

THE BARRINGTON REVIEW.

VOL. 20. NO. 44.

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1905.

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

DESERVES TO BE PATRONIZED

St. Ann's Bazaar Will Open Monday Evening and Continue for Three Days.

The chief attraction of the coming week is to be the bazaar given by the parishioners of St. Ann's. This will be the first public entertainment, but one given by this church in years, excepting an annual lawn social, and as the generosity of the members in patronizing the entertainments and fund raising affairs of all denominations and organizations has been liberal and unprejudiced, the promoters are expecting a reasonable interest and encouragement from the public.

Odd felloes will be open at 7:30 on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Nov. 6, 7 and 8 and the admission will be 15 cents. Also on Tuesday afternoon a program will be given at four o'clock.

The evening's program will be varied and amusing, comprising generally outside talent. The usual booths of a bazaar will be well equipped with reasonably priced articles and several novel features will be introduced.

The Jasminae Orchestra of five prominent young women of Barrington will furnish continuous music. Supper will be served and the menu being in charge of some of the famous cooks of the village, no doubt, that will have an especial charm.

Donations have been received from numerous sources and our own townspeople and merchants have contributed saleable articles with much good feeling and liberality. Among the larger articles in this list are a piano sent from the Starck Piano Co., a mandolin and fifty lessons from Lynn & Healy's rag from the Fair shoes from Selz Schuh & Co., a 20 lb plum cake from the National Biscuit Co., and a barrel of flour from Fomery's rolling mill. To each donor of either a large or small thing is extended the sincere thanks of the parish.

Many of these things will be disposed of on the third evening by means of drawing a number from a hat and the holder of such number will be the lucky recipient. Rev. Father Fox, the parish priest, will conduct this part of the program. Chance tickets have been open to the public for six weeks and while some have expressed annoyance at the frequent requests to "take a chance," in the main, people have responded good naturedly. The cause is an excellent one and will be of benefit to the village and thus indirectly to the individual, as the objects to raise money to create a large and improve the church building making it another house of God to point to with a pride.

A fortune teller from Chicago is also expected on Wednesday evening.

Madame Sara of Roumania, and her reputation as a keen forecast of the future is recognized by intelligent people.

Everybody is invited to attend whether inclined to patronize the booths or not. Come and secure Christmas presents for your relatives and friends, enjoy the evenings and show your interest.

BE SURE AND VOTE!

It is Important That Every Vote Be Cast This Year.

The Barrington Republican Club has sent out the following circular letter, which should be carefully read and the suggestions acted upon, as it is very important that every vote be polled:

Dear Sir:—Every citizen that is important to an election of Cook Co., counties. So do not fail to go to your polling place early and cast your ballot. The polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The whole Republican ticket deserves your support. A better ticket never was put before the voters of Cook County. Every man on it is clear, able and honest.

Without waste, experienced and honest judges, no man's life, liberty or property is safe. Therefore the Republican party presents for re-election the four judges whose terms expire: Judge Joseph E. Gray, Farin G. Hall, Willard M. McKewen and Marcus Kavanaugh. They have been many years on the bench. They have been elected and re-elected by large majorities. They deserve another re-election now.

Merritt W. Puckney and Ben M. Smith, Republican candidates for the two vacant judgeships, are men of the highest character and broadest legal training. They are endorsed almost unanimously by the lawyers of Cook County.

We hope that you will give up sufficient time away from your private affairs to attend to this most important duty on Tuesday morning, Nov. 7.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

The following letters remain unclaimed in the Barrington Post Office for week ending Nov. 2, 1905:

Meyers M. J. M.

H. K. BROCKWAY, P. M.

A Good Man to Vote For.

A vote cast for Ben M. Smith, the Superior Court Judge of the Cook County, will be counted for an efficient and capable young man. He was born at Colona, Henry county, and as assistant state's attorney of Cook county earned for himself a reputation that entitles him to the support on election day next Tuesday of every voter who desires honesty on the judicial bench. He is now a member of the law firm of Castle, Williams & Smith, and at one time was a partner of Attorney Cutting, formerly of Palatine.

NEW SCHOOL IS DEDICATED

The Cost of the Building Reflects Great Credit on the School Board.

After months of anticipation, activity and assiduity, undaunted by the sparsity and antipathy of some, the bond of dedication of the school building was reached last Friday night in a climax of triumph over prejudice and difficulties. We chronicle with thanksgiving that near the season of Thanksgiving Day, Barrington's school building stands finished, erected in beautiful architectural lines and artistic effects, unsurpassed by any school building in any Illinois town of like size, and, are, of larger census. Appreciation should fill our souls with joy and indeed almost without exception we are grateful and the few scofers secretly delighted. We not only have a modern, sanitary and adequate structure but we truly are one built in harmonious combinations of color and detail.

The dedicatory program was marked by the attendance of notables and an enthusiastic audience. With Mr. John Plagge, President of the Board of Education as Chairman, the program opened with a spirited selection by the Ladies' Glee Band. And he here remarked, that the size of the school assembly room with its raised platform and better acoustic effects that are lacking in all other halls here, made the musical numbers given for all our musicians and speakers have been handicapped for air space and physical space in which to perfect their efforts.

Rev. G. H. Stanger of St. Paul's church offered in the invocation our praises to God for our rewarded faith in his vouchsafing the completion of the building.

Miss Alta Powers played a piano solo of difficult composition with grace and confidence, practically dedicating the new piano to public entertainment.

Mr. Plagge in a short and fitting introduction presented Dr. A. F. Nightingale, superintendent of Cook county schools. The venerable gentleman's popularity was declared by hearty applause for his appearance. In convincing words the doctor detailed the spiritual, moral and material benefits arising to our citizens in improving our school, as to building, equipment and curriculum. He gave just and true praise to the Board of Education, for its wisdom in bearing the responsibilities of the work and its sagacity in far reaching example we have shown to other small towns of the county. He ended with an appeal to all to support the Board, our principal and his assistants in their worthy efforts to guide the children to be splendid examples of bright American children.

Messrs. Shearer, S. G. Limes and Simmons sang the thrilling and loved strains of "America" in excellent harmony.

Prof. Charles W. Farr, assistant superintendent of Cook county schools, by his eloquence, energetic delivery and amusing cleverness, held especial attention. His delineation of the fine influence brought to bear on our national life by the organization of the home, the church and social life, he climaxed with pronouncing the common organization of the public schools to be the highest and finest we possess in that it deals with the children in whom lie the hopes of the present and future. Mr. Farr further outlined the need of public and private interest in meeting educational questions and increasing demands, for the needs will "keep coming" and public sentiment should be glad to meet them. The address closed with the reading of a poem on the mother's influence for good in childhood life.

Verne Hawley delighted the gathering with his commendable piano playing from memory and responded to an encore with geniality.

"A Few Remarks" were then pronounced by several local gentlemen, headed by the Rev. Father Fox of St. Ann's, who spoke with particular merit of the infinite powers of the educated man over the life of the air. The regrettable and fatal life, pointing out the dangers of a "little learning" and the wonderful results of the educated man. Our quest for knowledge should be unending and the more we learn teach us the divinity of God.

Mr. G. W. Spinner, village attorney, in a composed and earnest manner, told of his keener interest in the school welfare of our town than his predecessors on the program, an account of his early associations with the schools here and his ardent wish to see all good descend on the new life in the new building where the children should be taught the value of higher aspirations than the worship of money, the tendency of the times.

Prof. F. E. Smith, formerly our principal, was scheduled for an address but was not present and Mr. M. C. McIntosh next spoke. His talk was a delight to the audience and was the success of the evening. A humorous line was taken and the reference to local things a source of great amusement. He struck a touching vein of feeling in his statement that no sentiment is as endearing and stirring in friendships as the bond of "We went to school together." His recalling to memory old school days was pleasing to many in whose hearts a love for the old dilapidated building licks, despite their realization of its passed usefulness.

Prof. R. N. Banta, our principal, whom we all admire and appreciate, recounted a vision he dreamed in his first days here of a beautiful new building, the prototype of which now stands in all its material dignity, an honor to the town; and he begged school patrons to remember in their donations gifts of pictures, statuary and plants for the further beautifying of the interior. As an environment in fluence character, so may our children have character developing surroundings.

Mr. Arnet Lines sang "My Illinois" in a strong and musical tone, filling the hall and corridors with melody.

The secretary of the school board, Mr. J. E. Heise, then spoke on the cost of the building, showing how carefully expenditures had been recorded. They are as follows:

Carpenter work	$970.85
Mason contract	1025.00
Plastering	1829.50
Slate roofing and galvanized iron work	1400.00
Plumbing	1212.50
Electric wiring and fixtures	180.00
Slate black boards	245.00
Tinting, shades, picture molding	375.00
Plans, specifications and superintending	1030.00
Total	$29151.85

Outside expenditures, estimated:

Sewerage and drainage	$200.00
Book furniture	400.00
Sidewalk and other labor	200.00
Total	$1100.00

Realized from sale of old building, etc., $1536.95.

Mr. Heise stated that the first step towards a new school was taken on Jan. 29, 1904 when the committee on building and grounds was instructed to investigate and report on necessary proceedings to such an end.

Another number was finely played by the band, and "Old Hundred" sung by the standing audience. Rev. A. Haeffel of the Salem church pronounced the benediction, invoking the blessings of God on the school and town.

This was the dedication—fittingly and interestingly marking the consummation of so glorious an undertaking.

Pretty Halloween Party.

A select Halloween party was given Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Tolbert on Lake street, by Miss Ida Holt, rous, his daughter, assisted by Miss Nora Plagge and Alta Powers. Delightful old fashioned games were indulged in, and a sumptuous repast was served during the evening. Pleasant selections of vocal and instrumental music were a feature of the party, at which about ten couples participated. Among the out-of-town guests present were Miss Ethel M. Austin, Ravenswood, and Dr. Schneider, Chicago.

IT WAS A GRAND MEETING!

Great Interest Was Manifested in the Barrington Sunday School Convention.

The annual convention of the Barrington Township Sunday School Association was held in the Salem church Sunday afternoon and evening, both meetings being largely attended.

The afternoon meeting was opened with a song service by Mr. Furman, of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, followed by Scripture reading and prayer by Rev. Stenger of St. Paul's church.

The first topic was "Practical Plans for Teachers," by A. T. Nelson, of Ohio, an interesting and expert black-board artist.

"Sunday School and the Church," by F. N. Lapham of the M. E. church, and "The Church and Sunday School" by Rev. Robert Kelly of the Baptist church, contained some valuable suggestions. Rev. Lapham held that children should attend church services and Rev. Kelly advised that parents attend Sunday school so as to encourage children to attend. Both topics were well handled, and aroused much interest and enthusiasm, as was evidenced during the discussion which followed and which was led by C. E. Hunk, general secretary of Cook county association.

The evening service was also opened with a song service by Mr. Furman, and Rev. A. Haeffel of the Salem church read the Scriptures and offered prayer.

"World Wide Work," by General Secretary Chas. E. Hunk of Chicago, was a practical review of the International convention held at Toronto recently, at which delegates from every section of the world participated.

The election of officers was then held and resulted as follows:

President—F. H. Plagge.

First Vice-President—Miss Lydia Holthoff.

Second Vice-President—Arnett Lines.

Secretary—Miss Grace Freeman.

Treasurer—Herman Gleske.

A. T. Nelson followed the election of officers with a blackboard illustration, entitled "Just for Variety." It was one of the numbers which was unique, interesting and left a deep impression on the audience.

The collections for the carrying on of the work which was taken at the evening meeting was a substantial one and showed that the interest in Sunday school work in Barrington is growing stronger each year.

This article would not be complete if we failed to mention the excellence of the music rendered at the afternoon meeting by Mr. Morse, who has just recently returned from a year and half sojourn in the Transvaal (South Africa) where he accompanied a regiment, who did effective warlike work among the "Barghies" and a solo by Rev. Kelly.

To Protect Fish and Game.

A Lake County Association is being formed. The objects of the association will be the protection of fish and game in the county. Among the members of the committee, which is composed of twenty-seven members, who have charge of the preliminary work of the organization, are the following: Chas. township, Miles W. Lamey; E. A. G. Shwerman; Wauconda, H. T. Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. Paik, of Bartlett, a former resident here, took dinner at the home of Chas. Haeffel Sunday.

William C. Bode spent Sunday at the home of G. H. Arps, visiting his wife and daughter who are there.

Mrs. Emma Wilson and family are now located in the Nancy Sutherland house, having moved last Saturday.
