PASSED TO THE BEYOND

John Landwehr Passed Away Saturday Afternoon and Mrs. Weichelt Died Sunday Evening.

John Garrett Landwehr of Liberty street passed peacefully into another world Saturday afternoon, February 19, at six o'clock. Death came almost unnoted and it was only a transition from the sleep of life to that of death. Mr. Landwehr had been very well and strong all winter for a man of 83 years and about six weeks ago was down town on business. Thursday and Friday of last week he was somewhat bothered by colic of the stomach and lay on a couch. Miss Rieke Landwehr, others, were seated near him Saturday afternoon and after giving him attention and care turned to speak with one another, and in a few moments on returning to the couch found that the old father had breathed his last with no sound or movement.

Mr. Landwehr had been a resident of this vicinity for 61 years and was the second oldest settler of this country-visit and good man with whom business dealings were agreeable and he raised a large family who have been a credit to the community. He was a member of the Salem church and a contributor to its needs.

John Garrett Landwehr was born in Schalle, Westphalen, Germany, January 7, 1819. He came to America in 1844 when twenty-five years old, settling in Manchester, Mich., where he married Miss Fannie Lischack, July 4, 1846. (That same year in September they came west to Deere Grove, two and a half miles east of Barrington. Here they purchased a farm and lived until twenty years ago when they came to Barrington. Mrs. Landwehr died May 2, 1897. They were the parents of eleven children of whom four daughters and two sons are living who are Henry and Louis Landwehr of Deere Grove, Mrs. Henry Glecke of Williams street, Mrs. Chris Hart who lives just beyond the west village limits, Mrs. B. Niemeier north of town about a mile and Miss Rieke Landwehr who has always lived with her father and been a faithful, loving assistant. There are also 18 grand children and ten great grand children in Barrington or near.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Salem church following prayers at the house. Rev. Haelele conducted the services and burial was in Evergreen cemetery.

Mrs. Lina Weichelt aged 63 years, mother of Dr. A. Weichelt of this village, died at her late residence 387 Mohawk street, Chicago, Sunday evening from apoplexy with which she was stricken Friday evening. Two and one half years ago she suffered a stroke but recovered. Mrs. Weichelt was born November 3, 1843 at Jena, Germany and came to America, with her husband and family in 1868. Her first made their home at Maguinlewa, and removed to Chicago nine years later where they have since resided. Her husband, six sons and two daughters survive and three sons and one daughter have preceded her to the other world. Those surviving are Dr. Arthur of this village; Hugo, son of Elton, South Dakota; Walter, of St. Louis, Mo.; Otto, George, Max of Missoula, and Martha all of whom resided at home with their parents. The funeral was held Wednesday from the late residence and burial at Graceland.

David McLaughlin of Proffitstown, Ill., returned home Tuesday after a two weeks visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Palmer.

Milking Machine.
Chas. Matthews of Nunda township has installed a milking machine for use with his dairy of 56 cows. It is a wonder, and is exciting the attention of the farmers of the township, who have for some time been discussing these time and labor saving inventions. The hired help problem has reached a most acute stage, it being almost impossible to secure enough men to do the work on the dairy farms. If the milking can be accomplished successfully by machines, the question will be largely solved.—Nunda Herald.

The program and drama given by the L. Y. C. last Friday night at the Opera House was largely attended. The program was good, although the society was disappointed in not having a reader. WASHINGTON, our Washington, again the crowning year
Bring back to us thy natal day, which ever grows more dear.

WASHINGTON, our Washington, we see thee kneeling there,
Amidst the snows of Valley Forge, with hands upraised in prayer.

The God of Battles heard thy call and answer to thee sent.
Through all these weary, anxious years his angel with thee went.

WASHINGTON, our Washington, be thou our guiding star,
As thou didst lead us in the past, still lead us now afar.

Still Father of thy Country, be, guard and protect thy land,
And may the ship of state e'er feel thy wise and steadfast hand.

WASHINGTON, our Washington, on blue Potomac's shore
Thy body lies in deep eternal rest, at rest forevermore.
But thy great soul lives on and on; more glorious grows thy fame,
And millions yet unborn will add their praises to thy name.

Ben Beulich, Formerly of Barrington, is Out For Revenge.

The following clipping from the Chicago Examiner of Monday refers to Ben Beulich, of Barrington, whose mother lives on South Hawley street, Orland, Ill., Feb. 18, 9 p. m. The 90 inhabitants of this town are to witness a real fight.

"I'll take them on one at a time," he declared tonight, and I will wager I will be the victor. When the two men whipped me I had no chance to defend myself and at any rate would not have fought back in the presence of my pupils.

The instructor is 6 feet 2 inches in height, but is very meek in appearance and looks like a minister.

AN EARLY MORNING FARE

Barrington Roller Mills and Severe Loss. Will Re-open Soon.

The Barrington Roller Mills, owned by Pomeroy & Co., took fire about 2 o'clock this (Thursday) morning. Night Watchman Magee was the first to discover it and gave the alarm by shouting his revolver and the local tramps gave the fire whistle.

The fire department under command of Chief James McKay was soon on the ground and found one of the hardest fires to fight they had since its organization. Within a few minutes they had three runs of hose playing on the fire and had it under control within an hour.

The origin is not known, but it is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. It started in the north part of the building on the first floor and had burned through the lower and upper floors before the fire department arrived. Flames had also broken through the north end of the Mill. The department is deserving of a great deal of credit for its prompt action. In a few minutes more the fire would have gained such a headway that it could not have been gotten under control. Fortunately, there was no any wind blowing.

The loss in building and machinery will run from $3,500 to $5,000. Only $5,000 insurance was carried $2,000 on building and $1,000 on contents in the Miller-National Insurance Co.

The damage to machinery is not very great. New bellows will be required and that appears to be about all.

Mr. Dempsey said this morning that they hoped to be running again within a week or two days.

A GOOD SOCIAL.

It Was a Success, Socially and Financially.

The social last Friday evening in 26th's hall promoted by the Junior Christian Endeavor League of the Salem church was a fine success, if success is judged by enjoyment and financial gain. A well filled hall surrounded the young people and they are proud to announce that $20. were received. A few bazar features in the way of candy and popcorn salts with coffee, pie and sandwiches also offered, made the society's purse plumper. A program was given as follows:

Song—Attitude.
Talk on missionary and charity work—Mrs. Frank Glecke.
Recitation—Constance Purcell.
Quartette—Four League Members.
Reading—Violet Landwehr.
Cornet Duet—W. Hill and N. Plages.

Rosetta, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Strobusch who live on the Kirschner farm, while playing Monday afternoon drank some kerosene and was seized immediately with lock jaw. The child also turned almost black and fear was felt that she would not recover.
