

BARRINGTON REVIEW.

VOL. 23, NO. 41.

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 3, 1908

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

JAHNKE-GIESKE

Barrington Couple Married December 31st. Two Other Marriages.

The marriage of Miss Minnie Gieske, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gieske of Grove avenue, to Charles Jahnke was performed Tuesday, December 31st, at high noon at the Zion parsonage by the Rev. John Widener. They were unaccompanied and after the ceremony took the noon train to Chicago, returning in the evening.

On New Year's day a family reunion was held at the Gieske home, which twenty-five attended to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Jahnke.

The bride and groom were born and raised in this vicinity and are most favorably known by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Miss Gieske was formerly a dress-maker and for the last few years has been an active and capable assistant at the Landwehr general store. She is a member of the Evangelical Association church.

Mr. Jahnke until last fall had for years been in the livery business in Barrington.

They will be at home after February first in their own home on Grove avenue which was formerly the Holmes property.

BROWN ROLOFF

Miss Mary Roloff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roloff of Russell street, was married in Chicago, Thursday, January 2nd to Mr. Fred Brown of South Bend, Indiana. Miss Rose Landwehr accompanied her sister to the city. Mr. Brown is a farmer who at present is not engaged in that work. Their plans and place of residence are not as yet decided.

EBERT-SMABLOTT

Herman Ebert, who has been employed at the Grebe store for two months, was married Christmas day to Miss Blanche Smablot of Fairfield in the Southern part of the state. They are expected here before Sunday and will occupy a flat in the Larchmont building.

Does it Pay to Advertise?

C. F. Hall Company, Dundee, without doubt spend more money for advertising in papers printed within a radius of twenty miles of Dundee than any other firm in this section of the state. Does it pay? It most certainly does or this progressive firm would not be doing it. If you need further convincing drive over to Dundee on a Saturday afternoon on any other afternoon and you will be surprised at the number of people that you will see who do not live in or about Dundee.

Another up-to-date business man is Harry T. Fuller of Wauconda, who shows his faith in advertising by the space he uses in the Wauconda Leader. Any one from Wauconda will tell you that it is doing the business of the town and vicinity. In Barrington we have fifty business houses and among them only about a dozen value advertising. We have as good stores here as you will find in any town its size. They have equally as good inducements to offer you. All that is lacking is there saying so themselves. If you wish to increase your business there is no better way than in being a liberal advertiser. It certainly pays.

Tax Books Completed.

The work of extending the taxes in Lake County was completed by a corps of clerks at the county clerk's office of Lake County at Waukegan Saturday. The totals show the following interesting figures:

Total assessment (1-5 full value of county)	$10,840,432
Total tax (county $85, 712.80)
Cuba	15,902.16
Ela	14,866.89
Waukegan	11,088.05
Prescott	10,443.94
Libertyville	11,481.73
Vernon	14,328.65

A Higher Health Level.

"I have reached a higher health level since I began using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Springer of West Franklin, Maine. "They keep my stomach, liver and bowels working just right." If these pills disappoint you on trial, money will be refunded at Barrington Pharmacy, 25c.

Sunday Closing.

Do the people who insist on going to the markets, the bakeries and the barber shops on Sunday realize the wrong they are doing to the proprietors of these establishments, by compelling them to lose their day of rest? Leaving out of sight all thought of the Sabbath as a day set apart by the Almighty for religious worship and the resulting obligation to regard the day as a sacred day, it must be said that it is a day needed by man and beast for rest. "Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work, but the Sabbath is the day of rest." The man of toll needs the merchant and the tradesman need it. Every man who works six days, is entitled to one day for rest. To needlessly deprive him of it, is to rob man and God. Yet people persist in going to the market on Sunday morning to buy their supplies, when they could just as well secure them on Saturday. This compels the butcher to be in his shop at an early hour in order to get ready for church, and that after he has kept open late Saturday night to accommodate his customers, as well as every night in the week.

We say this is not right. It is making a slave of a man, trying him down to his place of business and depriving him of his God given rights. A little more thoughtfulness on the part of the people would put a stop to all this. Why not commence the New Year by turning over a new leaf, and "do by others as you would like to be done by." If you, reader, were a butcher, a baker, or a baker, would you not feel that you were entitled to a day of rest, and that other people might be willing you should have it? These men keep open simply because you compel them to do so. It is not their choice. They do care. They want the same chance you have to rest and be at home with their families. The writer knows how they feel. Hence this plea in their behalf.

O. F. M.

Speaks Well of Our Mill.

Editor Carr of the Wauconda Leader in this weeks issue says: "While passing through Barrington recently we observed that the grist mill there was being well patronized and the string of teams reminding us of the days when our mill was running and when scores of farmers came in with big loads of wheat and feed to be ground. Many of these farmers now go to Barrington and we hear only praise of the team at their receipt there by the team at their receipt there by the proprietors, except that they often have to buy more bags to bring home their grain, the grist mill and flour often being a surprise to them."

Wauconda certainly did have one of the best mills in this section of the state. Its loss by five or six years ago necessitated its patrons to seek one equally as good and they made no mistake in coming to Barrington to the mill operated by Pomeroy & Company.

Men's Club to be Organized.

Through the efforts of Rev. O. F. Mattison of the Methodist church a men's club is being formed, having for its object mutual acquaintance and friendly intercourse. It is expected that a monthly meeting will be held and that a small voluntary offering will be collected for necessary expenses. All men over eighteen are invited to join. Programs on five topics will be given followed by a social half hour. Cards are being issued stating the purpose of the club and men who wish to be members are referred to Mr. Mattison. A Lincoln program for February 11th is under consideration.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kruszyne.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kruszyne, wife of Frank Kruszyne of the Rohmner farm, southwest of town, died Saturday morning, December 29th, 1907, at 2 o'clock. She was the mother of eight children, the eldest being about seventeen years old. A child born that morning also died and was buried with the mother. The funeral was held Tuesday morning, December 31st at nine o'clock at St. Ann's Catholic church, Barrington, with Father Hanley of Norwood Park officiating. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery.

STATE CONVENTION

Short Account of Teachers' Meeting at Springfield Which Was Attended by Prof. Fulton.

Prof. S. J. Fulton of the Barrington school attended the State Teachers' Convention at Springfield, December 26, 27 and 28.

Eminent educators addressed the sessions among them: Rabal Bull Hirsch, one of the foremost Jews of the country, Francis Blair, State superintendent of Public Instruction, Gov. Deussen, who was once a teacher, and Elmer E. Brown, U. S. Commissioner of Education.

Prof. Fulton gives a report of the address of Prof. George Vincent of Chicago University upon "The New Day of the School" as follows:

"Prof. Vincent discussed at length the social conditions that surrounded pupils of high school age. Attention was called to the fact that a turbulent spirit has shown itself in high schools all over the country due largely to the attempt of college graduates who go out as teachers to carry with them the social atmosphere of the college not realizing perhaps that the fraternities and societies which are in many ways harmful to the college are doubly so to the high-school where the tender age and immaturity of mind of the students make it impossible to maintain class organizations and clubs without breeding jealousy and strife. Yet it was advised that where practicable, the opening of school gymnasiums, play rooms and reading rooms several evenings each week have brought improved moral conditions and a higher appreciation of the value of the school. With a slight expenditure of money together with the earnest cooperation of parents I am sure that the foregoing suggestion could be put into effect in the Barrington school and thus provide a place where the youth of the community may in some measure satisfy that yearning for sociability that every healthy child possesses by nature."

M. E. Church Officers.

The annual election of officers and teachers of the Methodist church occurred on Monday night with the following result: H. S. Freeman, superintendent; H. A. Harmon, assistant superintendent; Miss Carrie Kingsley, treasurer; W. C. Harbord, secretary; Miss Alta Powers, pianist; Miss Hattie Frye, organist; Mrs. Sage Hodge, chorister. Mrs. J. E. Heise was elected superintendent of the primary department. The teachers were all re-elected for another year. The school is flourishing. The public installation of the new officers and teachers will occur one week from Sunday morning at the time of the regular services.

Monday Noon Meetings.

Pastor A. C. Dixon, of the Moody church, will preach every Monday at the noon hour during January in the Great Northern Theater. January 6th: "Evangelism: God's Search for the Lost." January 13th: "Evangelism: Its Meaning and Methods." January 20th: "Evangelism: How to Become a Soul-Winner." January 27th: "Evangelism: Its Rewards." The object of these meetings will be to win people to Christ and to inspire all Christians to become soul winners.

Sunday School Teachers' Class.

A training class for Sunday school teachers has been recently organized in connection with the Methodist Sunday school in Barrington. There is a good prospect for a large attendance. It will for the present meet at 7:30 on Wednesday evening, half an hour before the prayer meeting. The class will be open for any who may desire to avail themselves of the benefits it gives.

Rural Carriers' Meeting.

The rural carriers out of Barrington attended a meeting of Cook County Rural Letters Carriers' association at the Sherman House, Chicago, last Saturday evening. Many carriers were taken in as members from Lake and Du Page counties. S. L. Landwehr of this place is president of the association.

Swedish doctors do not send bills for services to their patients, but have the payment entirely to the generosity of the latter.

City and Country for Scholars.

The conclusion reached by Mr. Walter H. Page in "The World's Work that it is better to locate colleges in the city than in the country is sharply challenged by American Medicine in a recent editorial. Mr. Page made a series of investigations last year and advised the establishment of colleges in cities, where, he says, temptations are no greater than in the villages. Says American Medicine:

"City life is very steady to the young men and the atmosphere for a long time, and we are now in a fair way to regain the momentum. For instance, of years country families have packed to the towns to do out in a few generations, so that cities are said to be crowded with rural populations. Many of these rural populations are of unknown strain, but their children grow up in cities and before they know it are all their city bred children. The country strains which possess substantial homes is doing more for the survival of the fittest than any public school. Mr. Page's advice, then, to continue to damage by establishing the colleges in the cities is doubtful and should be rebuked by the medical profession at once."

These conclusions are entitled to a hearing. It is claimed that the cities offer college boys a broader view of life. But during school days this advantage may be a hindrance rather than a help to sound education. Boys should not attend college until they are too early. They would be cynical fast enough when they strike the real problems of life. Boys lured to city life have a certain kind of precocity, but it is a false precocity. Many of them, out that a "tremendous percentage of noted men have been educated out of the cities."

Father McGann's Opinion.

The Chicago Record-Herald of Jan. 2nd published the following: "Although a temperance advocate, Rev. J. J. McGann, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church, Elgin, surprised his friends and critics alike in his sermon New Year's by attacking the methods of parents in local opinion workers."

He took text from St. Paul: "We Should Live Soberly, Justly and Godly in this World."

"Cities cannot be run like a Sunday school class of children," he said, "if laws are enforced so well that we can not see violations without taking dark lanterns and sneaking around back doors. I think we should be satisfied. People who take fine combs or magnifying glasses to detect moral corruption are all right, too finical."

"I think we ought to give city officials a fair show. When laws are enforced so well that we have to employ detective men to find crime, then I think we are going too far. We elect city officials to enforce the laws. If they don't do their duty we can change them at the next election. The moral isn't going to wreck and ruin within two or four years, with the remedy in our hands."

At Once.

He came down to breakfast and nothing was ready, so he rang the bell. "Mrs. Perkins," he said when the boiling house keeper appeared, "what is the meaning of this? Why is breakfast not ready?"

"Well, sir," replied Mrs. Perkins, "I got a nice bit of fish for you, but I'm sorry to say, sir, the cat."

"Well, then, some eggs?"

"There are no eggs, sir, the cat."

"Bring it all, then cook the cat, and we'll have it all at once!"—London Mail.

Ground Flat.

A young man from a country village when sightseeing in Edinburgh was greatly astonished on seeing "Mr. Smith, Tailor (ground flat)," inscribed on a door and after a careful study of the plate exclaimed:

"Great Scott, it's a death! Shaly has been ordered to wear a steam roller!"—London Graphic.

Her Preference.

"Think Child (who has just been assured of the company of the angels if the dark room)—Yes, but mummy, couldn't you have the angels and leave me the candle?"—Punch.

Initiative.

"Mother—Whatever are you doing to poor old father, child?—I'm just going to put her to bed, mummy. I've taken off her hair, but I can't get her back out"—Source.

"What name?" asked the young woman at the laundry office as she took the customer's bundle. "William Ar. rings," answered the customer. "I don't know," said the young woman, starting at him. "I might. But ain't you pretty tolerably familiar on short acquaintance?"—Chicago Tribune.
