

BARRINGTON REVIEW

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1933

25¢ A YEAR IN ADVANCE, SINGLE COPIES, FIVE CENTS

Blue-Eyed Bedouins
 Doctors, surgeons, eye specialists, opticians, and optometrists, report important developments and wholehearted cooperation in the work of the American Red Cross. Large quantities of food, clothing, and other supplies are being distributed to the needy. The work is being done in a most efficient manner. The Red Cross is doing a great deal of good work. It is helping the needy in many ways. It is providing food, clothing, and shelter for the homeless. It is providing medical care for the sick. It is providing education for the ignorant. It is providing a home for the orphan. It is providing a place for the aged. It is providing a place for the disabled. It is providing a place for the unemployed. It is providing a place for the suffering. It is providing a place for the dying. It is providing a place for the dead. It is providing a place for the living. It is providing a place for the world.
