ATTRACTIVE TRIFLES.

Artistic Gifts That Take Little Time to Make. The mission photograph frame is carried out in heavy green linen crash. The colors used in embroidering the conventional design are the dark shades of green and the bronze browns. Pretty opera bags are always a welcome gift, and with a yard of hand some ribbon will make up into a most desirable receptacle for glasses. Carded shades covered with pale pink lacy ribbon in little crinkly loops are attractive and as presents would please most housewives. Perfumed coat and skirt hangers are popular, and so are the ribbon trusses that contain the glass tube hatpin holder. Really beautiful utility cases that can be hung upon a wall or rolled for traveling are made from ribbon. To make such an article get half a yard of ribbon that is six inches in width. Turn down an inch wide hem at the top and along the bottom gather and sew on a thin piece of silk the same size. This is then divided into pockets and the upper edge shirred. Runners the length of the case, dividing it into sections, should then be put on the inside.

MATERIALS REQUIRED. One small linen doily. Fido embroidery silk. Sheet of cotton wadding. Ten cents worth of sachet powder. Three yards of baby ribbon.

MISSION PHOTOGRAPH FRAME. making them available later for framing when pasted to a flat surface and surrounded by a gilt mat.

A BRIDGE PURSE.

A Useful Trifle to Carry When Playing the Game. As there is no sign of the fascinating game of bridge losing its attractions for smart society, the bridge purse seen in the illustration will be an acceptable gift for the girl who likes to make her game more exciting by playing a penny or so a point. To make the purse commence with 85 chain, miss 1 chain, 1 double into every stitch, 1 chain turn.

Second row—1 double into 70 stitches (taking up in this and every row the two top threads), 2 chain, miss 2 double, then 12 double into the next 12 double, 1 chain turn.

Third row—12 double, 2 into the 2 chain of last row, 70 more double, 1 chain turn; repeat these last two rows until you have worked 23 rows altogether—that is, 13 stripes—then 1 double into next, 4 treble into next stripe, 1 double into next stripe, 1 double into next, 2 treble into next, repeat three times, 1 double into next, 4 treble into next, 1 double into next (the last stripe), and fasten off—this is the right side; then fold together and sew up on the wrong side.

Then for the chain loops: Cut off a length of silk about five yards and with it crochet 1 double on to the inside of the purse on the right hand side 25 chain, draw through the first loop of 2 chain, 2 double on to the ring, 23 chain, draw thread through the next loop, 2 chain on purse, and repeat until all the loops are filled (this requires a little care so as not to get the thread entangled, but it saves breaking off and threading in the ends every time; then do double crochet

MATERIALS REQUIRED. One ball of crochet silk, any color preferred. One yard and quarter of narrow ribbon to match silk. One small ivory ring. A few steel crochet needles.

A BEAUTIFUL BRIDGE PURSE.

Where Bullets Flew. David Parker, of Fayette, New York, a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg says: "The good Electric Bitters have done me worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic and they keep me quiet and well." 50c at Barrington Pharmacy.

Weeds. Old Folger—"I've got a letter from my son out west. Golden—? What's Tom doing now? Old Folger—"That's what I can't make out. He says he is engaged in the destruction of weeds. Now, that may mean he's smoking a good many cigars or that he is trying to induce some widow to make a second venture, or it may simply mean that he is doing farm work.—Barrington Transcript.

It is Reliable. There is no other agency on the face of the globe today that will give more accurate effective communication between distant points than the long distant telephone. It satisfies the user in both efficiency and cost. Chicago Telephone Co.

A small city child on visiting the country for the first time was taken to the barn to see the milking. She was much amused, but refused to drink any milk during her visit because, as she afterward said, "she did not want it after the cow had had it."—Harper's Monthly.

Marked For Death. "Three years ago I was marked for death. A grave yard cough was tearing my lungs to pieces. Doctors failed to help me and hope had fled, when my husband got Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. A. C. Williams, of Bae, Kentucky. "The first dose helped me and improvement kept on until I had gained 65 pounds in weight and my health was fully restored. This medicine holds the world's healing record for coughs and colds and lung and throat diseases. It prevents pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at Barrington Pharmacy. 50 cents and $1.00. The Japanese Cook. The Japanese are most imitative and observant people and copy everything they see with minute fidelity. A Newport man engaged a Japanese valet, who was very attentive and satisfactory. His duties rarely took him into the kitchen, but when he had a chance of watching the cook he did so with extraordinary interest. The cook caught a severe chill and left somewhat suddenly. The lady of the house was in despair, as she could not replace her. At last the valet announced diffidently that he thought he could cook a little, and the mistress gladly agreed to give him a trial. The first thing he started on was the potatoes. He pulled up his shoes and socks and put his feet in a bath of hot mustard and water. The lady wanted to know what on earth he was doing. He replied that he saw the cook do that when she was peeling the potatoes, and nothing would persuade him that this was not a necessary part of the process.—New York Times.

This is Worth Reading. Leo F. Zellinski, of 68 Gibson street, Buffalo, New York, says: "I cured the most annoying cold sore I ever had with Bucklen's Arnica salve. I applied this salve once a day for two days, when every trace of the sore was gone. Heals all sores. Sold under guarantee at Barrington Pharmacy, 25c."

She wished to break it to him gently. "I have decided," she said, "to return your ring." He, however, was a resourceful man, who did not believe in letting a woman get the better of him. "You needn't bother," he replied. "I buy them by the dozen."

Mother—Just run upstairs, Tommy, and fetch baby's nightgown. Tommy—"Don't want to. Mother—Oh, if you're going to be unkind to your new little sister she'll put on her wings and fly back again to heaven. Tommy—Then let her put on her wings and fetch her nightgown."

Get An Air Ship. If safe aerial navigation were possible—yet the telephone toll lines would be the fastest, most satisfying means of communication between distant points. Chicago Telephone Company.
