North Carolina Mob Avenges Brutal Attack Made on Wife of Store-keeper.

Newbern, N. C., dispatch: John Moore, a negro, 20 years old, was taken from Craven county jail in this dty and lynched by a mob of 100 masked men armed with rifles and re-volvers.

masked men armed with rifles and re-volvers.

With his hands tied behind him, the negro was led out about a third of a mile from the jail to the draw of the Neuse river bridge, hanged to one of its braces, and his body riddled with builets.

The mob attacked the jail between I and 2 o'clock. Entrance was effected by forcing the jailer to surrender ed by forcing the jailer to surrender the keys.

As soon as the attack was discovered the naval reserves were called Jut in an attempt to prevent the lynching, but arrived too late. Sheriff J. W. Biddle was quickly on the scene, pleading that Moore be left to the law, but his efforts were unavailing.

Moore entered the country store of George Eubank at Clarks, seven miles from Newbern, last Friday, when the proprietor's wife was the only one in. The negro attempted robbery and struck Mrs. Eubank on the head with a meat ax, fracturing her skull and inflicting injuries which, if they do not prove fatal, will at least cause disgruement and lifelong suffering.

Mrs. Eubank screamed and people came to her rescue. The negro fled, but was captured in a swamp after a chase of a few miles and placed in Jail.

Topeka, Kaz, dispatch: Attorney General Coleman on behalf of the state has filed suit against the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company of Ballimore for $255,000 and against the Title Guaranty and Trust company to the state of the First National bank of Topeka, a Devilu concern, in which the state had $454,000 tied up.

The United States Fidelity and Guaranty company went on the bank's bond for $250,000 to guarantee the state's deposit. Some Topeka capitalists also went on a similar bond for $100,000, and a similar suit was started against them also. In these petitions it is charged that the bank wrongfully used the state's money to pay off other debts.

The Title Guaranty and Trust company it is claimed that the state treasurer had money in the bank wrongfully used the state. All state money gets into the local banks through the collection of draffe. The attorney general claims that the treasurer had money in the bank wrongfully in that he did not draw it out as soon as the bank collected the draffe. All state money gets into the local banks through the collection of draffe. The attorney general claims that the treasurer should take the money out as soon as the drafts are collected and that his failure to do so makes his bondsmen liable.
