Arson Ring Uncovered by State Officials

The close of 1932 found the fire marshal's division of Illinois, under the direction of S. L. LeGould, re-ing state fire marshal, revealing what is believed to be the largest arson ring ever uncovered in the state. Activities covered central and southern Illinois and extended to several other states. In connection with the investigation 15 persons are under indictment because of their alleged part in causing various fires.
