The telephone will help you finish the job on time

Successful business men use the telephone constantly to save time and avoid errors in transacting business.

It is possible to be without a personal visit. Your telephone enables you to buy, sell, give orders and hold out-of-town conferences without leaving your desk. And yet, the cost is small wherever you call

Voters of Barrington:

The President of the United States has set an example for every public official, whether national, state, county, or municipal, for direct, definite and decisive action.

There are six candidates for the office of Village Trustee, with three to be elected. I am one of the candidates. I want to assure you that if elected I will give every taxpayer and every resident of the Village of Barrington an honest and impartial representation on the Board. I also assure you that I will do my utmost to see that prompt and decisive action is taken by the Board on the vital problems which the Village now faces.

If you believe in me, vote for me. Otherwise vote for the candidate who, in your honest judgment, is better qualified for the office. Regardless of whom you vote for, I urge every voter of the Village of Barrington to fulfill his duty to this community by VOTING on Tuesday, April 18.

Mrs. Selma Klippner

Mrs. Selma Klippner, nee Nagatz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nagatz, was killed near Half Day last Thursday night. Her funeral was held here Sunday afternoon from the Lutheran church with burial in Hillside cemetery.

The young people of the St. Paul church confirmation class met on Monday afternoon and had their picture taken.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Foster entertained at dinner Sunday night in honor of their son's confirmation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wickersheim, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Beckelman and daughters, Miss Anna Wickersheim and Harry Wickersheim of Palatine, and Miss Florence Dietz of Chicago were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lauffenberger Sunday in honor of their daughter Ruth's confirmation.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kornegub, Sr. and Mrs. Arthur Kornegub, Jr. of Chicago were guests at the William Bollinger home Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Held returned to her home at Lawton, Mich. Wednesday after having spent many months here with her daughter Mrs. Bollinger. Mr. and Mrs. Bollinger accompanied her home.

Fun at Danville, April 19-20-21 are Ethel Goodrich and Elsie Posket. The association has a membership of 88. The fourth grade won the picture for this month.

The following boys and girls were confirmed at the St. Paul Evangelical church last Sunday: Helen Dierker, Madeline Madson, Dorothy Wasson, Carl Caroline Toppel, Margaret Holman, Martin Larson, Louise Strom, Ernest Hoffman, Everett Vestman, Harold Roser, Raymond Roser and Elvira R. Foster Jr.

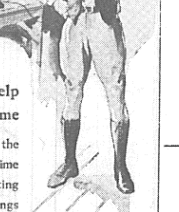

The Palatine Parent-Teacher association held their regular meeting Tuesday evening with a most interesting program preceding the regular business meeting. The program was in charge of Miss Emma Wallman.

The children of the Grade school furnished the program. Those taking part were: Herbert Herz, Kathryn Drowes, Eleanor Steinbink, Irene Galkowich, Evelyn Wentz, Kenneth Brisk, Mary Waldman, Lyle Walter, Dorothy Taylor, Edith Jensen, Kenneth Brisk, Mary Greene, Marian Schroeder, Ruth Waldhall, also the girl club composed of boys and girls of the 7th and 8th grades. A puppet show was given by the pupils of the 6th grade.

Miss Lucy Silke of Chicago gave a very interesting address on "Art and The Making of a Picture".

Mrs. Alma Arps, Agnes Carroll and Elvira Foster attended the meeting of Chicago corps Wednesday. Elvira Foster served as treasurer for their speaking day.

At the May meeting there will be a display of bird bones that were made by the children. The following were elected officers: President, Elvira Galkowich; vice president, Helen Vande Weyer; secretary, Dorothy Waldhall; treasurer, Dorothy Skibbe; historian, Edna Maier. Delegates to the conven-

Take This to the Polls

Vote for vigorous and fearless candidates who will work in harmony. Elect a Village Board not affected by Out-of-Town Influence.

H. D. A. GREBE is endorsed as a judicious, experienced and public-spirited business man. His interests are entirely local, he is always available in town throughout the day, and during his 45 years in Barrington, he has been a deep student of village affairs.

His training fits him particularly for the Office of Mayor. His critics' main objection to his candidacy is his presumed aversion to Sunday movies and baseball. This is purely political propaganda as Mr. Grebe has definitely stated that he is in favor of majority rule on all matters of public policy.

T. EDWARD DAVIS is an alert, well informed citizen, interested in clean and efficient government. As assistant general counsel of Jewel Tea Co., Barrington's largest taxpayer, his 8 years of legal training will be a distinct asset to the Board. He is a home owner, an executive man and has served actively in local relief work. The taxpayers are fortunate in being able to obtain the services of this exceptionally well qualified candidate and his election is heartily endorsed.

The recommended candidates are entirely unencumbered by the past troubles of the village. In co-operation with board members who have endeavored to place village affairs in the open, they will give Barrington a government worthy of the complete confidence of its citizens.

FOR POLICE MAGISTRATE (Vote for one)
[X] A. D. CHURCH
[] FREDERICK P. STURTZ

MRS. LYDIA BEERMAN is the wife of a local professional man and herself a local business woman. The first Barrington woman to enter politics, she is well informed, honest, courageous and aggressive. We feel that no reason whatever exists to bar a woman from the office of Trustee and heartily recommend her election.

JOHN BLANKE, an independent candidate without factional adherence is recommended as a quiet but deep thinker who is exceptionally well versed on village affairs. He is not engaged in local business and will well represent the commuter population.

Recommendations of E. M. Wallace, Mary Hallet Pederson and Gertrude M. Schwemm for members of the Library Board and of A. D. Church for Police Magistrate are deemed to require neither explanation nor argument.
