Celebrate 20th Anniversaries

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dohner and Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Kuhlman were guests of honor at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Gossell, 238 N. Lake street, Wednesday evening in celebration of their twentieth wedding anniversaries. About 40 guests were present.

The Gossell home was beautifully decorated with flowers and dainty refreshments were served during the evening.

An unusual feature of the double anniversary is the fact that the brides, who were good friends in girlhood, had been separated by living in different towns and chose the same wedding day without knowing of one another's plans. Mr. and Mrs. Dohner's wedding was held at the Lake Zurich Lutheran church twenty years ago and Mr. and Mrs. Kuhlman were married at the bride's home at Palatine on the same day.

Miss Leona Banks Bride of Charles W. Buckley

A pretty wedding took place at the Episcopal church in Dundee Saturday afternoon at four o'clock when Miss Leona Banks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Banks, 543 Division street, became the bride of Charles W. Buckley of Cuba township. Reverend Taylor officiated, using the single ring service.

The bridal couple were attended by Robert Buckley and Miss Mary Grubbs. Mr. Buckley wore a white silk gown and white hat; the bridesmaid was in blue. Both of them wore shoulder bouquets.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and garden flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckley spent several days in Wisconsin and are now at home to their friends at 314 W. Russell street.

Honored at Reception

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wichman, 313 Grove avenue, entertained forty relatives and friends at a reception Saturday evening in honor of their son Ray, who was a member of the 1933 graduating class of the University of Wisconsin. The Wichman home was beautifully decorated in red and white, the university colors, and this color scheme was carried out also in the dainty refreshments. The following out of town relatives were among the guests: Mrs. H. C. Mason of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hogner and children of Rock River Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wiemuth and daughter of Wauconda and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson and son of Atchison, Kan.
