The Pace of the Present.

Author—FRANK H. WELCH, JR. W. Adams St. Chicago, Ill. In this day the common notion As regarding locomotion Seems to be that transportation should be electric and thrill.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Anna Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked.

One of the notable visitors at the Lewis and Clark Exposition is W. R. Shannon, of Fowler, Cal., who is the son of George Shannon, the youngest member of the Lewis and Clark exploring party of a hundred years ago.

Forced to Starve.

R. F. Leck, of Concord, Ky., says: "For 23 years I suffered agonies, with a sore on my upper lip, so painful sometimes that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Bucklen's Arnica Salve."

Mrs. James is an aunt to F. O. Will-

ms. of this village. The funeral will be held at Milwaukee Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

Take Notice.

Whereas information has been conveyed to me anonymously that certain persons in Lake County have threatened to take my life at the first convenient opportunity, I desire to inform these persons that if they will advise me the place and time when they wish to begin operations I will be present and meet them and afford them the opportunity of carrying out what may have been an idle threat instigated by a diseased or drunken brain.

School Census Completed.

Frank L. Waterman completed the school census of District 4 yesterday which shows the population of this village to be 1292. The population of the school district is 1400. This is an increase of 35 over last year.

Osteopathy.

Plans are being formed by several people here to be supported by a number of osteopaths from the city either permanently or for several days in the week. Osteopathy has effected wonderful cures in the past decade and is now an established school of treatment for ailments caused by ill shaped bones.

CAMP MEETING NOTES

Large Attendance And Much Good Spiritual Work Accomplished.

The Campmeeting began June 23rd and closed in the forenoon of July 3. The usual rush of farm work prevented as much as they would have liked.

The weather on the whole was pleasant, excepting a few cool days. The rains did not interfere much with the interests of the meeting.

Chicago congregations sent a large delegation. It is supposed that about 100 persons were present from there on the last Sunday.

About 25 persons came from Highland Park on last Sunday and Elgin, Deerfield and North Northfield were well represented.

The inspiring sermons of Rev. Mr. Berberich of Elgin will be long remembered by all who heard them.

Rev. Wm. Schweiker of Lake Mills, Wis., who in his early days was assistant pastor of this congregation gave an eloquent address taking for his text "If I perish, I perish."

The childrens services in the afternoon were in care of Rev. J. G. Eller of Chicago. In his absence for two days, on account of a funeral, the Rev. J. C. Finkbeiner of Chicago and W. Harts of Northfield did the work very acceptably.

Bishop Wm. F. Heil has succeeded in winning the hearts of his hearers. He has a dear logical way of expressing his thoughts and seeks to make his hearers comprehend the truths. He succeeds admirably in making people think of the truths and the facts be represented rather than the speaker representing them.

The young ladies quartette did credit to themselves in rendering a beautiful gospel song Sunday afternoon.

The financial interests of the campmeeting were easily met by freewill offerings.

One of our citizens, who took a special interest in the meeting, declared it the best campmeeting ever held near Barrington.

The friends of Rev. C. J. Frey were much pleased to note his fluency in and command of the English language since it is less than two years that he has attempted to use the English in public addresses.

It is possible that next year's campmeeting will be in August instead of June. This will be decided later.

The gasoline lamps secured by the Campmeeting Association were a decided improvement on the gasoline torches used heretofore. They were as bright and clear as electric lights.

All our friends from other places were well pleased with the clean and neat appearance of the whole campground. More new cottages are expected to be built by another year.

The large tent did excellent service during the rainy days and cool evenings.

Rev. Lapham and wife attended several of the meetings and expressed themselves much pleased and gratified.

The Rev. Houdenshield, well known to many of our readers as a gospel singer, was present on last Sunday and delighted the audience with a solo afternoon and evening. Not one man in a thousand makes a better appearance than does he.

It was a pleasure to see so many of the Christian people from the other churches on a campground on Sunday. Whenever all can understand the language spoken it might be an excellent time to have a union campmeeting of all the churches in Barrington.

The Rev. A. L. Morse gave a short address on Sunday afternoon on the subject of Temperance.

It is a general verdict that all who attended the campmeeting and participated in the services were well repaid by the spiritual uplift it gave them. Such meetings should make all better men or better women, better parents and children and better citizens and neighbors. It should make all less selfish and more concerned in the welfare of others. If the truths presented will be heeded the above mentioned results will surely follow.

Rev. J. G. Fidler, the presiding Elder of the Chicago District, has proven himself a good manager of the meeting.

This long to be remembered campmeeting came to a close on Monday morning. The rain about nine o'clock prevented many from attending but about 200 may have been present during the last service, nearly all of whom joined the circle formed and shook hands with one another in the farewell parting. After joining in the services for nearly ten days it seemed sad to part. The last dinner was taken at the campmeeting restaurant whereupon a general homegoing took place.

A village bachelor said recently that he had heard the best definition of love, while watching a tennis game on the Olympian club courts. He said he heard the players call "Fifteen-love, forty-love," etc. and not understanding the game asked what it all meant. He was told that the fifteen means fifteen points, and that "love" means "nothing."
