North Barrington Property Tax Rate Reduced for 1932

Village, Lake County Rates Lower; State Rate Raised Eleven Cents

The 1932 tax rate for property in the village of Barrington north of Main street is 10 cents per $100, according to complete figures received from Washington this week.

Table with 2 columns: Year, Rate per $100. Rows include 1931, 1932, and various school districts.

To obtain the total tax rate on any piece of property, add the tax rate for the school district in which it is located to the rate for state, town, road and bridge, high school and gravel.

Kelsey Is in Line for Chairmanship of County Board

Harold H. Kelsey, Cuba township supervisor, is in line for the position of chairman of the county board if elected at the town election April 4, according to reports published in the Washington newspapers.
