

Barrington Local Happenings Told In Short Paragraphs

Friday, October 20, 1905

If you want bargains call on W. N. Landwer, Stott building.

Miss Alta Gieske was a guest at the house of her father, Louis Gieske.

Miss Diana Donlea visited Chicago relatives last Saturday and Sunday.

John Foy of St. Louis visited his sister-in-law, Mrs. Willmarth, Sunday.

Miss Collins of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting with her cousin, Mrs. T. Dolan.

Otto Schroeder and Mrs. Bertha Toppel were united in marriage Wednesday.

Miss Elsie Costello returned Saturday noon from a week's visit to points in Canada.

Henry Malman, the popular clothing man of Wauconda, called on THE REVIEW last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lopofsky are the proud parents of a baby girl, which arrived Friday of last week.

The band rehearsal will be held on Tuesday evening of next week instead of Monday evening.

For Sale—One dozen Wyandotters; egg; full blooded stock.

T. H. CUEKER.

Lost—A Herrington & Richardson revolver, hammer gun. Leave at THE REVIEW office, and receive reward.

Arnet Lines is now a student at Chicago University, where he is taking an administrative and commercial course.

Mrs. H. Wichman left the first of the week for Chicago, where she will make her home for the winter with her daughter.

Mrs. George W. Foreman and son James, and Mrs. Carrie Wouffe and children, George and Maude, spent Monday in Chicago.

Attorney Louis Bennett left Wednesday afternoon on a professional trip to Rockford, Ill., returning this morning.

Misaki Shimadzu of the University of Chicago, will be a guest at the home of Mrs. Mary Collins over Sunday.

Dairy Farm For Sale—130 acres, good buildings, extra fine soil, 4 1/2 miles from Danusee and Barrington, sacrifice price $75,000, part cash, balance 5 per cent. Send your name on postal for farm list. Wolaver & Rees, Dundee, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. August Pletzier returned to their home in Chicago Friday of last week after visiting at the home of Mrs. Pletzier's uncle, Lambert Tasse.

The work of grading the road from the Chicago & North-Western railroad tracks to the L. D. Cassie farm is being pushed to completion.

Special Inspector Calf of the postoffice department was in the city Wednesday and went over route No. 4 with carrier Hutchinson to make some needed changes.

A Quaker tea will be given at the Baptist church this (Friday) evening, Oct. 20th. Good program. Supper served in the parlors by Quaker girls. Good bill of fare.

The weather the past week has been anything but pleasant. A Texas "Norther," interspersed with a Kansas cyclone and a little of the London fog, describes it in a nutshell.

Courtney Bros. are erecting a new barn on their farm on Fox river. When completed it will contain every modern convenience. The structure is 112 feet long, by 36 feet wide.

The public entertainment which was to have been given by the Y. M. C. A. in the Salem church last Wednesday, has been indefinitely postponed owing to the inability of some on the program to be present.

The Autumn Leaf Rebecca Lodge No. 625, of Barrington, Ill., will give two farces: "Scenes in the Union Bepot" and "Thirty Minutes for Refreshments," on Thanksgiving eve, at Odd Fellows Hall. Admission 25c and 35 cents.

Henry Gottschalk is learning railroad. He was put on the list of "extra" men by the Chicago & North-Western railway Tuesday, and commenced work Wednesday morning. Henry is a reliable boy and no matter what position he is put to work at will do his best.

Miss Minnie Gieske and Mrs. Louis Gieske spent Monday in Chicago.

Smokers are invited to call at Grunau's barber shop and see the finest and largest line of pipes ever shown in town. Prices are very low.

The G. A. R. have invited the W. R. C. and their inspector to be present at their hall Wednesday evening, Oct. 25, as the expected on Main street, at prices never before equalled. If in need of a heating stove it will pay you to see them.

Four jurors were secured up to Thursday evening to determine whether the proprietors of the ill-fated Troquois theatre in Chicago were liable for damages for the loss of life in the fire of 1903, in which about 600 persons lost their lives, among them several Barringtonians.

Miss Mary E. Hulbert of Wauconda, Wis., a student at the University of Chicago, will be a guest of Miss Beulah M. Otis over Sunday. She speaks at 3:30 p. m. Sunday at the Baptist church to young ladies. She will tell of the work of the college Y. W. C. A. at the University of Chicago.

The approaching Catholic Bazaar will last three nights in Odd Fellows Hall early in November. Preparations are being made to produce an affair full of excellent amusement, and all articles for sale will be reasonably priced. The programs will be given by outside talent with a change each evening. Plan to attend.

For Sale—One hundred large sheaves of fine fodder corn, two bushels of ears to stock; one harrow, one hay rake, one horse and buggy. Must be sold at once.

M. C. McINTOSH, Mgrs. H. M. HAWLEY, Agt.

The hustling and spookish occasion, Halloween, is not far away, and already the small boy has begun to eye the belted, catbaited pail with his fish eyes, and get a line on a good sized pumpkin that will make a good "face" for the ghostly night. The night of Oct. 31 is the occasion when spooks walk, and when the restless spirits get busy, tear up the culverts, carry off the gates and do other things which make people swear on the morning of the 31st.

Read H. D. A. Grebe's ad. on the first page. He has something to say of blankets for horses that will be benefit to every horse owner. As these blankets are sold direct by the manufacturer to Mr. Grebe, and the latter guarantees them, there can be no doubt as to their quality, and of being able to purchase them at reasonable prices. When wanting horse blankets, call for a 5A at Grebe's.

In the October issue of The Modern Woodman, the official organ for the M. W. A., occurred three items in the head clerk's report that occasioned surprise and excited comment among the members. The items in question noted the transfer from the benefit to the general fund of sums aggregating over $500,000.00. This should have been "cash claims paid," the mistake being the fault of the printer.—Dundee Hawley.

All who are interested in Japan will find it to their advantage to hear the young Japanese student, Mr. Misaki Shimadzu, who speaks at the Baptist church next Sunday morning. He will also speak at the Methodist church at the Epworth League at 6:30 p. m.

W. N. Landwer last week placed an ad. with THE REVIEW, in which he mentioned a few leaders that are "leaders," and in consequence there has been "something doing" at the big store in the Stott building all week. In fact, he has been kept so busy that he hasn't had time to make up a list of the new bargains in addition to those advertised last week, and appearing again this week on the front page. There isn't an article in the store but what has been marked at bargain prices. Take advantage of the prices quoted in his ad. on the first page and look for his announcement next week.

A young lady, in a town not far distant, found one of her mother's love letters one day recently. To this she substituted her own name and that of her fellow and read it to her mother who at once forbade the daughter to be anxious to do with a young man that would write such sleeking stuff to a girl. The young lady then gave the letter to her mother to read, and suddenly the house became so quiet you could have heard the grass grow out on the lawn.

Services for next Sunday at the Baptist church are as follows: Morning service, 10:30 a. m., subject, "Japan." A missionary service at which Rev. Misaki Shimadzu, a new student in the divinity school of the University of Chicago will speak. Bible school, 11:45 a. m., classes for all. New classes for young women and also young men are being formed. Strangers are welcome to the bible school. Special service, 7:30 p. m., a young ladies and girls' meeting; Miss Mary E. Hulbert, leader, of the University of Chicago Y. W. C. A. and daughter of Dr. Hulbert, state superintendent of Baptist Missions in Wisconsin. B. Y. P. U., 6:45 p. m., Miss Mary E. Hulbert, leader. Evening service, 7:30 p. m., subject, "The Young Man and the Future," by the pastor. This is the closing talk of the series on "Christ and the Young Man." Special music both morning and evening by the male quartette.

LAKE ZURICH NEWS.

Miss Emma Huescher is visiting at Wm. Ernsting's.

The Kniekerbaker Ice Co. have six refrigerators at work building a hotel 40 by 90 feet for the ice men.

Don't forget the dance given by the July Four Saturday night, Oct. 21.

Mr. Dickson is wearing that happy smile they get when shooting with a rifle. It would be a good plan for those who rent boats to be a little particular as to who they let take their boats, and also let no one take a rifle. This would avoid much trouble.

There has been a few complaints about the shooting on our lake on account of some reckless shooting, and to some one shooting with a rifle. It would be a good plan for those who rent boats to be a little particular as to who they let take their boats, and also let no one take a rifle. This would avoid much trouble.
