By DAVID GRAHAM PHILLIPS, Author of THE COSTAL

COPACOT SSS to the Accordance of the Accordance Langdon had received me on my other visit. From the direction of an open door, I heard his voice—he was say-ing: "I am not at home. There's no

And still I did not realize that it mail is was avoiding!

"I've no use now, Langdon," I called herfully, "Dee parden for seeming to intride I misunderstood—or didn't hear where the nevrant and I was to wait. However, no harm done. So mail Fin off: But! made no move howard the door by which I had energed; instead, I advanced a few feet nearer, the door from which his voice nearer, the door from which his voice nearer, the door from which his voice nearer.

After a brief—a very brief—pause there came in Langdon's voice—laugh ing, not a trace of annoyance: might have known! Come in, Matti ing, not a trace of annoyance: "I might have known! Come in, Mait!"

LANGDON AT HOME.

I entered, with an amused giance at the butler, who was giving over his heavy countenance to a delightful exhibition of disgust and discomiture. It was Langdon's sitting room. He had had, the carred antique for the company of the carred antique for the company of the carred and the carred and was smoking a cigarette in, an oriental holder nientry a foot long; but the sir of the room, so perfect was the ventilation, instead of being scented with Aobacco, had the odor of some fresh, clean, slightly saline perfume. It think what was in my mind must have shown in my face, must have shown in my face, must have subtly flattered him, for, when I looked at him, he was giving, me a "look" of genuine friendly kindiness. "This is—perfect, Langdon," said I, And I think I'm a judge." "Old you like it," said he, trying to dissemble his satisfaction if me sittong it is not to be a subject to the said to be a final form. "You must take me through your house sometime," is get to m." The gening to the said to wall for that. But I wast suggestions. I'm not salamed to go to school to a master—to any-hoot, for that inafter." "Why do you build I'm said he. "A toys house is a nuisance. If I could induce my wife to take the children to the said."

that with the wife," said I.

"But you have no wife. At ast ""

"No," I replied with a laugh. "Not yet. But I'm going to have."

Suddenly my mind reverted to my business. "How do you account the steadiness of textile, Langdon?" I maked fifturating to the carved sitting.

omiced resurants to the carves witting room and, trying to put these sur-roundings out of my mind. "I don't secount for it," was his languid, uninterested reply. "I have been been and the mar ket."

"It legf to my interest to have it supported, is it?" he replied. "I know that," it admitted. "But why doesn't it drop?"

doesn't if drop?"

"arthibas intere of yours may have overedicated the public h conditions," suggested he goes follower have the habit of billering implicitly shafeter pue as n' Yes, but I haven't written a line at textile for nearly a month now, steaded at object, his wantly fairly purring with pleasure.

"That's the only recient it can give,"
said he.

said $6'.

"You are now more of your people is supporting the stock!" I saked, as a form shot not for information; for I thought I, knew they wegen yet trusted him it is have seen as vident.

"It like to get up holdings back," said he. "I can't buy until, it's down. And I know none of my people would dare support 127".

The control of the co

haste.

But he was too late. The woman entered, searching the room with a plercing, suspictous gaze. At once I saw, behind that look, a jealousy that ng his erebrows at it. Presently he said: "And she!"

"I don't know how shortens about its and I lotd ton't mouled curtly. In snite of myself, my eyes shifted my cuts began to burn I by the Langdon, what's the name of Langdon, what's the name of your architect.

"Wildest' and a like ey," said he architect.

"Wildest' and a like ey," said he architect.

"Wildest' and a like ey." said he architect.

"Wildest' and a like ey." said he architect.

"It the 'time. They're perfectly conventional and so, can't, destinguish between originality that's artistic and originality that's artistic and originality said, said said, tools, and nail against being draws out of it and against been drawn out of it and against been whe do so out of it."

"Il haye, as talk, with. Marcy this very day," said. I. "It have, as talk, with. Marcy this very day," said. I. "It hay e. as talk, with. Marcy this very day," said. I. "It has," a last, with a said and he said: "One observed the independent of the said one likes whether it likes of the said one likes whether it likes of the said of t

"AND IN THE MIDST OF THIS QUIET SPLENDOR SAT, OR RATHER, LOUNGED, LANGDON."

into its view, and studied it with a l was, certain the fall must come hope that féared and a fear that beped.
When her eyes had toured the room, own destruction deeper and deeper. they paided upon him, seemed to be saying: "You've haffled me spain, but Tru not discouraged. I shall catch you get."

TWO .-PILLARS OF SOCIETY."

Wall you deal've and Landon.

saying: "You've hadfied me egain, but The not discoviraged. I shaff catch you yet."

"Weil, my dear!" said, Langdon, whom she neemed faintly to anguse. "It's only Mr. Blackbock. Mr. Blac

TWO. "PILLARS OF SOCIETY."

I was neither seeing nor horaring from the Bilenists, father or son, but as I knew why, I was not disquieted, there is no the seeing of the seeing of the seeing fathers, not they being fatheous, incurable opitimata, were probably imagining they would never need me again. I did not disturb them until Meanon and I had got my education so well-under way that even I, always severe in eighcriticism into now mercless, was obsupelled to admit to myself a distinct

a man search of that even I, always severe in selfcriticism and now unerclices, was come polled to admit to myself a distinct change for the bester.

When my education seemed far enough advanced, I sent for Sam. He, atter his footless fashion, diffri bother to admire the selfto stime with footless fashion, diffri bother to admire the selfmoment straight; I turied to his fasher. I had my cashler send him a formal, typewritten tester signed Blacklock & Co., informing him that
formal, typewritten tester signed
Blacklock & Co., informing him that two "would be obliged if he woule give the matter his immediate attention."

The note must have reached him the following morning, but he did not come until, after waiting three days,
"we" sent him a sharp demand for a check for the balance due us.

"yes" and whin a sharp demand for a
the come until, after waiting three days,
"the hour."

"Yes", answered. Miss. Cayanne"Yes", answered. Miss. Cayanne"Yes" and him a sharp demand for a the hour to the man was predomined to the come that the come of the come
the matter his immediate attention."

"Yes" and whin a sharp demand for a
the hour.

"Yes" and whin a sharp demand for a
the hour.

"Yes" and whin a sharp demand for a
the hour to the man was predomined to the come of the

and much irritated.

Jouanty palabele case; no doubt he hadn't the removement of the palatit to remove the country and the really was—and no doubt also, he really was—and no doubt also, he really was—and no doubt also, the palatit of palati or people whom it's impossible to press."

"I'd like to accommodate you further," said I, shedding that last little lint as a cliff sheds rain, "but your labount has been in an unsatifactory state for nearly a month now."
"I'm sure you'll give me a few days were discussing a tife. "I'ly all you'll he was you dering when you deceasing a tife." I'ly all you will you have he you were discussing a tife. "I'ly all you will you have he you do not you quite captivated her, Blacklock, Cant you disse with us tomorrow night-no, Sunday—at eight? We're having in a few people I think you'll like to meet." "Glad to come," said I, wishing to be rid of him, now that my point was gained. "We'll let the account stand open for the present—I rather think your stocks are going up. Oire sun region of the present—I rather think your stocks are going up. Oire sun region of the present—I rather think your stocks are going up. Oire sun region of the present—I rather think your stocks are going up. Oire sun region of the present—I rather think your stocks are going up. Oire sun region of the present—I rather think your stocks are going up. Oire sun region of the present—I rather think your stocks are going up. Oire sun region of the sun region of the present—I rather think your stocks are going up. Oire sun region of the present—I rather think your stocks are going up. Oire sun region of the present—I rather think your stocks are going up. Oire sun region of the present—I rather think your stocks are going up. Oire sun region of the present—I rather the present—I rather the present and the present of the present and the present an

Illinois State News

FOUND BY SISTER'S DREAM.

Relatives Strangely Reunited After

Relatives Strangely Runited After to Long Separation.

Faifcheld-A strangs dream has been the means of uniting three sisters with a long lost brother, moura-ed as dead for nearly 29 years.

The death of their parents, 25 years ago, left Oors, Dors, Nora, and William Dawson homeless. The brother was sint to, an orphan asylem at Chicago and the sisters were placed in homes of sympathiers. Years passed and all trace was lowt of the boy, whe had been asopted into a family at Rockford, III. It is a supplemental of the second of the s

DATES FIXED IN DAVIS CASE.

Arguments on Motion to Quash indict-ment Feb. 18.

ment Feb. "18."

Danville.—Will J. Davis, manager of the jil-fated jooquois theater, will be arraigned before Circuit Judge Ere Kimbrough Feb. 18, when the court will decide whether he will entertain a motion to quash the indictment. Is case he refuses the trial will be set for March 4. The court had heard as gurent of the set of the control of the set of the control of the set of t his conviction.

New Pentintiary Commissioner.

Macomb.-Van I. Hampton, recentMacombe and I. Hampton, recentmaterial and the pentine of t

Van L. Hampton. Van L. Hampton.
which he atilj owns. He early took an active part in politics and has always heen. a stalwart...Republican. He served a few months least year, as secrelary of the koard of arbitration while C. J. Doyle was manazing the senatorial campaign for ex-Gov. Yates.

senatorial campaign for ex-tor-, water. Teacher Indicted For Whipping Boy. Tribana—The Champaign county grand Jury concluded, its work, and returned 20 indictinguist allogether. Among the number were, true, tills against Frof. Sherman, Cape and Miss Adila Kelly. (eachers of the Tolono inchools, who are charged with assault and battery upon a pupil. This, case when tried will attract haft the population of Tolono here.

CLUB IDEA IS POPULAR.

Benefita Expected to Active from Benefits "Espected 'to" Acerus" from

"The Meeting of Fareness. To "Asburn.—The meeting held here for the purpose of organiting, a toyenally supers' debating club was a most enthinstantic one. Present were business ince, ichoo' teachers, members of the Abburn' Doinestie Science association.
Popilis' in The "public school and 'old and young farmers from near the city.
Ba. P. Workman called the meetingto order and Joseph P. Bunth of Anburn and E. C. Rooter of Springfield were chosen chairman and, secretary, respectively. The meeting in order,
the election of the first board of officolorist. Predident, Prof. A. N. Bulley; socond vice president, M. L. Gordon;
secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Heary Dawnon; assistant secretary and treasurer, Miss Brooks.
Pollowing the election of officers, E.
C. Pruitt, county supertatendent of sphools, addressed the meeting on the bending chub. Mr. Pruitt takes the schools' point of view in dheusaing farm subjects and he thins the idea of township clubs one of the best recently suggested.

JURIST'S ASSAILANT 18. GRAZY.

JURIST'S ASSAILANT IS CRAZY.

Asylum for Man Who Tried to Kill Judge Cutting.

Chicago — Prief ElierBrock, who on December 21 attempted to kill fludge Cutting by firing at the jurist as he was entering the criminal court building, was declared to be of unsound mind and committed to the Insane asylum by Judge Pinckney. Judge Cutting was on the stand and told of the attack made on him by Elerbrock. Dr. Harold N. Moyre said the, defendant was demented. It was shown that Elerbrock was in the fixing the fixed in the fixed by the standard of the standard to the standard to Minonk.—One man was serjously injured and six other men and two women badly shakes up when an lilinois Central freight train running 20 miles an hour crashed into an accommiles an hour crashed into an accommodation freight train at Kankakee Junction, near here. The caboose was telescoped and the nine passengers in it had to be taken out through? window. Frank Kaikwolf of Flanage 2. Ill., was the only one seriously hurt.

Ill. was the only one seriously hurt.

Fin to Pretect Game.

Carliaville.—The game wardens of Madison and St. Chair counties, L. A.

Miller and Wagner

Miller and Wa

Galesburg Hears Gypsy Smith.

Galesburg -Gypsy Smith opened his revival services in Contral Congresational church, and be illustrated with striking instances of conversion in Chicago, such as that of a young man who confessed to robbing his father, and of a mother who became reconcited to the marriage of her daughter, who years ago wedded against the mother's will.

Clipton, Ili., Minister Indicted.
Bioopinaton.—The Indernal grand
Bioopinaton.—The Indernal grand
Biopinaton.—The Indernal grand
Biopinaton.—The Indernal grand
Biopinaton.—The Indiction of Clipton.
Biopinaton.—The Indiction of Clipton.
Biopinaton.—The Indiction of Clipton.
Biopinaton.—The Indiction of Clipton.
Biopinaton.—The Indiction.—The Indicated Indiction.—The Compiled in protests his isnocence.

Campbell, protests his isnocests.

Killed by Gas Explosion.

Springrided. Thomas Edwards, proSpringrided. Thomas Edwards, prosecond to the control of th

Diphtheria Rages in Two Towns.
Pann. — Diphtheria is becoming alarming at Owneco and Buckeye.
Schools all have been closed and the state board of health will right the city

Fever Rages at Tower Hill.

Pana.—The epidemic of cearlet fever his reached Tower Hill and a great may case are reported. The schools have been closed and every means to being used to certail the ravages of the disease.