NATIONAL SOLONS

Saturday, Feb. 12, 1905.

The senate decided not to admit as testimony in the Swaine impeachment trial the statement made by Judge Sawyer before a house committee.

The house passed the pensions appropriation bill, carrying $13,250,700. The minority, led by Mr. Underwood, made an ineffectual effort to reduce the aggregate amount to a section which would exclude persons allowed under "order of merit" which was estimated to involve $4,500,000. It was contended that the bill was unconstitutional.

TERMS OF PEACE ARE OUTLINED

Report that Russia is Willing to Concede All Japan May Ask, Except Heavy Indemnity.

Intimations of approaching peace in the far East, announced in London at some time ago, have received further support from St. Petersburg. The information, which is ascribed to a source enjoying high patronage, says not only has the question of peace been discussed by the czar, but the conditions on which Russia is prepared to make peace practically have been agreed upon. These are:

- 1. That Corea be placed under Japanese suzerainty.
2. That Port Arthur and Liaotung peninsula be ceded to Japan.
3. That Vladivostok be declared a neutral port on the open door system.
4. That the Chinese Eastern railway be placed under neutral international administration.

The difficulty lies in settling the terms of indemnity, upon which it is known Japan insists, but it is thought that the obstacle is not insuperable. Although it is possible Russia will risk another battle before continuing the war, the peace terms outlined will be concluded if the question of indemnity can be arranged within a comparatively short time.

The London Standard prints an interview with Viscount Hayashi, Japanese minister, who said he was not hopeful of immediate peace. He stated that the act of congress to make proposals while war was being waged, with the army south of Mukden and the Baltic fleet had not attempted to sail for the seas. The only reason that could be assigned for the possible collapse of the war party in Russia is the internal condition of the country, but this possibility is painted blacker than actually is the case.

It is stated from other sources that the emperor of Austria for weeks privately has consulted the czar to negotiate for peace in order to save Russia from inevitable, crushing humiliation.

Statement in London follows the line of the alleged terms which will furnish the basis of real settlement, although they are not likely entirely to satisfy the Japanese, who, it is believed, will require in addition indemnity, the temporary occupation of Vladivostok as security of its payment, the restoration of the island of Saghalien to Russia, the Russian warships now in neutral ports. Moreover, it is pointed out that Russia's reported proposal to retain Manchuria notwithstanding her contacts with Great Britain and the United States and Great Britain.

According to the London Daily Telegraph, the Siberian railway is giving way under the tremendous strain to which it recently has been subjected. The difficulty is also being provisionally solved by Gen. Kourapatkin's army is increasing, and the number of trains daily soon must be reduced.

Czar Bent on Ending War. Persistent reports declare that Emperor Nicholas has not only decided to convolve a representative body, but he has also been authorized to take this decision chiefly on the advice of Emperor William. The conditions of the Russian proposition are freely discussed in St. Petersburg.

One More Battle. Information reaches St. Petersburg that Gen. Kourapatkin is industriously preparing to try final conclusions with the Japanese. It is expected that a decisive battle may be expected within a fortnight.

Ask Attache to Leave. Capt. William B. Judson, U. S. A., and other foreign military attaches, have been asked to leave Vladivostok. It is probable that this action is in embryo's face was far from cheerful grin there as soon as spring comes.

Gripenberg to Return. According to latest reports Emperor Nicholas is greatly dissatisfied with the conduct of Gen. Gripenberg while he was in Manchuria, and that he has not only relieved Gen. Kourapatkin, but has ordered Gen. Gripenberg to return to his post. It is gossip in court circles that Gen. Gripenberg will be relieved of his post when he left the emperor's cabinet.

Mitchevko to Return. Lieut. Gen. Mitchevko, commander of the Eastern Cossack brigade, whose wound in the leg received during the attack on Sandepas Feb. 20, is almost fully healed, and he is expected to return to the front in two weeks. It is reported that Gen. Mitchevko will receive a promotion.
