According to the Elgin Weekly Courier, Silver Leaf Camp of the Woodmen is in a lull, a shortage in the accounts of the clerk being hinted at. It has been decided to request the presence of an expert accountant from the headquarters at Rockford to straighten out the tangle.

PALATINE LOCAL NEWS

The Woodman dance was very well attended Saturday evening all who were there reported a good time. It is to be hoped a larger crowd will turn out to the next dance.

P. F. Hunt, of Terra Cotta was down to see his mother Friday. Mrs. Hunt still remains in a precarious condition, very little hope being entertained for her recovery. Dr. Stack is attendance.

Mr. E. H. Hunt, mother of Mrs. G. H. Arpa, died at her home Wednesday evening, Nov. 1, 1905. Funeral will be held Sunday at 1:30 p. m. from the house, thence to church. Obituary next week.

The Woodmen are making great preparation for their trip to Chicago on Nov. 18th. The drill team is doing some hard practicing getting in trim to take part at that time. It is expected a thousand candidates will be initiated into the order at that meeting.

The W. B. C. Inspection had to be postponed on account of repairs that are being made on the hall where they meet, as the Odd Fellows from whom they rent, concluded the hall was unsafe upon a thorough examination and the Woodmen hall was in use for that evening. The inspection will be held in one month unless something unforeseen prevents.

The football game here Saturday, played between the Monitor Athletic Club and our boys, was a first-class game, the score being 5 to 5. One man in the visiting team became disabled so the last three minutes of the second half was not played. There will be another game this coming Saturday, and the boys beg the public to come out and cheer them on. They play on the Nasion field, and the admission fee is only 15 cents.

Saturday being Mrs. A. Brodley's birthday invited a few of her friends to assist her in celebrating it and they in turn asked a few more until the crowd numbered thirty, made up of members of a card club. Mrs. Brodley belonged to it in Chicago, with their families. A good time was had by all and the hostess served a beautiful repast. The hostess received many useful and valuable gifts.

TWO NOVEMBER MARRIAGES

Wessel-Boehmer and Meyers-Landwehr Nuptials.

Miss Laura Hannah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Boehmer, was united in marriage to Mr. Ernest Wessel on Wednesday evening, November 1st, in the presence of the immediate relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties. Rev. Haefele, of the Salem church, performed the beautiful ring ceremony, after a selection by the Barrington Cornet Band, dressed in full uniform, and the entry into the tastily decorated parlor where the ceremony was performed, was made to the sweet strains of Lohengren's beautiful wedding march, exquisitely executed by Miss Louise Boehmer, a sister of the bride. After the ceremony congratulations were showered upon the happy couple, and those present partook of a sumptuous repast, the Barrington Cornet Band rendering beautiful selections. Miss Nabel Schonenman and Miss Selma Dunnington, both of Paw Paw, Mich., assisted on the joyous occasion by artistically rendering several sweet duets, using both violins and piano. Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schultz, Dundee; Mr. and Mrs. Christ. Bruns, Elgin; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boehmer, of Wheeling.

The happy couple were the recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts.

Both the contracting parties were reared in Barrington, among they are esteemed by the entire community, being especially popular among the younger set. They will make their home on Williams street.

November 2, 1905, at 7:30 p. m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Landwehr, their daughter, Cora E. Landwehr, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles H. Meyers of Capron, Ill.

Mr. Frank Meyers, brother of the groom, acted as best man; Miss Jennie Landwehr, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, and Miss Vendelle Richardson as flower girl. Miss Clara White of Palatine played the wedding march. Rev. Haefele of Salem church performed the ceremony.

Decorations were ferns and carnations. About one hundred and thirty relatives and friends from Barrington, Palatine, Arlington Heights, Elgin and Chicago attended.

The presents were numerous, and after a beautiful wedding supper the guests departed at mid-night wishing the bride and groom a long and happy life. Mr. and Mrs. Meyers will reside at Capron, Ill. where Mr. Meyers is connected with a creamery.

The bride is well known and very popular in Barrington and the groom is an exemplary young man.

Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia biliousness, Bright's disease, and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but try for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debilitated food. At Barrington Pharmacy. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

Don't Forget the Date.

Miss Emmott, the well-known oculist, will be at the office of Dr. Edgar Barrett, Tuesday giving free examinations of eyes. No one urged to buy. Subscribe for THE REVIEW.
