Are the Packers Receiving Fair Play?
When the Garfield report on the business methods of the packers appeared, after eight moaths' lavestigation, it was severely criticised and roundly denounced. After three months of publicity it is significant that those who attempted to discredit there failed to controver the figures contained in that exhaustire, document. The public is beginning to the public proving that the sensitional charges out of which the "Beef lavestigation" arose were without foundation. If the official statements of the report are susceptible of contradiction, a good many people are now asking why the facts and figures are not furnished to contradict them.

The truth seems to be that most of the charges contain unfounded sensational assertions. A flagrant example of this appeared in a recent article in an Eastern magazine, to the beart of the charges contain unfounded sensational assertions.
