A Disgulssed Hint.
The frowf surrounding the balky animal opens somewhat when the man who looks as though he knew borse-flesh saks what is the matter.
"This mare of mine has balked," explains the owner of the 'rie, "I can't get her to go in any direction." "Have you tried to back her!" asks the stranger.
"Why, I never thought of that," answers the driver, getting down and taking a plug of tobacco from his pocket. He holds it to the animal's nose and at once it starts down the road.

With the self-possession which marks the man of perfect poise, the borsey man turns and goes away smilling as thoughin pity of the ignorance of the others.

Another of those rémarkable cures by Outlears, after doctors and all else had falled, is testified to by Mr. M.

C. Moss of Gainesville, Texas, in the following letter: "For over thirty years I suffered from painful ulcers and an eruption from my knees to feet, and could find neither doctors nor medicine to help me, until I used cutteurs Soan, Ointment and Pills, which cured me in six months. They helped me the very first time I used them, and I am glad to write this so that others suffering as I did may be awed from misery."
