

Circus to Thrill Kiddies With Wild Animals and Acts

The circus is coming to town! You are! Arrangements were made yesterday by a representative of the Mighty Hartz Circus for a one day showing in Barrington on Saturday, July 1.

The representative of the circus stated that the 1933 presentation of the Mighty Hartz circus offers a wide range of novel and elaborate attractions, gathered from all parts of the world, and featuring an unusually large and well trained collection of wild animals.

Among the celebrities appearing with the circus are Miss Ruby Fisher, presenting the best of the world's largest performing elephants, the Tan Arika troupe of Japanese juggling, the Johnson Company of bounding wire artists, the Great Silverdicks, and in all there will be 32 exciting and entertaining displays. The show also features over many high school horses; Nemo, the untamable lion; tigers, leopards, monkeys, dogs and ponies. Bands of music; and of course the funny clowns.

There will be a street performance at 1 o'clock, preceding the afternoon performance, which starts at 8:00 o'clock. The circus will exhibit on the Barrington baseball park.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jurs and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller of Barrington saw the White Sox game Sunday.

Attorney Orders to Start Suit to Joint Fund Muc

Carroll Charges "Wrong" Practice Unfair to Those Who Pay

The regular meeting of the board of trustees Monday night of the form of a clearing house for routine business were of the annual village meeting. The trustees probably will be the item of business at the next meeting which will be on July 10. The village will meet on July 10. The finance committee will not draw up its recommendations of much money will be required. One of the first items of business was taken up at the night was formal instructions resolution passed by the board of village trustees to follow the city procedure in filing suits in the school districts and to procure involved in the point and school township 43 fund. This was decided at a special meeting of the board on Monday before the annual meeting of reaching a decision, after a friendly settlement of the village treasurer, taking the case of the approved a few weeks ago. The board of trustees and Indemnity company of Lafayete, Ga. and Willard Abbott Jr. of Barrington attended the Century of Progress Monday.

Trustee V. H. Schroeder attacked practice of working out delinquent water and vehicle tax accounts. He said the practice was getting to be a racket and was unfair to those who paid their obligations fully, but, like most of the delinquent water of a job. He said that the greatest nonpayment of delinquent water bills would be to pay our water bills rather than pay Paul Powell, superintendent of the water system checked over and reported that a number of persons approached him every day. Mr. Carroll suggested that the one who wanted to work out the delinquent water bills be required to pay before the village board. The resolution was taken on the matter.

The board passed a motion by Mr. Carroll which provides that all bills receivable are to be paid by each member of the judicial committee. The board also decided that all village officials should obtain a reputation from village clerk before buying motor or any other.

May Check Wells

Trustee V. H. Schroeder said that both of the village's delinquent water and vehicle tax accounts should be produced. He was instructed by the board to instruct the manufacturer of the water system checked over and reported that a number of persons approached him every day. Mr. Carroll suggested that the one who wanted to work out the delinquent water bills be required to pay before the village board. The resolution was taken on the matter.
