CRASH AGAINST SALOON KEPER.

Attorneys Mattison of Barrington, and Pendleton of Chicago, Lawyers for Plaintiff, Win.

The Chicago Daily News of Tuesday, June 2nd, contained an account of the sustaining of the Appellate court of the decision of the lower court in the west side saloon keeper, who was sued by Catherine Nagel, for $1,000, for keeping her of the support of her brother through his assistance to insolvents. The brother, John Nagel, died January 21, 1907. The court maintain that the girl had cause for the recovery of damages from saloon keepers, as she was an invalid pauper, dependent on her brother who had supported her for years. The liquor killed him. Attorney M. W. Mattison of Barrington and Attorney C. H. Pendleton of Chicago, successful lawyers for Rev. Mattison, were the lawyers for plaintiff and are pleased to have finally won their case, so long pending.

Three Great Sales of Pianos.

A list that is the biggest that has ever been compiled, comprising five pianos, has just been issued by Lyon & Healy. This list contains the names of the hundreds of fine, new pianos just bought by Lyon & Healy from the Thomson Music Co. of the Healy Music Co. and the Big F. O. Furniture Co. when those concerns retired from the retail piano business. Moreover, the particulars of each instrument are given, so that the buyer may judge for himself whether or not the piano is a bargain.

The figures quoted are absolutely the best. Lyon & Healy are making a determined effort to close out all their great stocks of instruments within the next 30 days, and the prices here are reduced with this object in view. Send for a copy of this list. If you do not wish to pay cash for a piano, you can arrange for monthly payments.

Y. M. C. A. TEAM WINS.

Score 12 to 4 Saturday. Good Game Scheduled for Tomorrow.

Saturday the Y. M. C. A. defeated the Chicago Cubs in the score 12 to 4. The first half of the game proved quite interesting, the score being nearly even, but after the fourth inning the home team commenced to pile up scores and did not stop until they had three times that of the visitors. Towards the end of the game the Barrington boys did not even attempt to bring in runs or their final score would have been much greater than that was. Next Saturday the Y. M. C. A. will play the Chicago Stars, a very strong team, and if our boys play they have been playing, an excellent game may be expected.

President Spomer called the attention of the committee on fire and water to a state of affairs which he thought should be remedied. It seems that a number of public places in our town are paying the same water rate which they did when the system was first installed, although their consumption of water is much greater than it is at that time.

Treasurer Jenks's report for May was read and approved. It was suggested that the finance committee go over the treasurer's books with the books were in proper shape to be handed over to the latter, but Mr. Jenks's statement was not read and the committee was willing to accept them at that time. President Spomer then reported that Mr. Jenks give the books to Mr. Waterman, together with an account which he might be able to get at that time.

H. J. Lageschulte, chairman of the committee appointed to confer with the Northwestern Gas Light at Cook County that the company had agreed to furnish gas for the light down town and keep same in reserve for several five cents per month. The franchise gives the company provides for 2,000 feet of gas to be furnished free of charge.

It was suggested that the standpipes be painted and the matter was referred to the committee on fire and water. 92 Poles, village marshal, also said that a screen should be placed over the standpipes to prevent birds, etc., from getting into the water, which matter was also referred to the above named committee for investigation.

For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood the heat of throat and lung troubles. As a preventive of pneumonia, and healer of weak lungs, it has no equal. J. Smith of Park Ridge, formerly a Palatine pastor, was secured as speaker and delivered a talk that pleased all the audience.

Rev. Smith, although over eighty years old and retired from active work, is an enthusiastic lecturer and capable of holding the interest, he inspires his audience with his words. He talked about an hour. The Methodist church was the place of the entertainment, but not many were present and the money received was only $18.51.

A Local Option 14th. He thirsted for booze. It was labeled "cold tea." He was through the maze. And checked with glass. No questions to ask. Just plunk down your plunk. And pocket your flask. And go on a drunk. With a snail and a link. He hastened away. To enjoy his first drink. Since the seventh of May. In a dark, dingy place. He sampled his booze. And oh, what a treat! When he saw through the ruse. "You've come to a link. Yet he plainly could see. It was no more to kick. For 'twas really cold tea." J. A. Sanford.

After June 1st you are requested to call on my office monthly paper bills and save me the necessity of calling upon you. All bills should be paid before the 15th of the next month.

WENT TO THE BEYOND

Mrs. Eleanor Clark Fox Passed to Her Reward Monday June 1st.

Mrs. Eleanor Clark Fox, who died at her home in Lake Zurich, on Monday, June 1, 1908, was born in Southfield in the state of New York on April 22, 1828, so that at the time of her death she was a little past eighty-two years of age.

Mrs. Fox was married February 22, 1848, to J. Willard Fox with whom she came west to Illinois in 1857. They came to Lake Zurich and this has ever established their home on the shores of the lake, in a beautiful grove and here was erected a spacious building, which still stands, and in which both husband and wife passed from earth. Mrs. Fox died August 20, 1884.

They raised a family of six children, two sons and four daughters, who are: Miss E. Fox of Barrington; Mrs. Gertrude McClanahan, of Hoopville; and Mrs. Emily Beckley of Port Allegre, Pennsylvania; three are also seven grand-children and two great-grand-children.

Some of her children and grand-children were present and several friends called.

The closing scene in her life was peaceful. She fell asleep to open her eyes in that land where the inhabitants are the "Infirmities of age."

Belief funeral services were held at the home on Wednesday, June 3rd, Rev. O. P. Mattison, pastor of the Barrington Methodist Episcopal church officiating. Miss Emma Fontana and Miss Plagge sang "Auld Time" and "Lord Kindly Listen to the Service." Mrs. Beckley of Allegre was in attendance.

The burial was in Evergreen cemetery in Barrington. Mrs. Fox was a member of the Methodist church.

Horace Beane Deceased. Thursday morning while driving home to his farm near the West End street crossing of the E. J. & K. Charles Burkhardt's milk wagon horses were frightened at an approaching freight train and became unmanageable, the horses kicking, leaving the tug and getting loose. Mr. Burkhardt jumped from the wagon and caught his horse on the other one ran away, turning round and galloping back to town, leaving a trail of mud and manure.

The harness was dragging around the horses' legs, increasing its fright and the wagon was much damaged by the many hills and turns it received.

The runaway dashed through North Halsted street, turned on Williams street and crossed the Northwestern tracks and headed straight for Myer's candy store. The horse slipped on the cement walk and falling the horse would have gone through a plate glass window, missing a foot's length. Milk cans were scattered along the way. The animal was unhurt, although at first it was thought to be injured.

Club Elects Officers.

The annual election of officers of the Thursday club occurred at the home of Mrs. S. E. Howarth Thursday and resulted in the election of Mrs. Howarth, president; Mrs. Peck, vice president; Mrs. Emily Hawley, secretary; and Miss Fox, treasurer. Committees were appointed for the coming year.

Mr. Emily Hawley, in behalf of the club, presented Mrs. Howarth with a dark, dingy place. He sampled his booze. And oh, what a treat! When he saw through the ruse. "You've come to a link. Yet he plainly could see. It was no more to kick. For 'twas really cold tea." J. A. Sanford.

After June 1st you are requested to call on my office monthly paper bills and save me the necessity of calling upon you. All bills should be paid before the 15th of the next month.

WILL DECEASE GRAY.

The members of Barrington Camp Modern Woodmen are also expected to meet at their hall in the morning at 10 o'clock sharp of the same day when the graves of deceased members in St. Paul's Evangelical cemetery will be decorated. The camp will also attend services at the Baptist church in a box. BY ORDER OF COMMANDERS.

FOR THE NOMINATION

Young Lawyer of Niles is a Democratic Candidate for the Legislature.

Thos. A. Koll has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the office of state representative from the seventh district. He will oppose Walter A. Lutz, the present incumbent, for reelection.

Mr. Koll was born in a farm in Niles, and has lived there all his life. He received his education in the schools at Niles and in college at Chicago, Milwaukee. Later he attended Northwestern university and graduated from the law department. Since his admission to the bar he has been engaged in the practice of law with Koll in the City building, Chicago.

Mr. Koll is a member of St. John's Lutheran church in Niles. He is also a member of the Chicago Press club. He will attack the record of Walter A. Lutz, a public office holder, and his vote on the primary, civil service, and other matters, as well as his record as a member of the legislature. He is opposed to prohibition as a remedy for solving the liquor problem, but believes in a reasonable regulation of the business and a strict enforcement of the law. He believes every citizen should have the right to say whether or not he wants saloons in his town, and will attack Mr. Lutz for his fight against the law giving the voters this right. He will, however, vote for an amendment to the local option law making cities and villages the units in voting instead of townships.

German Students Did Well.

Although the German entertainment Monday evening in the high school was given, not a very successful one was there to appreciate the good work of the students. Considerable effort had been exerted to perfect the numbers on the program. All spoken in German, and the pupils deserved great recognition.

Many of those speaking were of German parentage and had the study of the language comparatively easy, but a few, of other nationalities, by their good pronunciation and expression show that the German instruction in this school is excellent.

"The sun taken at the day was under twelve dollars."

"Nothing to do." Happy is the substitute who has two a door and a labor screen all up and nothing to do now but now his law two or three times a week, put a fresh coat of paint on his chelling, have his furnace overhauled for next winter, keep the neighbors chickens out of the garden, mend the back in his roof, and repair his ailing dog, bell now and then—Chicago Tribune.
