A Bit of Advice.

Keep your troubles to yourself; Put them on an upper shelf, Far away as they may be, Where no eye but God can see. Other people have their share Of affliction, pain and care; Why should you, though sorely tried, Burden them with your woes beside? Daily brooding o'er your grief In no way affords relief, But intensifies the smart, Turns the arrow in the heart. Think of others who have known Greater sorrows than your own, Keeping all their wounds concealed, Heroes on life's battle field; Give of treasures you possess, Loving care and tenderness; Cheerful smiles or sorrowl pite, But keep your troubles to yourself. —Selected—

Forced to Starve.

H. F. Leek, of Concord, Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies, with a sore on my upper lip, so painful sometimes that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Ficklen's Arnica Salve." It's great for burns, cuts and wounds. At Geo. C. Roberts & Co.'s drug store. Only 25c.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Anna Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., and when I got better, although I had one of the best of doctors I could get, I was bent double and had to rest my head on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful. Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at Geo. C. Roberts & Co.'s drug store; price 50 cents.

Explorer's Son at Portland Fair.

One of the notable visitors at the Lewis and Clark Exposition is W. B. Shannon, of Fowler, Cal., who is the son of George Shannon, the youngest member of the Lewis and Clark exploring party of a hundred years ago. George Shannon was known as "the boy Shannon," on account of his youth. His son, the exploring visitor, is now 80 years of age. He remembers hearing his father tell thrilling tales about his experience on the long journey from St. Louis to the mouth of the Columbia, which the Fair at Portland is commemorating.

Osteopathy.

Plans are being formed by several people here to secure the services of an osteopath from the city either permanently or for several days in the week. Osteopathy has effected wonderful cures in the past decade and is now an established school of treatment for ailments caused by ill shaped bones. The word itself is taken from a Latin and Greek word and means "suffering bones." The best physicians endorse osteopathy and often prescribe such treatment instead of drugs. Anyone desiring to join their group who wish to attain a certain number please leave word at the Review office.

Go me Warden George Bingham of Grayslake arrested two men at Fox Lake last Friday for shooting wild ducks. They were Martin Ross of 3735 51st court, Chicago, and Ed Prusmer of 1826 Drake Ave., Chicago. They were taken before Justice Devine at Fox Lake Friday afternoon and remanded to the jail for the night. It appears that shooting wild ducks in that vicinity at this time of year is expensive business.

Miss Miriam Deal, of Leesburg, Ind was the victim of a dastardly assault, while on the lake front near Lake Bluff last Wednesday afternoon. The young lady, who is an invalid staying at the Lake Bluff Rest Home, had taken her sketching materials to the beach and was sitting on the sands making a sketch when the scoundrel struck her a fearful blow, which inflicted a bad wound on her head, and nearly rendered her unconscious. After a stout resistance she escaped. The scoundrel got away.

An exchange says: The business men of Delevan, Wis., are taking a unique way to get even with the mail order houses of Chicago. They paid the drayman $40 a month to get the names of those receiving freight from these mail order houses. When one of these mail orders came into a store to buy anything on credit he was refused, no matter how good his financial standing was. When they had butter and eggs they were told to sell their produce to Montgomery Ward & Co., or Sears, Roebuck & Co. The result was the town was put on a cash basis and the peddlers were forced to quit trading with mail order houses.

Take Notice.

Whereas information has been conveyed to me anonymously that certain persons in Lake County have threatened to take my life at the first convenient opportunity, I desire to inform these persons that if they will advise me at the place and time when they wish to begin operations I will be present and meet them and afford them the opportunity of carrying out what may have been an idle threat instigated by a diseased or drunken brain. Communications on this subject will necessarily be signed by the person desiring to meet me in order that I may tell whom to look for. M. C. MCINTOSH.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris is that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. Meade, of Vanlier, Tenn. "I had a cough for fourteen years. Nothing helped me until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which gave instant relief, and effected a permanent cure." Unequaled quick cure for throat and lung troubles at Geo. C. Roberts & Co.'s drug store; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

John Robertson's Residence Burglarized.

The residence of Mr. Robertson, on West Main street was entered, while the family was absent at Lake Zurich, and the contents searched for wealth—either in the shape of money, jewelry, bonds, or anything else that could be converted into money. Mr. Robertson says they ransacked the house, pulled all the drawers out they could find, and tried to break into the small safe he has at home, but failed.

It must have been the work of amateurs, or else they would have known that Mr. Robertson never leaves any valuables lying around loose.

Employee Given Outing.

The C. P. Hall Co. gave their employees a pleasant outing last Friday evening on the banks of the raging Fox above Carpentersville. The customary semi annual dividend was declared and checks aggregating nearly $400 were distributed among the employees. Supper was served and a pleasant hour enjoyed in spite of the weather man, who sent numerous showers during the outing. Brief remarks were made by C. E. Hall, F. E. Hall and Attorney I. M. Western.

It was four years ago that the C. P. Hall Co. announced the dividend plan, which was entirely original with them, of declaring each six months a dividend to their employees, which should be equal to one per cent of the total six months' sale, and should be distributed in the ratio of the wages paid to each clerk. On the first of each July and January since the announcement such a dividend has been declared and the total amount thus distributed exceeds $3,000. The firm objects to having this regarded in any sense as a gratuity. They declare that their employees are earning both wages and dividends. They believe moreover that the plan has had good results for the firm and they express their belief as planning to continue it.

PASTOR'S COLONY PLAN

Details of Methodist's Co-operative Community Scheme.

NEEDS $50,000,000 IN WALL STREET

Rev. H. S. Wallace, From Portland, Ore., Meets With Some Success In New York's Financial District—He Plans a "Promised Land" In the Heart of the Williamsette Valley.

Wall street is interested in the scheme of a Methodist minister from the west to float $50,000,000 in bonds for the establishment of a great religious community in Oregon to be called the Co-operative Christian federation, says the New York Herald.

Arriving in New York from Portland, Ore., several months ago, the Rev. H. S. Wallace made the rounds of the financial district, explaining the details of the enterprise with such success that the Title Guarantee and Trust Company of New York has consented to become trustee for the $50,000,000 mortgage if Mr. Wallace can interest a sufficient number of wealthy subscribers to purchase the site for the settlement in Oregon.

It is proposed to locate the community in the heart of the Williamsette valley, which, according to the prospectus of Mr. Wallace, has never been invaded by chinch bugs or grasshoppers, whose ravages occur every month of the year and where in January the grass is as green as it is in June in the eastern states.

In speaking of the religious aspect of the Co-operative Christian federation Mr. Wallace said: "The federation is not the church or a church, nor does it claim to speak by the authority of any church. It is an effort to answer the charge made that the church has no salvation or benefits for the life that now is; that she is in an alliance with the rich and offers nothing to the laborer and the poor."

"It is an organized effort to ameliorate present conditions by helping each person to help himself, dividing opportunity, but not property. Our main effort is to readjust the relations of capitalist and labor as to destroy the antagonism now existing by bringing these two forces together in Christian co-operation."

"Inasmuch as stocks are negotiable and as stockholders are enabled to ask courts to appoint receivers and as insubordinate incorrigible and vicious shareholders are empowered to harass organizations with lawsuits, no stock will be issued."

"The only safe plan is to raise the money necessary for selling bonds protected collaterally by property of the federation."

In the statement which he submitted to banking institutions in New York Mr. Wallace has thus provided for the $50,000,000 bond issue:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Railways, 1,500 miles $20,000,000; Homes, 10,000 4,000,000; Lands, 1,000 acres 1,000,000; Total $25,000,000

It is proposed to have 200,000 acres of wheat land, 200,000 acres of alfalfa and 50,000 acres of sugar beets. In addition there will be orchards, grazing and timber lands. The 10,000 modern electric lighted cottages and dwellings will have each from five to ten acres. They will be sold to members at the rate of $2.50 a room a month for eighty months.

According to his calculations, the net profits per annum will be $14,077,500.

Mr. Wallace submitted the plan to Morris K. Jessup and many other prominent men. He says it has the unqualified approval of Dr. J. M. Buckley and Dr. Josiah Strong.

E. O. Stanley, vice president of the Title Guarantee and Trust company, said that Mr. Wallace had asked the trust company to become trustee for the mortgage and that a conditional arrangement had been made to do so, provided Mr. Wallace raised sufficient capital for the enterprise.

Taking Our Meals in Tokyo. We're Russian admirals, yo, yo-ho! Asking for meals in Tokyo. Where the life is high and the meals are...

And there's nothing to do for our board and keep. And I'm feeding our crew. And our officers, too. From the rare, quiet dish of the mikado. So judge for the war. And talk for the stars. While we're taking our meals in Tokyo. There's more to come, for we see full clear. That Japanese is expected here. With Kurapatkin, said and good. To talk of terms, as he said he would. And we're mighty proud. Of our famous crew. Entertained by a generous foe. As we drink the toast. Of the Japanese. While we're taking our meals in Tokyo. St. Petersburg is our home, we know. But our real headquarters is Tokyo. As cruisers, transports, battleships approach. Arrive each day with more Russian troops. We talk no more. Of the horrors of war. Or the blessings of peace to the high and the low. We're satisfied. To let things slide. While we're making our meals in Tokyo. —Wallace Irwin in New York Globe.
