The Persian Language.
Persian is said to be not a very difficult language. The modern Persian is very much like the English in its sentence, rejection of the inflections that burden so many of the world's tongues.
There is no difference of termination to mark the gender either in nouns or adjectives, and all inanimate things are neuter. In other ways the Persian conforms to the English-London Chronicle.
"Did you ever get over her mother's objection to you?"
"Yes, I told her that she looked as young as her daughters."
"That caught the vein of lady, I suppose."

This is a mere out-line of the work of the church since its organization in 1846. There are pictures of the church, pastor and John Robertson's residence.
The part devoted to the village contains the names of families, of the school board and officers, of the school board and teachers and a list of the societies and organizations of different kinds with the time and place of meetings. There is a fine full page picture of the public school building and of all the churches in the village.
The directory represents a good deal of work and it is hoped that the citizens of Barrington will find it of use as a book of reference. The advertisements are mostly from business houses in our community and show on the part of the advertisers a new, commendable public spirit.
The work was done in the office of the Barrington Review and is a credit to the management and to our town as well.
The directory will be offered for sale by canvassers for a small sum, and a copy should find a place in every home and business house in the village.

No Use To Die.
"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushville, Pa. "I would not be alive today only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than anything else, and cures lung disease even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, influenza, asthma, bronchitis and horse-ness, is sold under guarantee at Barrington Pharmacy. 50c. and $1.00.

Will Build This Spring.

sub-division are as follows: lots 2 and 3 to Dr. Oleott; lots 4 and 5 to Charles L.
Ulrich; lot 13 to Foster Weigel of Evanston. Mr. Cady has the excavating for the basement finished and is planning the completion of his resi-Oleott both plan building modern houses this spring on their recent mated appearance this summer. A Jesuit priest who visited here six years ago predicted that this sub-advantages were many.

The Mocking Bird.
Of song birds the mocking bird is easily king. The skylark and nightingale deserve all of the praise that the poets have given them. They are sweet songsters indeed, but when it comes to a contest with the mocking bird their famed music wither away.
In its variety, range, volume and sweetness the song of the mocking bird has no equal in the feathered kingdom. To hear the "falling song" of the mocking bird on a moonlight night in June is to hear that which never yet came from throat of skylark or nightingale.—New York American.
Of Course She Would.
When the train made its first stop after leaving home, Mr. Simpkins, who had been in a brown study for several minutes, raised his eyes, which had a troubled look in them, and remarked:
"My dear, are you sure we haven't forgotten anything?"
"Of course we haven't," responded the good lady cheerfully. "I would have thought of it the minute the train started."
Stranger—What sort of a man is your neighbor, John Briggs?
Native—Oh, he's all right, but he has a telescopic imagination.
Stranger—How's that?
Native—Yes, he can't even tell the truth without getting it at least two sizes larger than it is.
During the summer of 1839 the Valley was the first boat of iron that navigated the western rivers, was
