

LAKE ZURICH REVIEW

Simpson-Church Ballots Held Up by County Clerks

Action Taken on Advice of Secretary of House of Representatives

With the election ballots of the Tenth district tied up in two county clerks' offices on the advice of South Trimble, clerk of the House of Representatives...

Examined Poll Books

Lake A. Hendry county clerk of Lake County was examining poll books in this position of the district...

In the meantime both sides are making time by examining poll books and tally sheets.

Neither Simpson Jr. nor Weber are present. Simpson's personal injury case is being argued by John G. Richter and Weber's by H. C. Bradford.

County Clerk has 40 days to make a record, and then Simpson has a similar period of time to do likewise.

Bill to Require Payment of Prevailing Wage Offered

A bill to require the payment of the prevailing rate of wages on all public works was introduced by the legislature by Representative Howard E. Dooly of DeWitt. It is designed to meet the objection of the law, which was knocked out by the supreme court...

City Split on Gas Tax to Be Voted on in Legislature

A bill making a three-way split of the gasoline tax to give the cities one-third is to be introduced soon in the legislature on behalf of the Illinois Municipal League.

Russia

The former Russian empire extended from the Baltic sea to the Pacific ocean and from the Black sea to the Arctic ocean, stretching nearly half-way around the globe...

Still Unknown

Many kinds of animals as yet unknown to science are believed to be hiding away in obscure corners of the earth.

Judge Daly Will Not Be Opposed at Spring Convention

Lake county will be represented by 20 delegates at the republican judicial nominating convention of the seventeenth district which probably will be held in Brookfield prior to April 21.

Three judges are to be elected as follows: Judge Ralph J. Daly of Lake county, Judge Edward A. Sharflett of McHenry county, and Judge Arthur E. Fisher of Winnebago county are expiring.

Judge Daly is not expected to have an opponent in Lake county of the opposition to Judge Sharflett or Judge Fisher.

William Knizeg, 62 years old, a resident of Mundell, died at the home of a sister, Mrs. Emil Dahms, Wednesday morning.

Local and Personal

Woman's Club News

A delightful time was had Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Marion Merfeld.

Men's Club News

The club took highly honored that during the banquet at the Elks Lodge and Harold Braun over KVV two numbers were dedicated to the club.

Marriage

The monthly meeting of the Board of city will be held at the home of Mrs. N. H. Dorsey Friday afternoon, Feb. 24 at 2 p. m.

Deaths

Mrs. William Bolwig drove to Rockwood, Wis. Sunday to take Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flocke home.

Deaths

Mrs. Frank Young is in Burlington, Ia., with her mother Mrs. P. Stilling.

Deaths

Mr. and Mrs. H. Weaver are guests over the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wenger of Fort Sheridan.

Deaths

Coed Stevenson of Chicago visited Monday at the F. Harkness home.

Deaths

Miss Verma Rudinski has been ill the past week.

Deaths

J. L. Clements was called to Mt. Vernon Sunday by the illness of his serious illness of his father.

Deaths

August Baade and Clarence Sastinger attended the annual meeting of the Pure Milk association in Chicago Tuesday.

Deaths

John Froelich of Waukegan visited local relatives Friday.

Deaths

Mrs. Clarence Sastinger was a birthday luncheon guest of Mrs. Louis Leisner Sunday.

Deaths

Friends of Mrs. H. Hillman and Mrs. Philip Young will be glad to hear that both are well again after several weeks' illness.

Deaths

Miss Della Kropp of Evanston spent the week-end at home.

Deaths

Miss Cleve Workman was a guest of friends in Palatine over the week-end.

Deaths

The pupils of the Lake Zurich grammar school enjoyed a Valentine party Tuesday afternoon at the school house.

Deaths

Mrs. Josephine Loums and Mrs. C. Weaver attended the P. M. club meeting at the home of Mrs. Louis Thatchers Tuesday evening.

Deaths

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Norton and Mrs. and Harrison Norton of Des Plaines called Friday at the B. R. Simon home.

Deaths

Keneth Loums spent the week-end with Mrs. Loums and daughter Arlette.

Deaths

When putting any wire or rope around a growing tree it is wise to run it through a short length of rubber tubing.

Wauconda

Mrs. Mary A. Dalziel Dies Mrs. Mary A. Dalziel, 61 years old, widow of Douglas Dalziel, died at her farm home west of McHenry on Monday, Jan. 30. Mrs. A. Leikin was born at Ingleside on Aug. 14, 1871.

Bridge winners were Mrs. and Mrs. Herman Carr; euchre, Paul Bronshorn and Mrs. Neva Stubbins; rummy, Dr. Bos and Miss Margaret Hale; and in five hundred, Harry Francisco and Mrs. Cassius Downs.

Mrs. Ray Seymour who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Owen Padlock to Mt. Hope, Pa., where they spent three weeks, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Jensen and daughter Virginia of Kingswood called on Mr. and Mrs. George Jepson Sunday.

Tom Babik has returned from Rochester, Minn., where he received treatment at Mayo clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darlin, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Nichols, Miss Shirley Dalry and Mr. and Mrs. George Sobel and daughter Lillian attended a party at the Dunley home in Volo Saturday evening.

Ladies' Aid Society Meets St. Paul Ladies' Aid society held their regular monthly meeting last Thursday afternoon and reported that winter could weather many members.

Miss Dorothy Bremer returned to Chicago Monday after a few days visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clara Smith announce the birth of a son on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Johns entertained a number of friends on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Edna Smith.

Mrs. Emma Stauffer of Volo spent Saturday with relatives here.

Harold Hapke and Irvin Moody motored to Des Plaines Wednesday.

Miss Hattie Powers returned to Elmhurst Monday after caring for her mother and sister Bernice who have been severely ill.

Charles Garland is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Geary.

Mr. and Mrs. George Broughton have received word of the death of a sister-in-law, Mrs. Ira Bronington of Birmingham, Ala. Her death came after a lingering illness of heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grantham was to have attended the past matrons club of Mayflower chapter O.E.S. on Friday afternoon but the meeting was postponed.

Palatine

P. T. A. Meeting

Palatine Parents' Teachers' association held their meeting in the community hall Tuesday evening.

The short business meeting followed, with many fine reports from the various committees.

Mrs. Henry Krueger and Mrs. Leile Durbahl visited Mrs. Arthur Powers Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brooks entertained the following guests Sunday: Mrs. Lucile Robinson and Alfred Han of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks of Waukegan and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wright of Kenosha.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darlin and daughter visited Mrs. Darlin's sister, Mrs. Roy Passfield at Rossville on Tuesday.

Ed Dunn was in Cary on Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Krueger and Mrs. Leile Durbahl visited Mrs. Arthur Powers Monday.

Mr. Murphy is spending several days with his family in Chicago.

Mrs. Archie Wallis of Gales Lake visited Monday at the Simon Dickson home.

Mayflower Chapter O.E.S. entertained at a public card party on Friday evening, Feb. 3. Thirteen tables were efficiently during the evening.

"Mrs. Jackson told me about it."

"Let's see it today."

It's brand new and exciting—the dancing land and being and demonstration that shows how efficiently the new Zureks electric cleaner cleans. Details on another page of this paper.

Low, long lines characterize the sedan mounted on the Terraplane 8 chassis for 1933.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brodsky, former Palatine residents, announced the birth of a son Friday, Feb. 10, at the Swedish Covenant hospital in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tegen and family spent Sunday at Elmhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kinhal visited at Woodstock Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Zeldner and children Bernard Jr. and Helen spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Charlotte McGraw.

Mr. and Mrs. August Meyer of Chicago called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kelley and children Patsy and Roland, Clifford Jergenson and Elmer Bartman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hattie Lippold of Crystal Lake.

Hanche Maske was in Chicago Monday.

Mrs. Frank Kelley spent Friday in Chicago.

"In Ancient Athens..." wrote a candid historian. "It figured a strong enough, it signified little what was the law."

The Concordia society held a bakery sale in the Bookman Hardware store last Saturday afternoon from which they realized a neat sum.

Miss Evelyn and Alvin Louise Deering were hostesses to the Athletic club at their home last Monday evening. The evening was spent playing games after which a delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Irene Wilson is entertaining her aunt Mrs. Ella Dymond of Chicago and her mother Mrs. Carrie George of Lombard.

H. Schroeder, principal of the Lutheran school, was able to resume his duties Monday after a siege of sickness.

Mrs. Esther Matthei of Chicago is visiting her mother Mrs. Henry Bruhn.

Mrs. Swanson of Arlington Heights was a guest of Mrs. Millie Peterson Tuesday and attended the Pattern Teacher association meeting in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horn and daughter Bernice spent Sunday in Chicago.

Mrs. Alma Arpetrud visited Tuesday from ten days' visit with her daughter Mrs. Alma Olin in Chicago.

Charles Donovan is the latest victim of scarlet fever.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Moulder who has scarlet fever now has tuberculosis because pneumonia developed.

Mrs. Arthur Warriner, a former Palatine resident who now resides in Washington, D. C., underwent a major operation last Friday. She is reported doing as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brodsky, former Palatine residents, announced the birth of a son Friday, Feb. 10, at the Swedish Covenant hospital in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tegen and family spent Sunday at Elmhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kinhal visited at Woodstock Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Zeldner and children Bernard Jr. and Helen spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Charlotte McGraw.

Mr. and Mrs. August Meyer of Chicago called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kelley and children Patsy and Roland, Clifford Jergenson and Elmer Bartman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hattie Lippold of Crystal Lake.

Hanche Maske was in Chicago Monday.

Mrs. Frank Kelley spent Friday in Chicago.

"In Ancient Athens..." wrote a candid historian. "It figured a strong enough, it signified little what was the law."

The Concordia society held a bakery sale in the Bookman Hardware store last Saturday afternoon from which they realized a neat sum.

Miss Evelyn and Alvin Louise Deering were hostesses to the Athletic club at their home last Monday evening. The evening was spent playing games after which a delicious luncheon was served.

Washington, D. C., underwent a major operation last Friday. She is reported doing as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brodsky, former Palatine residents, announced the birth of a son Friday, Feb. 10, at the Swedish Covenant hospital in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tegen and family spent Sunday at Elmhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kinhal visited at Woodstock Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Zeldner and children Bernard Jr. and Helen spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Charlotte McGraw.

Mr. and Mrs. August Meyer of Chicago called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kelley and children Patsy and Roland, Clifford Jergenson and Elmer Bartman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hattie Lippold of Crystal Lake.

Hanche Maske was in Chicago Monday.

Mrs. Frank Kelley spent Friday in Chicago.

"In Ancient Athens..." wrote a candid historian. "It figured a strong enough, it signified little what was the law."

The Concordia society held a bakery sale in the Bookman Hardware store last Saturday afternoon from which they realized a neat sum.

Miss Evelyn and Alvin Louise Deering were hostesses to the Athletic club at their home last Monday evening. The evening was spent playing games after which a delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Irene Wilson is entertaining her aunt Mrs. Ella Dymond of Chicago and her mother Mrs. Carrie George of Lombard.

H. Schroeder, principal of the Lutheran school, was able to resume his duties Monday after a siege of sickness.

Mrs. Esther Matthei of Chicago is visiting her mother Mrs. Henry Bruhn.

Mrs. Swanson of Arlington Heights was a guest of Mrs. Millie Peterson Tuesday and attended the Pattern Teacher association meeting in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horn and daughter Bernice spent Sunday in Chicago.

Mrs. Alma Arpetrud visited Tuesday from ten days' visit with her daughter Mrs. Alma Olin in Chicago.

Charles Donovan is the latest victim of scarlet fever.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Moulder who has scarlet fever now has tuberculosis because pneumonia developed.

Mrs. Arthur Warriner, a former Palatine resident who now resides in Washington, D. C., underwent a major operation last Friday. She is reported doing as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brodsky, former Palatine residents, announced the birth of a son Friday, Feb. 10, at the Swedish Covenant hospital in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tegen and family spent Sunday at Elmhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kinhal visited at Woodstock Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Zeldner and children Bernard Jr. and Helen spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Charlotte McGraw.

Mr. and Mrs. August Meyer of Chicago called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kelley and children Patsy and Roland, Clifford Jergenson and Elmer Bartman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hattie Lippold of Crystal Lake.

Hanche Maske was in Chicago Monday.

Mrs. Frank Kelley spent Friday in Chicago.

"In Ancient Athens..." wrote a candid historian. "It figured a strong enough, it signified little what was the law."

The Concordia society held a bakery sale in the Bookman Hardware store last Saturday afternoon from which they realized a neat sum.

Miss Evelyn and Alvin Louise Deering were hostesses to the Athletic club at their home last Monday evening. The evening was spent playing games after which a delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Irene Wilson is entertaining her aunt Mrs. Ella Dymond of Chicago and her mother Mrs. Carrie George of Lombard.

H. Schroeder, principal of the Lutheran school, was able to resume his duties Monday after a siege of sickness.

Mrs. Esther Matthei of Chicago is visiting her mother Mrs. Henry Bruhn.

Lady Blanche Farm A Romance of the Compromise By Frances Parkinson Keyes

Fix Up and Repair for the World's Fair. CELOTEX LUMBER PAINT WOODWORK ROOFING. Timely Spring Suggestions. Flat Wall Paint, per quart $0.56, per gallon $1.95. 50-ft. Coil of Wire 10c. Quick Drying 4-hour Enamel, 16 colors, very handy for touching up old furniture, etc., 4-oz. can, 10c. Gold Medal Chick Lard, (all made), farm tested, 100-lb. sack—$1.80.

Kopper's Coke (Coke Smokes! Fuel) Range or Nut Size per ton cash $9.50. THE SHURTLEFF COMPANY PHONE 23 200 N. Hough St. Barrington, Ill.

Change of Date AUCTION I will sell at public auction on the farm known as the S. L. Brown farm located 2 miles north of Cary, a mile east of Crystal Lake on Town Line Road near Silver Lake schoolhouse containing 11 1/2 a. sharp open. Tues., Feb. 21 instead of Friday, Feb. 10 as previously announced ARTHUR C. SCHLOTTMAN. Special for February Only! RYTEX SHADOW-LAID PERSONAL STATIONERY. 100 SHEETS (Choice of Three Styles of Lettering) (Choice of Two Sizes of Paper) $1.00 BOX. 100 ENVELOPES (With Two-Line Address) Personal Stationery at less than the regular price of plain paper and envelopes. Choice of three cleverly modern styles of lettering on the sheets—swanky two-line address on the envelopes. Fine quality laid paper in White or Ivory with a shadowy self-stripe. Blue, Black, Brown or Red lettering. Smart bi-fold sheets with plenty of writing space in the Monarch size 7-1/4 x 10 7/8. Or, for short letter writers, there's the Baronial sheet, size 5-8 x 7 1/4. On sale this month only. Buy now at this low price! BARRINGTON REVIEW Tel., Barrington 1