What to Do.
When you're up again it,
An' times are pretty rough,
An' yer close are gettin' ragged,
An' of food there isn't enough,
Don't set down an' grumble,
Growl an' mope an' mumble,
Jest git up an' let 'em know yer comin'!

Life ain't all in eatin',
Et yer close ain't fit fer meetin',
Don't think the Lord's forgotten
where yer live,
Et yer fren's don't know yer face
'Cause ye can't keep up the pace,
Don't set down an' pout,
But thank yer stars yer found 'em out,
Jest git up an' let 'em know yer comin'!

A confirmed bachelor who lives on the south side and who is very popular with the fair sex, was heard to remark in Abbott's the other evening, "An old maid never calls for help when a man attempts to kiss her. It is the man who needs the help." He has learned from practical experience.

George Hodgins, the gentleman who is the double of the Sultan of Turkey and to keep his blood in circulation conducts train No. 523, arriving here at noon, has been presented with a pair of Mexican parrots. George is going to train the birds himself, and as he speaks seven different languages and a vociferous who has enraptured the deities of Mt. Prospect and other metropolitan centers the birds will receive training extraordinary. Ezra Cannon is forming a stock company in anticipation of promoting Hodgins' parrot show.

The experience of those who have published papers for years is that they may print the grandest sermon that ever fell from inspired lips, and not 20 per cent even of the professionally pious will read it. Print a detailed account of some female lunatic game or sensational divorce in high life, or a choice, juicy scandal, and 90 per cent of the very elect will make a dive for the paper before breakfast, swoop down upon it like a negro upon a bowl of crab soup, devour every word, then read their eyes heavenward like a call with the colic and wonder what this wicked world is coming to. The daily papers have got to print sensational news or see their circulation take an astonishing drop. The people like it and lots of it.

Forced to Starve.

B. F. Leek, of Concord, Ky., says:

"For 20 years I suffered agonies, with a sore on my upper lip, so painful sometimes that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Ruckless's Arnica Salve." It's great for burns, cuts and wounds. At Barrington Pharmacy. Only 25c.

The man who invented Duke's Mixture is dead. Many of those who rolled it into cigarettes, beat him to the happy hunting grounds by several years.

An exchange tells of an editor in this state who started about twenty years ago with 15 cents, and who now is worth $100,000. His accumulation of wealth is owing to his sobriety, frugality, strict attention to business, and to the fact that an uncle had died and left him $99,999.85.

There are "knockers" in every village—we have them here. This individual complains that the town is ugly, yet he has an unsightly plank walk in front of his house, a broken fence about the premises and a miscellaneous collection of tin cans and kindling wood at his back door. He kicks 'like a Missouri mule because the health officer has overlooked a nuisance in a remote corner of the village; because his family is liable to some contagion, yet he allows that slop to be emptied in his own dooryard and permits house to grow up all around his premises hoarding up enough microbes to start a lively plague in the entire neighborhood. Don't be a "knocker." Be a "booster."

It is said that men who haven't the patience to cut their nails properly usually come to grief. Most of them either commit suicide or get married.

Burglars at Cary.
On Monday evening burglars entered the store of E. Kerns & Son, in Cary, gaining access through Gus Genereux' meat market. Entrance was made through a window left open for ventilating purposes.

Nothing was missed from the market, but the cash register in Kerns' store was broken open and about $4 in change secured. They also entered Fred Abbott's barber shop and turned everything upside down carrying off half a dozen razors and a quantity of cigars. They gained entrance by prying open a window.

They are now a wonderful remedy, affording sure relief and cure for headache, dizziness and constipation. 25c at the Barrington Pharmacy.

Supreme Court Says Stop!

The supreme court has decided that the driver of an auto must stop his machine on approaching a horse or team. This ruling is not less than $5 and not more than $200 or three months imprisonment in jail. The decision will serve to check the drivers of the "devil's wagons" and should be rigidly enforced.

Many a man would never get married if some widow did not make up his mind for him.

VICINITY NEWS

Clipped from Exchanges and Told by Correspondents.

At the McHenry county fair, to be held at Woodstock Aug. 28, to Sept. 1, $1,000 in purses will be given for trotting and pacing races.

The citizens of Grayslake stand ready, at any time, to donate a building site and a reasonable amount of cash to any good, reliable factory that will locate in that village.

The Grayslake Ice Cream Co. has closed its factory and parlor owing to a disagreement between the partners. The business is closed pending arrangements for new ownership.

Workmen are busy at the Grayslake Canning factory putting it in condition for the fall trade. It is expected that fully twice the amount of corn will be canned this year as last.

Entries to the stake races for the September meeting of the Libertyville Trotting association closed Saturday, and the list shows a total of 90 horses entered in the six stake events.

Five thousand black bass were put in Bangs lake, Wauconda, last week. A like number were turned loose in Fox river near Dundee. They were furnished by the government hatchery.

The Arlington Heights Herald says: "If we are to have Sunday prayers, why not let the saloons open their front doors and run full blast. Give all kinds of revelry, sin and vice a free hand till all the people grow disgusted and unite in one monstrous cry for reform."

The village of Libertyville is about to lay a system of water mains on the principal streets to connect with the stand pipe lately constructed. The improvement will cost $31,000. The sum of $5,000 will also be expended on sewerage. The work will be done under special assessment.

Schaumburg Old Settlers' Picnic will be held as usual at Schween's grove, Sunday Aug. 13. It will be the greatest occasion of all the year. Manager H. E. Quindel intends to make it the banner meeting. Best music, both string and concert bands. Cut Canada Thistles.

I find that it will be necessary to cut the Canada thistles again this year, and request that property owners in Barrington township cut them on or before the second week in August. H. H. WILLIAMS, Township Commissioner.

Notice.

As I will be absent several months, I have left all my outstanding accounts in the hands of H. M. Hawley for collection. GEORGE SCHAEFER, Barrington, July 18, 1905.

Hours for Sprinkling.

The attention of persons using city water for sprinkling purposes is called to the fact that the hours in which sprinkling is permitted by ordinance is from 6 to 8 o'clock in the morning and 5 to 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Any one violating the ordinance is subject to a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $25.

The water may also be shut off without notice which means an additional expense of $1, to be paid before water will again be turned on.

Any one using the water before paying water rents will be prosecuted. WM. GRUNAU, Village Collector.

Sour Grapes.
BY FRANK R. WELCH.

Hen an' Sue—jest them tew—
After Sue as a fisher,
An' ev'ry gal that knew
'Bout them gals was wishin'
That she was in Sue's place,
'Long with Hen; by hokey!
I can't see what they all want
With a chap so poky.

Then, th' boys 're just as cracked
After Sue as a fisher,
Ev'ry one clean gone on her—
Well, you know what men is—
When there's stakin' of other gals
Jes as smart and pretty;
Seems th' way they tag her round,
An' all-fired pity!

Hen, o'course, is well set up
An' he's no had looker,
But he's not th' stickin' sort—
Went with Miu an' shook'er
Jes as soon as Sue come round,
'With her wits 're in a row,
I jes b'lieve a thing like that's
Nothin' short o' sinnin'.

Well, them tew they went that day
To th' creek together,
Lookin' like they didn't care
What folks thought or whether
Anyone had them was round—
Eidin' 'em to be a maitin',
'Bout me watchin' 'em close by
Madder n'er a hatter.

Sue, ye know, once let me go
With her to a party;
An' the feller larned an' said
'Look out Mr. Smarty,
Don't you get to feelin' big,
You'll soon be a maitin' too,
An' as soon as I see Hen
Jakers! I wassu' so it.

What they caught down to th' creek
Wasn't worth t' stringin',
Sparked, I'll bet, more than they fished,
No one was to be bringin'!
Any fish back with 'em, but
Sue she caught a sucker—
She'd 'em to be I know,
When th' notion took'er.

That's the size of it, because
They're engaged to marry;
Never saw a poorer match-up
An' the feller Old Hen!
She's too spunky, he's stuck-up—
Ganny! ain't I lucky?
Sue can have her Hen an' he's
Welcome to his ducky.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris is that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Danvers, Conn. "I had a cough for fourteen years. Nothing helped me until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which gave instant relief, and effected a permanent cure." Unequaled quick cure for throat and lung troubles at the Barrington Pharmacy: price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Best Her Double.

"I know no one for four weeks when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Anna Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., and when I got better, although I had one of the best of doctors I could get, I was bent double and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful. Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at the Barrington Pharmacy; price 50 cents.
