How to Run a Newspaper.

When a good man goes astray, keep it out.
When the critics roast a play, keep it out.
When two men in anger clash, when a merchant goes to smash, when the cashier steals the cash—keep it out.
When they quarrel in a church, keep it out.
When a teacher wields a birch, keep it out.
When nine women, fair to see, whisper something over tea—print it? Goodness gracious me! keep it out!
When two statesmen make a deal, keep it out.
When another tries to steal, keep it out.
Stories and bad and stories tall; Good and bad and big and small—Anything that's new at all—Hear 'em shout, "Keep it out!"
(Sing this to the tune of "Hilicola")
