

His Health Was Wrecked
Peruna Gave New Life.

HON. JOHN TIGHE.
Assemblyman Tighe's letter should be read by every brain worker leading a strenuous life.

Hon. John Tighe, No. 24 Remsen St., Cohoes, N. Y., Member of Assembly from the Fourth district, Albany county, N. Y., writes as follows:

"Peruna has my hearty indorsement as a restorative tonic of superior merit. At times when I have been completely broken down from excess of work, so that my faculties seemed actually at a standstill, Peruna has acted as a healing restorer, starting the machinery of mind and body afresh with new life and energy.

"I recommend it to a man tired in mind and body as a tonic superior to anything I know of and well worthy serious consideration."—J. Tighe.

Excess of work so common in our country causes impaired nerves, leading to catarrh and catarrhal nervousness—a disease that is responsible for half of all nervous troubles.

Peruna cures this trouble because it cures catarrh in its various forms.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address: Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

BANKER BEGINS TERM PRISON

Frank G. Bigelow of Milwaukee
Now a Convict in Fort Leavenworth.

PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGES

Judge Joseph V. Quarles Passes
Sentence of Ten Years at Hard Labor in Penitentiary on Self-Confessed Defaulter.

Milwaukee, Wis., dispatch: Ten years imprisonment at hard labor in the penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth was the sentence imposed on Frank G. Bigelow, self-confessed defaulter of the funds of the First National bank, the amount of $1,500,000, who pleaded guilty Saturday on an indictment of the federal grand jury containing ten counts, each a violation of the national bank law. Bigelow was arrested and arraigned before Judge Joseph V. Quarles of the United States district court.

Taken to Leavenworth.
Leavenworth, Kan., dispatch: Frank G. Bigelow is now convict No. 4717 in the Fort Leavenworth penitentiary. The former Milwaukee banker reached here at 7:40 o'clock Sunday night in the company of John Johnson and Charles Kelly, deputy marshals, and was accompanied by Gordon Bigelow, his son, and Dr. Bigelow of Chicago a brother.

Bigelow bore up fairly well during the trip, except at Moline, Ill., where the deputy marshals say he broke down and wept. At another point Gordon broke down, and the marshal informed that he was having a bad effect on his father.

Cheers Counterfeiters.
Bigelow seemed anxious to avoid the gaze of church people and reporters. He wore an old slouch hat, and was clothed in a suit of cheap, shabby material. He was brought with him, in making railroad connections, union deposits were avoided.

On making the turn to the walk on the Riverside drive at Fort Leavenworth, where the military loomed up in front of the party, the counterfeiter showed a disposition to weaken. When he trembled Bigelow spoke words of encouragement to him. Bigelow, it seems was not in jail as any time since his defalcation was discovered, and when the keys were turned on him after passing into the penitentiary he was dressed as at the first time he had ever been in prison.

Begins Term as Convict.
Warden McClaughey remained up stairs in his office. Deputy Lemon was at the second or inner gate and the prisoner was told to step into the deputy's office. Bigelow gave his name as Frank G. Bigelow and age 58. He was searched and some plain jewelry and a small sum of money were taken from him. He was asked no questions, and was assigned to a regular cell to spend the night. Monday morning Bigelow was given a middle grade prison suit, when Burlington measurement and front and side view pictures were taken.

With no allowances for good time, he will be released in six years and four months. It is said his wife will visit him once. The son seemed annoyed and expressed his disgust when some army officers came to the Sally port to get a view of his father.

The brother and son of Bigelow remained down stairs and watched through the grating until they saw him escorted into a cell-house. They then sought an interview with Warden McClaughey and conversed with him privately.

May Be Prison Clerk.
It is said that they requested that Bigelow be assigned to light work. This will be determined until after the prison, when the warden, Bigelow and reports on his condition and Warden McClaughey has a talk with him. There is a demand for prison clerks, and Bigelow may have a position right in hand.

There are five national bank prisoners in the penitentiary, and four of these are clerks, and one answers the telephone in the chief clerk's office. These bankers manifested considerable interest in Bigelow. One of them, Broderick, from Elkhart, Ind., was a member of the National Bankers' association while Bigelow was president.

In only a few instances have there been older prisoners brought here. If his health is not good he may after a few weeks be assigned to Captain Carter's old position of prison hospital clerk. At first he will be thrown in contact with negro, Indian and all kinds of prisoners.

THREE YEARS AFTER.

Eugene E. Lario, of 751 Twentieth avenue ticket seller in the Union Station, Denver, Colo., says: "You are at liberty to repeat what I first stated through our Denver papers about Doan's Kidney Pills in the summer of 1895, for I have had no reason in the interim to change my opinion of the remedy. I was subject to severe attacks of backache, always aggravated if I sat long at a desk. Doan's Kidney Pills absolutely stopped my backache. I have never had a pain of a twinge since."

Victory Owed to Diplomacy.
When Thurlow was lord chancellor of England he was much out of favor with the king. The latter was visited one day by a clergyman who sought appointment to a fat living then vacant. He wanted a letter of recommendation to Lord Thurlow, but the king would not give it. The clergyman said: "I will do more harm than good. Nevertheless he wrote it. When Thurlow read the missive he said: 'Well, as that seconded, the bishop of London, was for the living.' 'So the bishop said, my lord,' was the weak reply. 'Did the bishop say so?' roared Thurlow. 'Then I'll prove him a liar, for you know he is the living.' And he was as good as his word.

AN AWFUL SKIN HUNOR.
Covered Head, Neck and Shoulders—Suffered Agony for Twenty-five Years Until Cured by Cuticura.

"For twenty-five years I suffered agony from a terrible humor, completely covering my head, neck and shoulders, discharging matter of such offensive nature and smell that I became an object of dread. I consulted the most able doctors far and near, to no avail. Then I got Cuticura, and in a surprisingly short time I was completely cured. For this I thank Cuticura, and advise all those suffering from skin humors to get it and end their misery at once. B. F. Kears, 149 Congress Street, Boston, Mass.

English Artist is Cynical.
Harold Speed, the London artist, is pleasantly cynical and witty in speech. One of his sayings is: "No gentleman (in the ordinary acceptance of the word) should be an artist, for either the gentleman or the artist is sure to suffer." Another favorite observation of his: "Look a fool, but don't be one."

Mr. Speed is a bit of a dandy, but everything about him betrays the artistic temperament.

$100 Reward, $100.
The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that the reward of $100, which was offered for the capture of the man who stole the $100,000 from the bank in Chicago, has been paid to the man who captured him. The man who stole the money was named John J. Smith, and the man who captured him was named John J. Smith.

Gorky a Wealthy Man.
So much has been written and said about Maxim Gorky as the "tramp author," the associate and leader of the poor workmen in the streets, that it is surprising to learn that he has made a fortune in the publishing business with four other Russian authors. So successful has this venture been that it is said that Gorky has made more than $250,000 rubles ($125,000 in the business).

Injunction Is Issued.
A stringent injunction has been issued against the malignant activity of drug peddlers, by Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Do not fail to invoke the powerful aid of the great enemy of all stomach and bowel disorder at the least sign of trouble in any of your digestive organs. It will promptly and surely set them right, if you will try it.

Butter Is Now Shipped to England in Large Quantities from the Fertile Plains of Uruguay.
Don't you know that Defiance Starch besides being absolutely superior to any other, is put up in 10 ounce packages and sold at the same price as 25-ounce packages of other kinds?

Contradictory.

Hundreds of dollars say the extra quantity and superior quality of Defiance Starch is fast taking place of all other brands, for there say they cannot sell any other starch.

Many a woman waxes away her matrimonial prospects with salt tears.

Self-Reliance of the Jap.

Whether we look to the dockyards which she has built for the making and repairing of her own fleet, to her strenuous maintenance of her own agriculture, to her self-reliance in the self-reliance of the financial responsibility for her own undertakings, we find revealed the same determination to stand independent and self-contained in every possible sense, comprehensive that it can stoop without loss of dignity to the consideration of the minutest detail and it holds the secret of the great future which awaits her as a competitor with the youngest of the nations.—London Express.

San Francisco's Destiny.

Statisticians of the highest possible authorities are sufficient to establish the claim of San Francisco that it is the financial New York of the Pacific coast. They also point out the fact that the city is the fact that much greater things are in store financially for San Francisco. Many prominent persons in all parts of the world believe that San Francisco is destined to become eventually one of the great money centers of the world. There are sufficient facts to make interesting, and possibly instructive, a consideration of the possibilities connected with this city.

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, but because it never sticks to the iron, but because it is so soft and so white, it will pound—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in 5-pound packages, and the price is the same, 10 cents.

The reason of hot weather is a particularly long time for most every one, trying to get a cool head and a cool body depends in large measure the well-being and good nature of her family. Hot weather health and comfort is discussed, with many practical recommendations, in the book "The Art of the July 'Deflector,'" the paper being a chapter in "The Making of a Housewife."

Queen Holds American Bonds.
Queen Christina of Spain, who inherited an immense private fortune from her uncle, the late Archduke Albert of Austria, has for a number of years held some $5,000,000 worth of United States bonds and retained possession thereof even throughout the war of Spain with this country. They are deposited, with the remainder of her holdings of one kind or another, in the Bank of England.

Dickens Books Sell Well.
The abiding popularity of Dickens is attested by the fact that more than 200,000 copies of his various books were sold in England alone during December last.

If you don't get the biggest and best it's yours. Defiance Starch is for sale everywhere and there is positively nothing to equal it in quality or quantity.

But few women would enjoy going anywhere if it wasn't for the pleasure it affords them to talk about it after they return home.

Storekeepers report that the extraordinary popularity of the superior quality of Defiance Starch makes it next to impossible to sell any other brand.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:
"I have been a sufferer for the past eight months from the effects of a cold taken from painful menstruation—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and soreness of the throat. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:
"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and replied that you should read this letter and realize what you can do for them.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick (with and Mark Capitol Bureau, Washington, D. C.)

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—"I saved her life."

Mrs. Pinkham has—thousands of such letters from the above, and offers willing women helpful advice.

Let Common Sense Decide
Do you honestly believe, that coffee sold germs (in bulk), exposed to dust, germs and insects, passing through many hands (some of them not very clean), "blended," you don't know how or by whom, is fit for your use? Of course you don't. But is another story. The green berries, selected by keen judges at the plantation, are skillfully roasted at our factories, where precautions you would not dream of are taken to secure a pure, clean, clean-tasting flavor, strength and uniformity.

From the time the coffee leaves the factory you are protected as it is in your kitchen.
This has made LION COFFEE the LEADER of ALL PACKAGE COFFEES.

Millions of American homes welcome LION COFFEE daily. There is no stronger proof of merit than this continued and increasing popularity. "Quality survives all opposition."
(Sold only in 1 lb. packages. Lion-Beans on every package.)
