WILLIAM H. TAFT JAMES S. SHERMAN

Republican Candidates Sweep the Country in National Race.

Contests for Governor Are Close in Several States--Deneen Wins in Illinois and Hughes in New York by Reduced Majorities--Results in Other States--Congress Republican.

New York and Ohio, the other so-called pivotal states, swept into the Republican column by pluralities that were surprising to all the voters by giving him a plurality of 30,000 votes.

Outside of Massachusetts, the smallest changes in net results came in the New England states, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island and Connecticut contributing pluralities to Taft which do not differ materially from those given Roosevelt and Fairbanks in 1904.

Slump in Pennsylvania Vote.
The greatest slump in the Republican column came with the returns from Pennsylvania, the banner G. O. P. state, which gave Taft a plurality of 40,000, as compared with 50,000 cast for the Republican ticket in the last presidential campaign.

The Democrats stood unshaken in the solid south. They not only carried all the states in that section, won by Judge Parker four years ago, but they won Missouri back to the fold. There was change here and there, each party gaining and losing, but the results were not of consequence of great significance.

In Maryland there was a victory of consequence, the Republicans snatching that state from the possible doubtful column by a plurality of 3,000, which compares with a margin of 51 votes in favor of the head of the Republican presidential ticket four years ago.

Illinois Vote is Cut Down.
Illinois cut her vote down from 300,000 to 200,000, Michigan from 217,000 to 100,000, Ohio from 255,000 to 30,000, Missouri from 151,000 to 60,000, Indiana from 32,000 to 2,000, Iowa, from 115,000 to 50,000, Kansas from 125,000 to 20,000, Colorado from 145,000 to 6,000, California from 115,000 to 60,000, South Dakota from 50,000 to 15,000, and North Dakota from 38,000 to 10,000.

CONGRESS IS REPUBLICAN.

Returns Indicate Gains in the Lower House.

William Howard Taft will have a safe Republican majority in the house of representatives to carry on his policies. Michigan, Illinois, Kansas, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Ohio, and Indiana each contributed its share to the oncoming of the national election, total of four years ago, so that while the party has succeeded in giving its candidate a comfortable majority in the electoral college, the popular vote has been whittled down in amazing proportions.

Indiana Won by Narrow Margin.
However, the victory for Judge Taft has been decisive, and aside from what consolation may be obtained in a contemplation of the greatly reduced Republican pluralities, there is little of comfort in the national election for the Democrats.

The only place where the Democrats made a strong bid for a doubtful state was Indiana, where they succeeded in holding the Republican margin down to 3,000. At the same time the Democrats elected the 78th ticket, thus revealing the bitter hand to hand character of the fight which was waged in the Hoosier commonwealth during the last 60 days of the campaign.

CONGRESSIONAL RESULTS

The congressional returns indicate that the sixty-first congress will have Republican majorities in both branches. According to the latest reports the various states have elected congressmen as follows:

In doubt and one Democrat is elected. C. H. Weissac carried the sixth district.

Indianapolis, Ind.—With the vote so close that it probably requires the official count to decide it looks as though Marshall had been elected governor, and also the entire state ticket. The Democrats have secured control of the legislature on joint ball, thus insuring the election of a Democratic United States senator to succeed James A. McMenamy.

Detroit, Mich.—With Lawton T. Hemans making a splendid race for the governorship, running far ahead of his ticket and surprising even his friends and staunch supporters, the result of the gubernatorial election was in doubt until a late hour. The count of the early precincts from the various parts of the state showed that Hemans had 20,000 to Warner's 22,000.

These returns did not include several official Republican strongholds, but, on the other hand, there also was lacking the vote from many cities which will give Hemans great pluralities. Hemans claimed to have been elected. The congressional delegation will be Republican.

Detroit Wins Out.
Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 4.—The re-election of Congressman John Daltell in the Thirteenth district by a greatly reduced plurality is conceded. Edward F. Duff (Dem.) ran a hard fight against him, cutting into his usual vote in industrial precincts.

Senator Clay's Re-Election Assured.
Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 4.—Democratic candidates for congress are elected in all of the Georgia districts, numbering 11. The re-election of United States Senator Clay (Dem.) is assured.

Madison, Wis.—Gov. J. O. Davidson, (Rep.), has been re-elected, but his vote is far behind that of the head of the ticket, owing chiefly to the fact that he was not indured by Senator La Follette, for whose seat he is expected to make a contest in two years. Eight Republican congressmen have been elected, two are

"D'y find smoking hurts y'a?" asks Bill Diddle, Yankee lawyer, in Willie Brook's story, "The Solar Machine," in Harper's.

"It probably doesn't do me any good," said; "but 'td have trouble quitting it."

"No, y'a wouldn't. Smoke this." He took from his vest pocket the fellow in the story a small tin and tossed it across the table to me. "Ever hear how Bill Doolittle lived on ten cents a week?"

I confessed that Bill's economies had never been brought to my attention.

"Wal," said Diddle, "he took dinner with a friend on Sunday, an' ate enough to last 'm till Wednesday. Then he bought ten cents' worth o' tripe, an' he baked tripe so like thunder that it lasted 'm the rest o' the week. These appears wur a good deal like the tripe 'm 'm take to smokin' 'em, an' y'a w'ot want more'n one o' two a day."

Burning, Painful Sores on Lips—
Wetted Day and Night—Tried
Many Remedies to No Avail
—Cured by Cuticura.

"After an attack of rheumatism, running sores broke out on my husband's legs, from below the knees to the ankles. There are no words to tell all the discomforts and great suffering he had to endure night and day. He used every kind of remedy and three physicians treated him, one after the other, without any good results whatever. One day I ordered some Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent. He began to use them and three weeks later the sores were dried up. The burning fire stopped, and the pains became bearable. After three months he was quite well. I can prove this testimonial at any time. Mrs. V. V. Albert, Upper Frenchville, Me., July 21, 1907."

LOCATED.

"Goodness, sonny, are you in boob-hoo?"
"No, the pal's in me—boob-hoo!"

Putting It Politely.

"I was elected," said the directors were very nervous. Angrily they awaited the coming of the president, who had summoned them in haste. Although he appeared to be greatly distressed, he said, "I am very sorry to say that it is my duty to impart to you some disagreeable news. I assure you that this is the saddest day of my life. I would rather have cut off my right arm than been compelled to send for you on an occasion of this kind. It is most unfortunate."

"What's the matter?" one of the directors impatiently asked.

"The cashier has advised."

Well Prepared.

"I learn," she said reproachfully, "that you were elected no fewer than five girls before you finally got to me. How do I know that you didn't make desperate love to all of them?"

"I did," he replied promptly.

"You did?" she exclaimed.

"Certainly," he returned. "You don't suppose for a moment that I would be foolishly enough to try such a prize as you are without practicing a little first, do you?"

PUZZLE SOLVED.

Coffee at Bottom of Trouble.

It takes some people a long time to find out that coffee is hurting them. But when once the fact is clear, most people try to keep away from the thing which is followed by ever increasing detriment to the heart, stomach and nerves.

"Until two years ago I was a heavy coffee drinker," writes an Ill. stock man, "and had been all my life. I am now 55 years old.

"About three years ago I began to have nervous spells and could not sleep nights, was bothered by indigestion, bloating and gas on stomach affected my head.

"I spent lots of money doctoring—no doctor told me I had chronic catarrh of the stomach, another that I had heart disease and was liable to die at any time. They all doted me until I was nearly starved, but I seemed to get worse instead of better.

"Having heard of the good Postum had done for nervous people, I discarded coffee altogether and began to use Postum regularly. I soon got better, and now, after nearly two years, I can truthfully say I am sound and well."

"I sleep well at night, do not have the nervous spells and am not bothered with indigestion or palpitation. I weigh 32 pounds more than when I began Postum, and am better every way than I ever was while drinking coffee. I can't say too much in praise of Postum, as I feel it saved my life."

"There's a Reason."
