

Ambassador to Investigate.
Baron Des Plances, Italian ambassador to this country, will visit Cleveland to investigate the conditions in the city. He has given considerable study to the problem of improving conditions for the poor, especially in New York city, and he believes that the deplorable conditions there can be relieved in great measure by colonization in the south and southwest.

ITS MERIT IS PROVED

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

A prominent Cleveland woman tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured her.

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of the most prominent scientists, and thinking people generally.

Mrs. Sara Wilson

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvelous results among sick and ailing women.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—About nine months ago I was a great sufferer with womb trouble, which caused me severe pain, extreme nervousness and frequent headaches, from which the doctor failed to relieve me. I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and within a short time I felt better, and after taking five bottles of it I was entirely cured. I therefore heartily recommend your Compound as a splendid uterine tonic. It makes the monthly periods regular and without pain, and what a blessing it is to find such a remedy after so many months fail to help you. I am pleased to recommend it to all suffering women.

If you have expressed or painful menstruation, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, hemorrhoids, flooding, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "dot-and-dash" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, some derangement of the uterus or ovarian troubles, and in such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

MRS. CHADWICK IS SENTENCED

Cleveland Court Imposes Term of Ten Years in the Penitentiary.

COUNSEL DEMURS TO ACTION

Attorneys, Claiming Judge Erred in Fixing Separate Penalty for Each Count in the Indictment, Will Pray an Appeal.

Cleveland dispatch: Ten years in the penitentiary is the sentence imposed upon Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, good behavior on the part of the prisoner this time being reduced to eight years and four months.

Mrs. Chadwick was not particularly affected by the action of the court, as seemingly she had resigned herself to any sentence that might be passed. She merely nodded her head and looked about the court room calmly. She declined to make any statement when asked by the court if she wished to say anything in her own behalf.

When sent immediately after sentence had been pronounced, Mrs. Chadwick replied to a question: "What more do I care for the world want to know about me now?"

Defense Takes Exception.
The proceedings before Judge Robert W. Taylor finally closed the Chadwick case as far as the Cleveland court is concerned, unless the unexpected happens and a higher tribunal orders a new trial.

Mrs. Chadwick was convicted on seven counts and sentenced upon six counts. On four of these counts a sentence of two years each was imposed. On two counts a sentence of one year each was imposed, making a total sentence of ten years.

The defense will make the claim that the court cannot impose a separate sentence for each count, that the application to the court for a change of each indictment of a general charge. The several counts of the indictment are considered by the defense to refer only to details of the general offense.

The first step taken by the defense will be to ask for a stay of sentence until an appeal is tried out. Pending this question will not be expected to be taken up to the highest court.

Other Cases Await Outcome.
No action will be taken by United States Attorney Sullivan regarding the other six indictments against Mrs. Chadwick in the federal court until the present case is finally disposed of. If the present sentence is sustained by the last court the other counts will be dropped, otherwise they will be used against the woman.

The operations of Mrs. Chadwick, for which she now faces a prison term, form a unique chapter in American history. Starting with nothing but an adamant nerve and a knowledge of banking methods and of human nature that she turned to her brother, she built out a cumulative system of borrowing that made some of the keenest bankers in the country her creditors and gave her the handling of each to the amount of several million of dollars.

Victim of Money Lenders.
The only security for these loans were her personal notes and fictitious paper bearing the name of "Andrew Carnegie" of over the extent of which the money lenders were informed in only a mysterious hazy manner. She paid premiums and bonuses of several hundred thousand dollars to those from whom she borrowed, and by her own statement owes today $250,000.

Mrs. Chadwick was indicted for conspiracy with C. T. Haver, president and A. B. Spear, cashier, of the Citizens' National Bank of Oberlin, to certify checks when she had no money in the bank, and on this charge she was convicted.

AMERICAN WHISKY IN MEXICO

Beverage Becoming Popular With Our Southern Neighbors.
M. Schick, who is at present in the city in the interest of a firm of distillers and exporters of whisky, enjoys the distinction of being a pioneer in the introduction of American whisky into the republic. He first visited the country twelve years ago.

"When I made my first trip to Mexico in the interest of an American whisky house," said Mr. Schick, "there was very little whisky of any kind drunk in the republic, and none whatever of American manufacture. Since that first trip I have made numerous visits to Mexico, and during each successive one I have seen the consumption of American whisky grow and other kinds of whisky grow considerably."

"The demand for American whisky is constantly growing in Mexico. The American is of course the principal component of the demand, but the Mexicans are beginning to substitute whisky for cognac."

"The greatest competition that the manufacturers of cognac will have to meet will be from American distillers, who are pushing their liquor with much energy in Mexico. They can sell whisky at a lower price in this country and make a larger profit than they can in the United States, owing to the lower duties in Mexico. This is why you can buy the same whisky here for less money than you could purchase it anywhere in the United States, which is a matter that seems sometimes to surprise people."

Treating Wrong Disease.

Many times women call on their family physician, suffering as they are, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their caring and afflicted, or over-joy doctor, symptoms and distinct diseases, which he assumes them to be such, prescribes his pills and poisons. In reality they are all only symptoms caused by some womb disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of their ailment, prescribes his pills and poisons, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their caring and afflicted, or over-joy doctor, symptoms and distinct diseases, which he assumes them to be such, prescribes his pills and poisons.
