Too many people deny themselves the comforts of life in order to pile up an estate for a bunch of dissatisfied heirs to fight over.

The Baptist church morning theme "The Meaning of Suffering," Evening, "The Cross of Christ."

JAMES H. GARDNER, PASTOR.

Some people are anxious to read of the doings of all their acquaintances in the Review, but O! so sore if their own names and affairs appear in print.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kirby will move next week from the Calow house on Chestnut street to the lower flat in the Fred Meyer house on west Main street.

The engagement is announced of Miss Dorothy McCoy of Chicago to William Kirby of Barrington. The wedding will take place in Chicago next Wednesday.

Guests at the Thorpe home from Sunday to Wednesday were Mr. Thorpe's father, William Thorpe and his brother, Charles Thorpe with wife and daughter, all of Chicago.

What seems very important to you, may, from a newspaper standpoint be a very trivial affair. A paper is for the public and not for the interests of one particular social set or organization.

Guests at Mrs. Denton's this week were John Waterman of Elgin and her cousin, Mrs. Duncan, of Chamberlain, South Dakota. Mrs. Duncan has not visited Barrington since leaving here thirty-five years ago.

About twenty men from here went to the ball game at Des Plaines Sunday between the Des Plaines Stars and the Cripple Creeks (colored) of Chicago. Score 10 to 3. Des Plaines won.

The regular Sunday morning service and Sunday school of the Methodist church will be held in the church basement next Sunday on account of the repairs that are going on in the upper room. The evening service will be a union service in the Chautauquus tent.

It doesn't hurt our feelings to tell us that there is no news in the paper at times. If nothing occurs, shall we manufacture untrue news? We are in touch at all times with every neighborhood for miles around and are pretty well able to state that "thus and so," is so or not.

The ball game last Saturday afternoon between the Oak Park Maroons and the Y. M. C. A. team looked like defeat for the latter until the ninth inning when the score stood 7 to 5 in favor of the city team, then the pitcher from away got rattled and the Y. M. C. A. won the game by the score of 8 to 7.

The annual Lake county Teachers' Institute will be held in the high school rooms of the Central school, Waukegan, August 26 to 30th. The list of lectures will be given by well known educators.

"Every little bit helps," so when you feel like roasting employees just do office because news is scarce, just do your own news items that you know yourself and drop them in the Review box near Hawley's store.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Simmons are, we regret to report, preparing to remove from Barrington about the 17th to Plymouth, Hancock county, Illinois, where a fine opening in dental work has been given the doctor. Plymouth is about the size of Barrington and is on the C. B. & Q. railroad, some eighteen miles east of the Mississippi.

When you feel cheated because the Review contains little news some dull week, why not make a little news yourself by having a runaway, breaking your leg, robbing your neighbor or beating your wife? We would be glad to fully report the occurrence.

The Rev. James H. Gardner of Chicago has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist church here and will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning for the first time as the church pastor. He will continue his studies at the Chicago University and reside in the city.

Miss Mabel Wagner who entered the Baptist Training School for Nurses in Chicago in June on three months trial, was accepted as a student last Friday and has the right to wear the nurse's stripes. By her perseverance and general ability her term of probation was shortened.

The Mission Band of the Salem church will give an ice-cream social on the lawn at the home of A. H. Boehmer, Lake street, Monday evening, August 12th. The Barrington Band will play.

Robert Comstock purchased this week for $6000, the livery business of Charles Jahnik and the Jahnik home on the corner of Grove avenue and Station streets. Mr. Comstock took possession of the livery on Thursday and the family will occupy their new home October first. Part of the deal was an exchange of real estate.

Liquor dealers are undesirable citizens from the viewpoint of fraternal societies. The Catholic Order of Foresters is the latest organization to place a ban on saloon owners and the white-jacketed dispensers of alcoholic drink. The action was taken in the national convention of the body in St. Paul this week. Only one lodge, St. Eglies, admit saloon keepers to membership.

What's in a Name?
Perhaps you may have heard of the celebrated divine who could move a congregation to tears simply by repeating the word "Mesopotamia." It was in the sound. Some words have individuality of their own. You cannot twist "Mesopotamia" to mean anything but a sleepy, sun-kissed land. Yet could you, for instance, endow each soft vowel sounds with the rugged quality of our unmistakable rock, Saksatchewan!

Saksatchewan! Spoken as though it came from the tall ridged chest of a tall red man, this in the bank, hard in the leg, spoken as though with the exhalation of lungs full of rugged northern air. Long word in the vocabulary of cities surpasses this in the virility of its utter sound? It reeks of kankink and dried white fish and smoked breasts of wild geese and service berry and pemican. You cannot avoid seeing dog sledges, or help hearing the honk of wildfowl, or refrain from noting the blown breath of men running in the cold, who you hear the fur name, wild, mysterious, of this river, one of the trails of the young men—Emerson Hough is Outing Magazine.

Sleep on a Hard Bed,
No matter how comfortable a soft bed and large, soft pillows may be they are not healthy. Women especially would do well to avoid them, for they assist materially in injuring the physical appearance. With the body slumped in a soft bed a considerable portion of the skin is robbed of proper ventilation, and circulation is interfered with. A hard bed will make the flesh firm and the figure graceful.

He Reclaimed His Jewels.
One day while Rabbi Meir was away from home teaching at college his two children were suddenly taken ill and died. When on returning he inquired about them his wife, Beruria, first gave him an evasive answer and then, leading the conversation to another topic, related to him how her man who had left some jewels in her care had come back to reclaim them. "Am I to give them back?" she asked. "How can you put such a question?" said he. "Of course you are to return them to the owner." Beruria then took her husband into the chamber where the two children were lying, and pointing to them, while her tears were overflowing and her heart was nearly breaking, she courageously said: "The owner has come today and reclaimed these jewels in our trust."—From the Talmud.
