OBSERVED BY LODGES

M. W. A. R. N. A. Court of Honor and K. of the G.

Decorate Graves.

In common with all the Modern Woodmen lodges of America, Barrington Camp, No. 805, M. W. A., on Sunday, June 7th, commemorated its annual memorial day. Barrington District, No. 373, Court of Honor and Barrington Garrison, K. of the G. of the Globe joined in the exercises.

Meeting at ten o'clock in the morning at their hall, the Woodmen proceeded to the Baptist church and listened to a discourse spoken by Rev. Pierre Danis, French pastor, substituting for Rev. Gagner, an especial choir for the day. Song of Henry Rieck and his son, Henry, in the Main street church, were decorated by a committee appointed for that purpose.

In the afternoon the organizations formed in line at the Wooden hall and marched to Evergreen cemetery. The American flag headed the procession, carried by Philip Hawley; the Barrington Cornet Band, in white trousers, blue coats and caps, were next; then Mrs. O. F. Stanton, the speaker, marched; ladies of Mayflower Camp, No. 2382, Royal Neighbors of America and of the Court of Honor, twenty-two in number followed; the Royal Neighbors were in white gowns and wore royal purple sash shoulder sashes and moribund caps; the men's lodges completed the parade, with altogether one hundred and twenty-five in line.

Fourteen graves, Evergreen cemetery, were visited and musical numbers given by the band and Misses Boehmer, Demery and Plagge. A part of Rev. Mattison's address is here given:

"Members of the different fraternal organizations represented here to-day: Scarce a week has passed since some hundreds of persons, old and young, were assembled in this place, to strew flowers on the graves of those who gave themselves to the service of their country. This was done in obedience to a sentiment of patriotism.

To-day you have come, actuated by a somewhat different feeling, that of fraternity, the bond of a common humanity. You scatter flowers on the graves of those who were associated with you in the stirring activities of life. These men seemed a little nearer to you than did other men, for they joined hands with you in a society for mutual help and support. You do them in ways in which you do not meet older men, in business and in social contact and in the carrying out of the purposes of your organization. In this way you have come to feel a sense of obligation and of friendship that leads you to cherish their names and memories.

Such societies do not in any way antagonize the interests of all. They tend to unification and are peaceful in character; they tend to improve social conditions. They recognize the obligation we are under to provide for those who are dependent upon us, so that in case of death or disability, they shall not be dependent on charity. Bringing flowers for the dead is not a new thing. It is the bringing of the most beautiful and choicest treasures of nature as an expression of affection and love."

Warm Weather Bill.
For the week of the National Republican Convention, Chicago, the Majestic theatre has provided a warm weather bill of specialties.
Everything is light, bright and entertaining. Every act is a feature in its way and if no star of universal fame appears on the bill at least there is promise of fun and frolic. Bert Leslie, the apostle of amusing slang, is one of the headliners and his act full of that sort of realism which always entertains. Another act is Jean Chermouss's Country Circus which is one of the funniest aggregations of trained animals which has ever been seen on the stage. The Camille comedy trio is another laugh maker in skilled acrobatics. Harry Tiple and his five colleagues offer a comedy entitled "Those Happy Days." Daisy Harcourt, the English singer and comedienne, will add vocal interest to the program and the celebrated Conroy and Le Maire company have an amusing sketch called "A King for a Night." Ida O'Grady, banjo player and singer, Coogan and Daneroff, add a number of others will add to the diversion.

OUR MILLS at Cuba Station will run Thursdays and Fridays of each week.

Infant Daughter Dies.

The death of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Robertson during Monday night has stretched the sympathies of all friends and acquaintances. The little girl, Ethel Robertson, nearly one year of age, was taken sick Sunday night, June 7th, and Monday she became worse and died about ten o'clock Tuesday morning, June 9th. She was born June 29th, 1907, and was named for the mother of her father. Two other children, John and Helen, are living. Mr. Robertson's cashier at the Barrington bank. The funeral was held at the home on Main street, Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with the services of Rev. Gagner of the Baptist church.

Oil Wagon Overturned.

Water Hornuth's Standard wagon horses, became frightened early last Saturday afternoon by H. I. Miller's large White Steamer auto, while they were passing just west of the Main street crossing of the E. J. & F. and Mr. Hornuth was thrown to the ground as the wagon tipped over; two cuts on his head and a badly bruised right arm resulted; he was ill the first of the week, but will soon overcome the effects.

The automobile had been stopped at one side and, as the horses had passed before without fright, Mr. Hornuth was not expecting their sudden fall. He states that the occupants of the car were not at all blame. Horses in general are more afraid of autos stationary, than moving.

HOME TEAM DEFEATED.

Y. M. C. A. are Beat 5 to 2. Play Marions To-morrow.

The ball game Saturday between the Y. M. C. A. team and the Chicago Stars resulted in defeat for the former by a score of 5 to 2.

The fact that many of the players in the Chicago team are young fellows who have spent their summers at Bang's lake, Wauconda, and are well known in this vicinity, added interest to the game.

The locals did their best and a very good game was the result, but the Stars are thorough ball players, every one of them, and so far outclassed the Y. M. C. A. team that from the first there was no question as to the result. An accident which might have been serious occurred in the eighth inning, when two of our boys, both running after the ball, came together so hard as to leave them "hors de combat" for some time. Fortunately no injury resulted and after the players had regained their breath the game went on.

Another incident, amusing rather than dangerous, occurred when, in the third inning, the "score keep" for the home team became confused and insisted that nine innings had been played. Perhaps he was afraid the visitors would run in a few dozen more runs if they were allowed to play another inning, or it may be that he knew his team would not take advantage of the opportunity to tie the score.

Saturday, June 6th, the Y. M. C. A. will play the O. P. Marions, of Chicago. Last year our team beat the Marions, 8 to 7. Batteries: local, Mickey; London, visiting; Glass and Connor. Admission ten and fifteen cents.

PETITION FOR LICENSE

Remonstrance Against Petition for Dram Shop at Cuba.

McGraw & Sherrett have petitioned the Board of Supervisors to grant them a license to conduct a dram shop at Cuba mill station about four miles north of Barrington in Cuba township.

Their petition contains a majority of all the voters in the township, as required by law. Supervisor Lamey presented a remonstrance signed by forty-three citizens of the township. In this petition it is alleged "That the village of Barrington at the election held April 21, 1908, became an abject territory, and that the evident purpose of the applicants for such license is to provide means for securing intoxicating liquor to the residents of Barrington desiring the same, who cannot secure it within said village, and that the granting of such license by you will tend to lessen to the residents of said village, the beneficial results of the recent election. That it is alleged and believed that the applicants for such license have for some time been engaged in the unlawful selling of liquor at Cuba station, and with license from your honorable body."

The license committee reported favorably on the application this afternoon and license was granted.

NUNDA NO MORE.

Village Name Changed to North Crystal Lake Last Week.

The Village of Nunda has been wiped off the face of the earth and in its place is North Crystal Lake. The change took place last Friday night, when the village board unanimously granted the petition to change the name to North Crystal Lake, and in accordance therewith, the Herald this afternoon under the name The Crystal Lake Herald—Crystal Lake Herald.

"Big Show" Was Poor.

About the limit of poor shows Tuesday the Barrington public here Tuesday evening in a tent on Spangler field, advertising from a crowd of some five hundred who found nothing as alleged. Bodkin Brothers are to be admired for their nerve in offering such a target to the public and calling it a "revue."

But, as usual here, at a tent, so they took in hard earned money, because people crave amusement and stretch of canvas and a crazy lane have a leveling power, it seems.

A swinging ring act, one little boy's bounding, and a pony or two were passably good. Most of the time was killed by long waits, and fairs—giving bad peanuts and blue balloons—consisting of one song and one jig.

Commencement Next Week.

Invitations to the commencement exercises, June 18th, have been received by friends of the graduating class and the public is solicited. The week of festivities to be observed by the Class of '08 begins with the baccalaureate sermon in the school Sunday evening preached by the Rev. Father E. J. Fox.

W., will speak upon "Patriotism." There will be good music, including cornet solos by Newton Plagge and special vocal numbers. A general invitation cordially extended.
