-Power-Boomer-Busse combination so high it would never come down again in Barrington township politics." The tossin' act rebounded and like "Maude" kicked the stuffin' out of the weak opposition.

No Hope of Rescue
Bound hand and foot and gagged, the maiden was put in a gunnysack, and, unable to move or scream, felt herself being carried down a flight of stairs, put into a buggy and then driven down the street. Ineffectually she tried to release herself from the gag. "Alas!" she was bound too securely. Finally the conveyance stopped. She was again carried into a building, fainting and gasping for breath; the sack was taken from her head. The villain, still masked, took the gag from her mouth, his eyes gleaming like coals of fire through his black mask, released her and hissed through his tightly clenched teeth: "There my pretty bird, you may scream and yell as loud as you like, no human ear will ever hear you. You are in my power. Do you hear? Totally within my power." "Where am I?" she gasped. "In a store that never advertises. Was the crucial response. "Alas! Alas!" she moaned. No power on earth can save me; no one will look for me here," and the poor girl fainted. Battle Creek (N. Y.) Herald.

Thursday Club
The Thursday club met this week at the home of Mrs. John Robertson on Main St. The occasion was unusually pleasant, it being the 60th birthday of the hostess. Many beautiful gifts were presented by the club and other friends in honor of the day.
A large company was present, and after quotations and readings from the Bay View Magazine, a musical and literary program was rendered by several members. At 5:30 an elaborate course luncheon was served by the hostess. The meeting will be remembered as one of the most pleasant of the year.

Incredible Brutality
It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son, "My son," he says, "out a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied the 'Armed' which quickly healed it and saved his eye. Good for druggists and others, too. Only 25c at Barrington Pharmacy."

Reciprocity Recitals
The reciprocity recitals in the Sears school, under the direction of Mae Lane Spitzer, begins March 24, and continues for four weeks. They are to be held in Barrington, Arlington Heights, Palatine and Crystal Lake and will be both private and public.

Among those who have received an average of 50 per cent, for daily work and who will give individual recitals are Lenora and Frances Dolan and Constance Purcell.

For Police Magistrate
The officers of the village of Barrington, I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of police magistrate. If elected the office will be conducted during the same lines as during the past year, in the interest of justice and not in the interests of any set of attorneys or Chicago collection agency.

I respectfully solicit your support for a return to the position.
CHARLES H. MONTGOMERY.

Collector's Books Returned
Although taxes were much higher than in former years the township collectors this year returned a smaller amount delinquent than usual. In Barrington township the delinquent was less than $4,000 as returned by Ernest Hoke, collector.

E. W. Riley, collector of Cuba township, proved an exceptionally good collector. He is one of the best in Lake county, his return of delinquent being smaller than any other in the county in proportion to the amount collected. The total amount charged to him was $12,182.41, all of which was collected except $12,332, of which $12,312 is shown as personal property.

Mr. Riley made his returns to Waukegan Wednesday.

Friday Pleasure Club.
During the past month the Friday Pleasure club has been entertained by Mesdames G. H. Constock, L. A. Powers, E. M. Fletcher and on last Friday evening "gentlemen's night" was held at the home of Mrs. F. O. Willmarth where in honor of the day, St. Patrick's, a "green" evening was observed in various ways. A large number of invited guests were also present. Rhodes served. In the progressive euchre game prizes were awarded as follows: First, Mrs. Carrie A. Kendall and Miss Jennie Fletcher; second, Mrs. E. D. Prouty and F. O. Willmarth; consolation, Mrs. Loretta Powers and Fred Kriehner. The club meets today at the residence of Mrs. C. A. Kendall.

All persons holding village warrants drawn on the treasurer of the village of Barrington are requested to present same for payment at once. No interest will be paid after this date. Dated this 20th day of March 1905.

The Colonel's Waterloo
Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo, from Liver and Kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was nearly dead, of these complaints, and, although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 5c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them. Sold and guaranteed to cure, Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Kidney Disease, by Barrington Pharmacy at 50c a bottle."

An Explanation and Correction
To the Editor:
A short time ago the Review was made to say some things in regard to my being "Restored to Health," that I do not agree with. While a few of the statements were true many were exaggerated to such a degree that the reader could not interpret them quite different from the rest truth.
The "local physicians and Chicago specialists" who attended me during my illness were Dr. Weichert and Dr. Dubs. They did not say positively that I had consumption, though I was threatened with it. Doubtless without the surgical and medical treatment and further advice of physicians I might have become a victim of that disease. It was they who advised me to sleep in the tent, I would never have thought of doing so.
I commenced this open air treatment the middle of August, and at that time weighed 145 pounds. The least I weighed was probably 85 or 100 pounds. There were several nights so stormy that I was obliged to remain in doors. I expect to continue this treatment for some time and hope to fully recover my health.
I do not wish to offend any one by contradicting what has been written regarding this matter, but I desire to have this published in the Review.
ANNA WOLFFHAGEN.

For Police Magistrate
I wish to announce myself as a candidate for the office of Police Magistrate set out to the village council.

READ THIS.
Clayton, Ill., Aug. 23, 1901.—This is to certify that I have been cured of kidney and bladder trouble. Less than one bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, did the work. I also know of a boy 12 years old, who was cured of bed wetting by the use of it. I can fully recommend it to the public.
I. M. BROWN.

A New York woman told her friends that it was "great fun" to be in a run away dog cart. This woman said she had seen a country road, with no spectators and no stalwart policemen to make a theatrical rescue, there would probably be another story to tell.
