Heise's Given Reception.

The reception tendered by the citizens of Barrington to Mr. and Mrs. J.
E. Heise, at the Methodist church on Tuesday evening was a success notwithstanding the rain. There were nearly a hundred persons present.
First came a short program of music and addresses.

There was an invocation after which Henry Brown sang a solo. This was followed by remarks from Rev. O. F.
Mattison, A. W. Holmes, George Stiefenhofer, S. J. Fulton and Henry J. Lageschulte, all speaking of the good work done by Heise since he has been a citizen of Barrington. Mr.
Heise made response, thanking his friends for their kind words. Arnett Lines sang a solo, and the Misses Blakes and Solt furnished a vocal duet.
Dr. Richardson acted as chairman. At the conclusion of the program there was a social hour with refreshments and games by the young folks and others. Mr. and Mrs. Heise received many expressions of good will from the large number present.

Mr. Heise left for the northwestern part of Canada Wednesday evening and will be gone for several months. He will probably change his residence permanently, as soon as suitable arrangements can be made.

At the Majestic.

Vesta Victoria, the most famous of all English music hall stars, is the feature of extraordinary at the Majestic theatre. Chicago, for the week of April 13th. Miss Victoria has succeeded in popularizing more songs than any other entertainer of her class.
On the same bill there will also be an array of artists covering almost the entire field of vaudeville. Violet Dale, a charming American singer and impersonator, is one of the chief features. The Melani trio, of instrumentalists and vocalists, whose comedy is exceptional are ranked among the very best of the high class entertainers. Mason and Shannon, the funny farceurs, have to offer a brilliant comedy sketch which is said to be packed full of fun and laughter, and the Gudschildt brothers and the remarkable Ben Hassan Arabs who show what remarkable skill and training can accomplish when applied by experts to the manner born. The Two Pucks, skilled dancers, and Gertrude Des Roche, a pretty little singing soubrette and dancer, contribute another element of novelty to the bill, which will also include a number of other smart acts calculated to make this a typical Majestic bill.

Death Was on His Heels.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1902.
He says: An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world. Sold under guarantee at Barrington Pharmacy. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Government Lands Offered.

A number of exceptional opportunities will be offered this spring by the Government for enterprising and intelligent farmers to secure choice farms on a dozen or more large irrigation projects which are now nearing completion. Owing to the rapid narrowing of the limits of the unoccupied public domain, it is doubtful if these opportunities will ever occur again.
One such farm is 412 choice 40-acre farms in Montana which he offers today, on very easy terms, to practical farmers who are citizens of the United States. These farms are in eastern Montana, in the fertile valley of the Yellowstone River, one of the richest agricultural sections of the Northwest.
Each is located within three miles of a railroad, and each is irrigated by one of the best irrigation systems in the world.

A letter addressed to The Statist-cian, U. S. Reclamation Service, Washington, D. C., will secure full information concerning the location, soil, climate, crop possibilities and terms of disposal.

He Got What He Needed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at Barrington Pharmacy, 50c.

"You know," said a smart young man to a girl, "some one has said that if you would make a lasting pair of boots, take for the sole the tongue of a woman."

"Yes," replied the girl, "and for the uppers you ought to take the cheek of the man who said it."

"Would you send a man who uses profanity to congress?"

"I dunno," answered Farmer Corn-tossed. "Of course I don't approve of profanity; but, then, I'd want him to be able to hold his own in any of them arguments that come up."—Washing-
