THE KAREN WOMEN.

They Have Peculiar Ideas of Personal Beauty and Adornment. Like the Siamese, the Karen women are not good to look upon and do not improve their appearance...

CUSTOM.

Custom may lead a man into many errors, but it justifies none. Custom, though, never so ancient, without truth is but an old error.

Belts have been employed in association with religious worship since the early days of Egypt. Cymbals and hand bells and small crotals served for the festival of Isis.

Battle of the Herring. The battle of the herrings was the comical name given to a fight between an English force and a French detachment not far from Orleans in 1428.

What's this? The people of Louisiana are very stupid! Where

In the world did you get that idea from? Puff-blow of the book. It says that Louisiana is remarkable for its dense population.—Punch.

Hubbard—You must say that all fools are not dead yet. Wife (affectionately)—I'm glad of it, dear. I never look well in black.—Illustrated Bits.

QUEER THINGS IN POLAND.

Superstition Plays a Leading Role With Them. It is customary in Polish villages to strew straw over the Christmas eve supper tables and for the young people, blindfolded or in the dark, to pick out each a straw therefrom.

Birds' Names. There are some odd names for game birds on the Chesapeake. A small shy snipe that flies with a twittering noise is called the horsefoot snipe because of its fondness for the horsefoot or horsehoe crab.

Classical Advertising. It seems curious to American ideas to know that there is a firm of house decorators in London which has been mentioned by some of the most eminent English writers.

Trade Superstitions. Dressmakers will not "fit" with black pins and regard it as unlucky to tack with green cotton. Milliners regard as happy augury the drop of blood falling on a hat from a pricked finger.—Notes and Queries.

When Love Begins. "How long have you been in love with him?" "Ever since I rejected him."—Life.

The soft heart is often a safer, because a kinder guide than the hard heart.

Scott & Bowne, 409-415 Pearl St. Chicago. All druggists.

FIFTY CENTS. In some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion is very rapid. For this reason we put up a fifty-cent size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know the medicine that makes pure, rich blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Your mother, grandmother, all your folks, used it. It is health and strength in it.

Rich Blood. Ayer's Pills are gently laxative. They purify the blood.

CARPENTERSVILLE

Mrs. Wm. Copes, who has been quite ill, is improving. Miss Rose Mitchell is the guest of friends at Udina. John Tolstead made a visit in Chicago on Labor day.

Special Reduced Excursion Rates. Very low rates to Chattanooga, Tenn., via North-Western Line.

Very low excursion rates to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, etc., via the North-Western Line.

MILK NEWS. Items of Interest for Milk Producers, Briefly Told. The cow that will not eat abundantly will not produce liberally.

It is the always-hungry cow that is the most profitable one. The cow with the dainty appetite, that does not eat much or drink much, nor eat or drink with a relish, does not give much milk.

The dairy division of the United States Department of Agriculture, under the direction of Chief Webster, will soon make a thorough short-time test of the Burrell milking-machine at Little Falls, N. Y.

It has been observed, apropos, of the necessity for kind and gentle treatment of dairy cattle, that a new-hand usually obtains less milk from a cow than she would yield to a milker, not necessarily more expert, to whom she was accustomed.
