Number Mail Boxes.

Postmasters have received orders from the postmaster general in regard to the numbering of rural mail boxes.
The rural carriers have been given instruction to make a report of the number of boxes on their routes and of the percentage which are not numbered and report to headquarters.
One of the rural carriers stated that it is almost impossible to keep the boxes numbered with any uniformity, due to the large amount of moving every spring and fall.

Local Happenings Told in Short Paragraphs

Thanksgiving Day was very quietly passed in this village. Many homes were scenes of family reunions and many former residents were guests for the day here.
Read the display ad. of Mrs. Nellie Evans, hairdresser.
Mrs. John Schlupp visited with friends at Elgin over Sunday.
Edward Ernst and Fred Sandman are lathing a house at Cary this week.
Miss Myrtle E. Mattison of Chicago was in Barrington for a day this week on a visit to her parents.
Miss Olive and Raymond Haelele and Miss Alma Stiefenhofer were in Highland Park Sunday with friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Hinkman and daughter, Freda, of Chicago, were guests Saturday and Sunday at Fred Bein-hoff's, Sr.

Ralph Wendt and Marie Schumacher visited friends at Gilmer Thursday.
The next W. C. T. U. meeting will be Thursday evening, December 5th, at the home of Mrs. F. H. Frye.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schulz and daughter, Leona, visited relatives at Dundee, Saturday and Sunday.
The annual election of officers for Barrington Camp, No. 809, M. W. A. will be held in their hall next Tuesday evening.
The Woman's club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. George Knaggs. On December 12th, Mrs. E.
Cannon is hostess.
The price of dressed turkeys took a decided drop yesterday morning. They were offered at the markets from 10 to 12c. No excuse for anyone not having had their fill of turkey.
V. Weichelt and daughters, Misses Gertrude and Martha, and Max Weichelt and Miss Emma Kolb of Chicago were guests at the home of Dr. A. Weichelt yesterday.

G. H. Comstock purchased Monday of William Howarth ten acres of land adjoining his farm three miles west of this village, for $800.
John Laufenberger, who has a farm sale Monday, December 2nd, will move on a farm about three miles northeast of Palatine in December.
Miss Mabel Wagner was home from Chicago for the day last Friday. Two of her associate nurses at the Baptist hospital accompanied her.
Window glazing in all sizes from a 75 to a 36x32 always carried in st. ck.
Glazing promptly attended to.
LAMEY & COMPANY.

We desire to call your attention to the business card appearing in this paper of M. W. Mattison, who is an attorney and will make his home in Barrington.
He is well recommended. He is a son of Rev. O. F. Mattison.
Lamey & Company received Wednesday another carload of the well known brand of Alpha Portland cement which is manufactured at Easton, Pennsylvania. This makes the second car for the month of November. When you use the Alpha you know what you are getting. Every bag of cement guaranteed.
Women friendly to make Christmas gifts will have good opportunities to buy useful and pretty articles at the Baptistazaar, next Friday, December 8th, and at the W. R. C. bazaar in the G. A. R. hall, Wednesday, December 18th. Both of these affairs will be open afternoon and evening and supper will be served.

Nicholas Payson, who was so badly burned here last week by falling into a bon-fire in the stock yards while intoxicated, died early Monday morning at the Cook County hospital.
The first quarterly conference of the Methodist church will be held on Friday evening, December 6th, at eight o'clock at the church. The presiding elder, Dr. M. E. Cady, will be present.
Charles Downing and family of Chicago were guests of the Ernest Rieke family the first of week. Mr. Downing formerly lived here and was a member of the Barrington Social and Athletic club.

Mrs. T. L. C. Suh of Gilman, Illinois, formerly Miss Esther Lageschulte, was here this week at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lageschulte south of town. Mr. and Mrs. Suh have been appointed as missionaries to China by the Foreign Missionary Society of the United Evangelical church and are preparing to begin their work next July.

At the Majestic
While the vaudeville bills presented in Chicago's handsomest theatre, the Majestic, are always entertaining, a glance at the holiday announcements leads one to believe that the management are about to out-do all their previous efforts. Hosiand, known as the greatest of hand-cuff kings and jail breakers, will occupy the place of honor on the bill. His visit to the Majestic last season was one of the most sensational known in the history of vaudeville. One feat in particular which attracted attention was his escape from a packing-box, constructed by the packers of one of Chicago's department stores, after he had been securely tied with ropes, placed in the box and then nailed in by the men who had built it. He performs many other astonishing feats. Della Fox, the comic opera star, will be another of the important personages on the bill. In the comic opera world no one has ever enjoyed a greater eminence than Della Fox. She appeared with De Wolf Hopper for a number of years in "Wang" until she became a star. Harry Gilfill will be another of the musical comedy lights who will adorn the programme. His offering is called "Haron Sands" the popular man about town and affords opportunity to do some splendid work as the jolly old man of seventy-four who is still "one of the boys." Julie Kern, the talented daughter of the late James A. Kern, will be seen in a one act playette called "Between the Acts."
There are fully half a dozen other acts.
