Just What You Can Do

WITH

LIQUID VENEER

Remember, Liquid Veneer is not a furniture polish; neither is it a varnish, but a carefully and scientifically prepared article that acts as a food for the tarnish or gloss.

REMOVES BLISH TINGE FROM PIANOS It is the only preparation on earth that will remove tarnish and that very undesirable bluish discoloration which often appears on PIANOS, and other highly polished furniture. It may be used to excellent advantage on picture frames and mouldings, for it will remove every particle of dust and smoke, take off every particle of dust and smoke, take off every speck, and bring back all the original luster.

It may be used on WHITE FURNITURE without the least danger of discoloring it; on the contrary it will clean and restore it to its former spotless appearance.

INK STAINS VANISH OFFICE DESKS, WRITING TABLES and BOOK-CASES may be freed from ink stains and made to shine, if the stains have not become too deeply imbedded in the grain of the wood. HARDWOOD FLOORS, MANTELS, STAIR BALUSTRADES and all INTERIOR WOODWORK may be easily and quickly cleaned. It removes grease instantly. Gas fixtures and chandeliers may be made bright and clean. It is positively the finest thing in the world for cleaning and polishing AUTOMOBILES and CARTRIDGES. It will make the enamel parts of a BICYCLE look like new.

INVALUABLE FOR DUSTING We now come to another use of this great discovery for which it is simply invaluable and which almost should commend it to every cleanly and intelligent housekeeper. We refer to the work of dusting. Everyone knows that a feather duster or a dry cloth not only scratches furniture but merely removes dust from one article to scatter it through the atmosphere of a room until it is finally deposited on another. Avoid all this trouble by getting into the habit of using your dusting with a cloth slightly moistened with LIQUID VENEER.

Local Happenings Told in Short Paragraphs

John Nagatz returned Monday to his work as flagman. He was ill several weeks.

J. Hortsmann, contractor of Palatine, was here Thursday.

J. E. Helse returned Wednesday from a trip to Canada.

Advertising is a man's business what steam is to an engine.

Advertising is to the merchant what plowing is to the farmer.

J. B. Dickey of Dele Plate, Iowa, is visiting his sister, Mrs. L. H. Bennett.

Prof. and Mrs. E. D. Smith of Chicago were guests of Mrs. Emily Hawley over Sunday.

The merchant who fails to advertise injures himself more than he does any one else.

Dr. A. Weichel and family moved into their new modern home on Lake street Monday.

Mrs. Percy H. Boyke and daughter Dorothy of Chicago visited at the Banks home Sunday.

Dr. George Lytle returned late last week from Buffalo where he has been stationed since October.

Mrs. James McKay visited her husband's relatives at Algonquin for a week returning Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Vermyla of Chicago was here Sunday as the guest of Mrs. John Brinker, west of town.

Mr. M. Low, who lives in the rear of Lamey building, was dismissed Monday from the Cook county hospital.

Life is very much like a cistern. What you get out of it depends altogether on what you put into it.

The hammer is the oldest tool known and the knocker was discovered shortly after the first one was made.

Parishioners of St. Ann's have started to raise money by each member of the church earning one dollar or more.

Miss Harriett Tuttle of Kingston, Illinois, daughter of Rev. Tuttle formerly of Barrington, came last Friday to visit the Dohmeyer and Kingsley families.

Vaughn's seeds have the reputation of being the best seeds on the market. H. D. A. Grebe has them on sale and discounts Chicago prices. Call and ask his price.

"All quiet along the Potomac! Only one last gun to be fired," the printed article delivered around town this week was not the article refused by the REVIEW.

In last week's issue we by a regrettable mistake omitted a line from the poem written by M. A. P. in memory of Henry Rohlfemer, which confused the rhyme somewhat.

Postmaster Brockway says that the school children can't expect at noon to all pass through the post office door at once. A broken door window was the result this week of crowding and pushing.

Alexander Boehmer of Wheeling, Ill., spent the week and with his aunt, Mrs. John Schuman. Mr. Boehmer will be graduated from the Armour School of Technology in Chicago in June.

Altho the following real estate deal was transacted several months ago, its record was just published in Chicago papers this Tuesday: Assessors' duty, county clerk's result, lot 106, 142-9, and other p'ty., April 1-F. Bergman to Charles Jahnke, $5,000.

A mail-order house flooded this town Monday with a wall paper catalogue. Probably such samples were thrown broadcast at this particular time in defiance. Remember our local merchants sell wall paper at quality as cheap as offered by this house and no wall paper with a brown back is lasting in color or texture.

On Wednesday evening at 8:30 the Barrington band was playing loudly and lively in Sodd's hall, a powerful talking machine was holding forth in D. F. Lamey's store, classical piano music was heard in Prof. Sears' School of Music and a mechanical piano sounded from another business house. Truly we have a musical business district.

"Watch out" for something fine on the evening of April 30th, at Odd Fellows' hall. The efficient services of Mrs. Mae Lane Symmes is a sufficient guarantee that the G. A. R. Post entertainment will be just-ice. And furthermore, when it is known that the Ladies' Cadet Band will "play its part" on that delightful occasion, everybody will want to see, hear and enjoy this excellent program. Further notice next week.

Miss Maria Groll is visiting with relatives at Elgin for two weeks.

Julius Landwer has returned home after a five weeks visit with relatives in Nebraska.

Marshal Donah has a few days leave of absence this week. Former Night Watchman Ray Patton's son duty instead.

Cary Station voted to construct a connected system of water-works by a vote of one majority at an election held Tuesday.

The Thursday club met at Mrs. J. H. Robertson's yesterday where a miscellaneous program of readings and music was given.

C. O. Winters and Mrs. C. McCally started Wednesday for Whitehall, Alabama, on a visit and expect to return home with Mrs. Winters, May first.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Wilmarth departed Thursday for West Baden, Ind., where they will spend a season. They will visit relatives at St. Louis before their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reinhold are now located in the Fahn farm cottage on Randall's lake and Albert Beach and family are living on Main street in Hager's subdivision.

People who oppose dating would be justified in their objections to an extent, if they could see some of the manners affected by foolish young people of the period. Fads in dancing spoil all grace of movement and proportion. A lady's arm raised perpendicular, like that of the statue of Liberty in New York harbor, may "be-to-date" but it certainly is a little too-compensated and silly. And a stoop-shouldered "hugged-up" position is as bad. A happy medium is wiser.

A party of friends were invited to the home of Fred Kirschner north of town Wednesday evening to attend a card party, planned by Mrs. George Constock and Mrs. Henry Donah, as a surprise in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Richard Strobach, daughter of Mr. Kirschner. Twenty-four ladies and gentlemen were out to the farm early in the evening and played progressive club until a late hour when they were served a lunch. The prize winners were Mrs. Carrie Kendall, Mrs. Henry Donah and Lyman Powers.

Improving Their Towns. There is a decided awakening notice-able of late among the lesser cities of southern California, says the Los Angeles Times. A most unusual number are planning and planting school and library grounds, public parks, streets, etc. Every section has been so generally prosperous during the past year that all feel like making their city, town or community reflect it by an improved appearance. There are always opportunities to be grasped on which residents may extend time and money, and two of the most important places to begin are the school grounds and the streets. Every center of population has these two advantages at all times. See that a zealous, energetic, co-operative movement is begun to ward the uniform planting of streets with suitable trees, properly planted. Have the school grounds planned by some competent authority. Put in the necessary drives and walks of gravel or cement. Plant according to the plan, and your labors will be rewarded not alone through your own satisfaction, but by thoughts of generations yet unborn, for such improvements gain in value as the years roll by. Now is the golden time of all the year. All the really live communities are already active.

Women to Build Town Hall. At Monrovia, Ind., a little town of probably 500 inhabitants in the north-west corner of Morgan county, is a little band of women associated in an organization known as the Commercial Club. This town is like many other Indiana towns of its size, it has no place outside for public gatherings, aside from the churches and school houses, and these energetic women have attempted to remedy this condition, says the Indianapolis News. With that purpose in view they are striving by every honorable method to raise money with which to build a town hall. The names of the women are usually applied to a body of men organized for the purpose of obtaining factories and other public institutions for their cities, and at first blush it might seem inappropriate when applied to a club of women. Not a man is permitted to join.

When Reptiles Die. Reptiles rarely die in the daylight—usually between nightfall and midnight. Many of them have an instinctive presence of death and seek particular places to await the end, while those whose lives are spent underground come to the surface before death. Snakes, chameleons, crocodiles and turtles plainly show in their faces the approach of death.—Fall Mail Gazette.
