Meyers, who lived with his wife and child at 2228 Princeton avenue, was employed by the Pred Meekel wagon works, and was the leader of the men who refused to walk out when a general strike was declared against all members of the Chicago and Wagon Manufacturers' association on April 3.

Confessions of men under arrest show that the executive committee of the union decided to discipline the members who refused to strike, and in order to carry out their determination a verbal contract was entered into between the committee and Charles Gibbooley to pay $15 for each man single. The name of Meyers was given first in the list furnished to Gilbeoley, and on the night of April 13 he was acticated area his home and died from the result of injuries two weeks later.

Seeing California.

The average eastern tourist when visiting California enters the state at Los Angeles, takes a few rides on the various radiating electric lines, huslies onto the train for San Francisco, visits the seals, and hastens north or east affirming that he has 'seen California'—but has he'. True, he has seen the seals, and heather a seal of the seals, and heather a strain of the seals, and heather a strainers to his palate, and breathed the wondrous air, but to see California understandingly one must visit the mountains as well as the valleys. Probably no other sections is richer in seenes noted for their beauty and grandeur, places made lamont in literature than is Tuolumps and the seals of California.—R.
