WHAT IS A GENTLEMAN?

English Courts Say Attorney is Not and Coal Agent is Not. The rule under which one has to define his occupation in all kinds of legal transactions in England leads a great many people in difficulties.

It has been decided that the following are not "gentlemen": A clerk in the audit office, an attorney, a solicitor, a buyer of silk, a man who solicits orders on commission, a solicitor's clerk, a man of regular employment, but engaged temporarily making out bills for a firm.

One who has never had an occupation, a sleeping partner who follows the pursuits of a country gentleman; a medical student, who had for a short time acted as a surgeon's assistant, but for six months past he has been in no business; a coal agent out of employment; an extractor's clerk engaged collecting accounts, but living on no regular salary, and receiving an allowance from his mother.—Stray Stories.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—About three years ago I had intense pain my stomach, with cramps and raging headaches. The doctor prescribed for me, but finding that I did not get any better by my medicine, I gave up all hope.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine.

Suffered 23 Years From Constipation and Stomach Trouble

Wilbert Thompson never knew a well day—he had been constipated all his life—many doctors treated him, but all failed to even help him—his health failed rapidly and on January 21, 1903, Mrs. Thompson asked us to suggest a treatment for her husband. We thought the case too serious and recommended that a specialist be consulted—but he also failed to help the patient—NOW HE IS WELL.

Mrs. Thompson first wrote us as follows: "My husband, aged 52, suffers from sharp pain in his stomach and sometimes thinks it is his heart. Let me know by return mail what causes the pain, if you can."

We promptly advised that a first-class specialist be consulted. We quote: "We want to tell you that my husband's case is so serious as to be a matter of life and death. We have tried every medicine and doctor, but nothing has helped him. He is now in a very bad way and we are very anxious to hear from you."

You will remember that I wrote to you last January in regard to my husband's health. It is four months since he has been taking Mull's Grape Tonic for constipation, which he suffered from since birth. He took just 24 bottles of it and is perfectly cured. He is much stronger and has gained considerably in flesh. I cannot thank you enough for Mull's Grape Tonic. It is worth its weight in gold. Just $12 cured him and he has spent hundreds of dollars with doctors who did him no good. It did all you claimed it would. My very respectful yours, WILBERT THOMPSON, 801 Main St., Peoria, Ill.
