MR. WHITMAN WILL SPEAK.
There will be a meeting of the Men's Club of Barrington at the M. E. church on the evening of Monday, May 11th, at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by Mr. John L. Whitman, of Chicago, Superintendent of the house of Correction. His topic will be "A Casuist's View of the Criminal Classes." Mr. Whitman has had large experience with these classes and his address will be deeply interesting. All men are invited. There will be the usual social time in the lecture room after the address where light refreshments will be served.

WILL HAVE BAKERY WAGON.
Ernest Aukels, our baker, will establish next week a bakery wagon in Barrington. He proposes to make one or two trips around the village streets each day, enabling you to purchase at your doors the best of bakery goods, warm from the oven. Mr. Aukels is an enterprising merchant, with up-to-date ideas, and deserves the home trade. Buy your bread, pies, cakes, etc., of the home baker and help build up home trade.

MUST PAY PUPILS TUITION.
A new school law compels county districts to pay tuition for a four years high school course for any of their pupils who are eighth grade graduates. This law should materially increase the attendance in all high schools, as heretofore many children have been denied a high school course because their parents could not spare the tuition money.

A HUSTLING YOUNG MAN.
Wilbert C. Naehrer has moved into the Lipovsky building on Main street and has added a complete stock of post cards and stationery to his magazine store. He also has a nice line of the latest books which are for sale at moderate prices, or will be rented at the rate of two cents per day. Wilbert intends to put in a good circulating library in the near future.

A CALIFORNIAN'S LUCK.
"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Rockler's Arctic Balm," writes Charles F. Hudson, of Tracy, California. "Two 25c boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and yielded to no other treatment." Sold under guarantee at BARRINGTON PHARMACY.

THE MAJESTIC'S PROGRAM.

The Majestic theatre, Chicago, has secured for this week of May 11th another of those diversified bills of genuine vaudeville which the public always finds at that famous house. One very attractive novelty will be along the line of genuine art, the feature being Marcel's Art Studies in which there are wonderfully artistic poses and groupings by living models. Eva Taylor, a famous leading actress, who has been identified with some of the best stock companies in the country, including the noted organization at the Chicago Opera House, will appear with excellent support in a legitimate comedy entitled "Chums." Barry and Halvers, two famous dancers and farceurs who gained great renown in "Habs in Toyland" and have since become accepted leaders in the art of eccentric dancing and comedy fooling, will be very popular and entertaining element on this bill. Another interlude of fun will be provided by Roberts, Hayes and Roberts, known as "The Cowboy, the Swell and the Lady." Mrs. Das McAvoy, whose name is known throughout the world as an entertainer of rare originality and merit will also present an amusing sketch, while the Reiff Brothers, deservedly regarded as the best dancing team in the business, are certain to meet with that favor which always attends their efforts. There are plenty of other excellent features on this bill which, as usual, at the Majestic is worth two or three times the price of admission.

BUMSTEAD HERE.

F. K. Bumstead, publisher of the Lake County directory, is here today with a copy of the gathering information for his seventh issue of the directory. All of the village of Barrington and the four rural routes are included in the directory which will be ready for delivery about July 1st.

AT AUCTION.

The Hastings place on Hough street will be sold at auction Monday, May 11th at 3 o'clock p. m. Sale on the premises. CHARLES F. HASTINGS, Administrator.

THE CAMPAIGN FOR BEAUTY.

Just now there is beginning throughout America a most significant movement. In the cities it is taking the form of an agitation for more parks, more artistic architecture and the getting rid of unsightly objects and unimproved grounds. In the villages it is the same thing, but on a smaller scale. In the country it includes the preservation of the trees and the beautifying of the landscapes. Everywhere there is a desire to produce a more harmonious and agreeable environment, such as has always been the accompaniment of great and noble civilizations. It is worthy of note that the development of beauty not only in the line usually known as art, but in landscape effects, gardening, architecture and the like, has been in every nation that has reached or has even approached a position of supremacy. Nearly all of Egypt's remains are the ruins of her architecture. Greece reached her highest solo expression in her art and classic buildings. Rome, great as she was in arms and jurisprudence, was equally great in her noble edifices, her sculpture and her beautiful villas. England is not more renowned for her naval and commercial supremacy than for her landscape gardening and her fine old estates. In the miracle of modern history, my eye next in war and in her power to select the best from all the world, but she also excelled in her dainty and picturesque effects of her art, her architecture and her horticulture. The list could be extended indefinitely. It has already been carried to sufficient length to show that the greatness of a nation is measured by its appreciation and its expression of the beautiful.

Dolan's Noug For News.

The announcement of the second Lord Lytton's appointment as viceroy of India at a time when the government was keeping the matter a secret was one of the greatest feats of detective work that has been known. The editor of the Times was sitting at dinner next to an equally famous physician who happened to mention that Lord Lytton had consulted him that morning as to the fitness of his constitution to withstand the Indian climate. Deane wisely asked no questions, but drew his inferences from what he heard, and the next morning the Times announced the appointment of Lord Lytton as viceroy of India. Whether true or not, the story points the moral that the doctor should take care not to let any fact, however trivial, learned from a patient who consults him escape his lips.—Grand Magazine.

A celebrated chef comes from Europe to show Americans 108 different ways of cooking eggs.

One sure way of telling without sampling whether the egg is worth cooking any old way would be worth all the rest.

TIMES SOLD.

Mr. Savery announces in this weeks issue of his paper, The Grayslake Times, that it is to be his last number. The Times having been sold to Frank B. Gesler who was for twelve years owner of the Bangor, Wisconsin, Independent. Mr. Savery started the Times just three years ago last month, buying out the old Enterprise, and he is to be highly commended for the excellent paper which he has published since that time. Mr. Savery has not announced what his next venture will be. While we feel sorry to see his retirement, we congratulate him upon his success thus far.

Mr. Savery highly recommends his successor and we feel sure that the Times will be conducted in the same good way which has heretofore been its boast.
